AASU has made back-to-back NCAA Championships appearances

AASU's Two Straight NCAA Berths

The buzz surrounding head coach Roger Hodge and the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team following its school-record 27-4 season in 2002-03 was tempered by the departure of PBC Player of the Year Tishay Lewis before the first day of practice.

That buzz quickly returned, however, when the Lady Pirates fashioned a 23-8 season that included the school's first-ever NCAA Championship victory, a 75-68 win over North Florida, the team that had knocked the Lady Pirates out of the NAAs in 2002-03.

And despite losing their two leading scorers from last season, the 2004-05 AASU Lady Pirates still have the buzz, having been picked to finish first in the Peach Belt Conference in a poll of the league's coaches for the second consecutive year.

More adversity comes on the eve of the season as well as the PBC Freshman of the Year from 2003-04, Kaneetha Gordon (5-10, Soph., Savannah, Ga.), suffered a torn ACL just 10 days from the beginning of preseason practice. She will miss the entire season.

So now, the Pirates will look to the other six returnees to help the 11 newcomers to the AASU program to live up to the high expectations that have come quickly upon the program.

Head coach Roger Hodge and the Lady Pirates advanced to the NCAA Championships for the second straight year in 2003-04 and won the school's first-ever postseason contest, a 75-68 victory over rival North Florida.

for AASU at point guard, Durham averaged 7.8 points and 5.4 rebounds per game last year and has a career 1.54 assist/turnover ratio.

The other returning starter for Coach Hodge is senior Briana Milam (5-8, Sr., Wittman, Ariz.), who averaged 5.1 points a game and will see action at both two and three spots this year.

Sophomore local products

Meghan Jones (5-7, Soph., Savannah, Ga.) and Sarah Brown (5-4, Soph., Richmond Hill, Ga.) return for their second seasons and should each see action at the two-guard position.

A pair of seniors get their shot to start in the frontcourt as Veronica Campbell (6-0, Sr., Sumner, Ill.) and Ramona Wright (6-0, Sr., Clyn, Ga.) return for their final seasons. Wright was the Pirates' leading scorer off the bench a year ago, averaging 7.5 points per contest, while Campbell averaged 3.5 points and 3.7 rebounds per game.

Chief among the newcomers that should make an immediate impact is Audoshia Kelley (5-8, Jr., Savannah, Ga.), the projected starter at the three spot. Kelley, a former Savannah Morning News Coastal Empire Player of the Year and an NJCAA All-America selection at Pearl River CC, averaged 23 points and 9.4 rebounds per game in her sophomore season.

Another forward who should see plenty of time right away is Lavonne Thomas (6-0, Soph., Jonesboro, Ga.), a transfer from James Madison University. Tho-

Sophomore Kaneetha Gordon was the PBC's Freshman of the Year in 2003-04, averaging 7.7 points and 7.6 rebounds per game, but will miss the 2004-05 season with a torn ACL.

Junior guard Alicia Durham (5-6, Jr., Macon, Ga.) showed a glimpse of how she could handle a larger role in the offense in AASU's final game of the season, scoring 16 points against eventual region champion Augusta State. A two-year starter

AASU won its first NCAA postseason game in 2003-04, over UNF

Just Fuel Desire For More Success

Junior guard Alicia Durham is AASU's most experienced returner in 2004-05. She averaged 7.8 points and 5.4 rebounds last season and has a career 1.54 assist to turnover ratio.

mas was the Atlanta Journal Constitution Player of the Year in 2002-03 and scored more than 1,700 points in her high school career.

The daunting task of replacing Gordon in the lineup might fall to highly-touted freshman Peaches Howard (5-10, Fr., Macon, Ga.), the Georgia State 3A Player of the Year at Northeast Macon HS. Howard averaged 20 points and 10 rebounds as a senior at Jonesboro HS and is one of three incoming Macon area high schoolers for the Lady Pirates. Guard Ashley Duhart (5-3, Fr., Macon, Ga.) averaged 10 points, six assists and five steals a game as a senior at Westside Macon HS, while Lindsey Holmes (5-9, Fr., Bonaire, Ga.) joined Howard and Duhart in earning All-Middle Georgia honors as a senior, averaging 14 points a game at Houston County HS.

Duhart will join fellow incoming freshman Jasmine Herron (5-3, Fr., Lawrenceville, Ga.) in backing up Alicia Durham at the point guard position this season. Herron played for two-time Georgia State champion Collins Hill HS.

Holmes will see action at the two-guard position along with junior long-range threat Jamie Sheridan (5-6, Jr., Syracuse, N.Y.). Sheridan sat out last season but was an NJCAA All-Tournament honoree at Monroe (N.Y.) CC in 2002-03.

A pair of forwards from Scottsdale CC - the same school that produced AASU All-America guard Tasha Washington - will also see increased time with the injury to Gordon. Abei Irowa (5-8, Jr., Nashville, Tenn.) and Ashley Mason (5-11, Soph., Scottsdale, Ariz.) each come to the Lady Pirates from Arizona.

At center, the Lady Pirates have a couple of options as junior Ranay Dato (6-1, Jr., Huntington Beach, Calif.) will join the squad after the conclusion of the AASU volleyball season and Hopie Hutchinson (6-3, Fr., Nassau, The Bahamas) will try to work into the rotation after being away from competitive basketball for a few years.

AASU hits the floor running as the Pirates have been invited to participate in the Disney's Division II Tip-Off Classic on Nov. 5-7 in Orlando, Fla. It is the first time that the Lady Pirates have been invited to participate in the Classic and AASU will face Anderson College, the NCAA's highest scoring team from a year ago (85.0 ppg) in the first round.

Other highlights on the schedule include two other tournaments, the Eckerd Classic over Thanksgiving featuring Eckerd and Florida Southern, as well as the Chatham Orthopaedics Holiday Classic in Savannah, featuring Mars Hill and preseason No. 24-ranked Lenoir-Rhyne. AASU also plays region foes Presbyterian and Fayetteville State, with other non-conference foes Valdosta State, Northwood (Mich.), Morris College and Florida Tech.

The PBC shapes up to be as deep as ever, evidenced by five of eight teams in the South Atlantic Region a year ago coming from the league. GC&SU and defending league champion Lander each return strong squads for 2004-05, as does rival North Florida.

Roger Hodge Head Women's Basketball Coach

Roger Hodge begins his fifth season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball program after leading the Lady Pirates to their second straight NCAA Championships berth and first-ever NCAA postseason victory. Hodge, whose Pirates compiled a 23-8 record in 2003-04, has now compiled a 71-46 record in four seasons with the Lady Pirates.

In 2002-03, Hodge put the Lady Pirates on the map regionally and nationally, leading AASU to a 27-4 record, a first-ever PBC Championship, NCAA berth and a WBCA Top 25 national ranking. He also directed NCAA Division II's best single-season turnaround last season, taking an 11-18 squad that had advanced to the PBC Tournament semifinals and improving on the record by 15 games.

The sixth AASU women's basketball coach in school history, Hodge succeeded Lynn Jarrett in 2000-2001 and was hired from Division I Liberty University, where he served as an assistant on the highly successful Flames program.

Coach Hodge led the Lady Pirates to a 10-16 record in his first season - a three-win improvement over the previous season - and also registered the program's first win over a ranked team in over four years with a 75-72 win over No. 22 Francis Marion on January 3, 2001. In 2001-02, he directed the Lady Pirates to a Peach Belt Conference tournament semifinal appearance, becoming the first No. 6 seed in league tournament history to advance that far.

Hodge entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 with Liberty University, Hodge assisted Lady Flames head coach Rick Reeves on two Big South championship squads in 1997-98 and 1998-99 and assisted head coach Carey Green in 1999-2000 when Liberty went 23-8 and captured the Big South Conference tournament for the fourth straight year.

Prior to Liberty, Hodge was an assistant coach at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton, W. Va., and helped lead the school to the 1996 Class A state championship. Hodge also assisted at Hinton/Summers County High School from 1987-1994 and 1997, while the school captured three West Virginia Class AA State Championships in 1988, 1992 and 1994.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the South-eastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 6,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 15 years, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include the Fine Arts Center, with a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002. The campus also welcomed the second phase of Compass Point, an addition to the school's first dormitory buildings in 2003. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. In 2004-05, Armstrong Atlantic State will host Peach Belt Conference Championships in volleyball and golf, while also hosting the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf National Championships.

AASU sponsors 10 intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. The Pirates have not finished below fourth in the league's all-sports competition since joining the league and finished third in 2003-04, behind North Florida and Kennesaw State.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU first sponsored intercollegiate women's basketball in '76-'77

Alumni Arena @ Armstrong Sports Center

The Armstrong Atlantic State University's athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region as well.

AASU's Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000 square foot multi-purpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a three-station computer lab, a 1,965 square foot weight training/fitness center with 21 Cybex machine exercise stations and a free weight area; four new classrooms, and two 3,535 square foot activity areas.

AASU's athletic teams play home events in a 4,000 seat arena that contains theatre-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team, two-time NCAA Championships participants, has been invited to take part in the 2004 Disney's Division II Tip-Off Classic at the Wide World of Sports Complex in Orlando, Fla., on November 5-7.

The Lady Pirates will be one of eight teams taking part in the Classic, the only sanctioned Division II preseason tournament in the country. Head coach Roger Hodge's squad will face Anderson College in its first round matchup on Friday, November 5 at 3:30 p.m.

AASU comes off of a 23-8 campaign that saw the Lady Pirates win their first NCAA postseason game, a 75-68 win over North Florida. The Lady Pirates are 50-12 over the last two seasons and return seven players from last season's squad, to go along with a talented recruiting class of 11 players. It is the first invitation for the AASU women's basketball program to the Tip-Off Classic in school history. The Lady Pirates defeated four ranked opponents in 2003-04

2003-04 Season Review

How do you follow up a season that clearly ranked as the best in school history?

By defying expectation and advancing further into postseason play.

The 2003-04 Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team had the unenviable task of trying to defend its Peach Belt Conference championship without nine players from the 27-4 season that ranked as the most successful in school history, including PBC Player of the Year Tishay Lewis and 1,000-point scorer Zandriq Cason.

And in the beginning, it looked as if the road would be a rocky one as the Lady Pirates stumbled out of the gate, going 2-2 in their first four games, including a stunning season-opening loss to Charleston (W. Va.).

No matter.

Sparked by DII Bulletin All-America and four-time PBC Player of the Week Tasha Washington, as well as second-team All-PBC honoree Vandy Noldon and PBC Freshman of the Year Kaneetha Gordon, the Lady Pirates reeled off eight straight wins from that point, returned to the national rankings and concluded the 2003-04 season by advancing to the NCAA Championships and accomplishing one task the previous year's team could not - getting that first NCAA postseason victory.

AASU exacted a measure of revenge, knocking the University of North Florida out of the NCAA Championships one year after the Lady Ospreys turned the same trick against the Lady Pirates. The 75-68 victory in the NCAA Tasha Washington earned first-team All-PBC, All-South Atl. Region, PBC and NCAA Region All-Tournament and DII Bulletin and Daktronics All-America honors in 2003-04 as the PBC's leading scorer (21.4 ppg). Washington was also a four-time PBC Player of the Week.

South Atlantic Regional was the first in the history of AASU women's basketball.

With a 23-8 overall record and a 12-4 mark in the Peach Belt, the Lady Pirates proved that they would not be just a one-hit wonder, announcing to the league and the rest of the nation that Senior Vandy Noldon averaged 12.1 points per game and nailed a team-high 54 three-pointers in 2003-04, earning second team All-PBC honors.

AASU women's basketball is here to stay.

The play of Washington helped cement that as the PBC's leading scorer fashioned one of the finest individual seasons in school history. The Phoenix, Ariz., native averaged 21.4 points per game, scoring double figures in all 30 of her games played in 2003-04, and became the first AASU player ever to record 100+ steals and assists in the same season. She also became the first AASU player to score 1,000 points in just two seasons of play and leaves AASU ranked eighth in career scoring, seventh in assists, fourth in steals and third in free throw percentage.

Senior Vandy Noldon earned All-PBC honors by averaging 12.1 points per game and drilled a team-high 54 three-pointers, while fellow senior Marloes Renskers finished her four-year career as the Lady Pirates' all-time leader in games played, participating in 113 contests.

Freshman Kaneetha Gordon made an immediate impact on the Lady Pirates as well, taking a starting spot just three games into the season and never letting go, averaging 7.7 points and 7.6 rebounds a game and becoming just the second AASU player to be named PBC Freshman of the Year.

As a team, the Lady Pirates led the Peach Belt Conference in rebounding for the second time in three seasons and also ranked third in steals. The 23 wins ranked as the second-most in a single season in school history and AASU has now won 50 games in the last two seasons.

Looking ahead to 2003-04, AASU returns Gordon, as well as sophomore guard Alicia Durham (7.8 ppg, 5.4 rpg), junior guard Briana Milam (5.1 ppg) and junior forward Ramona Wright (7.5 ppg). These four form the core of players who will try and keep the new winning tradition of Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball alive in the coming years.

Washington scored her 1,000th point on 3/6 vs. Lander in the PBC Tmt

The Peach Belt Conference

Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 14th season with 21 national championships and 16 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and began play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The PBC has seen continued success in all sports with national rankings and multiple NCAA appearances in every sport last season, including a national championship for the Columbus State baseball team and a national championship finals appearance by the Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate (formerly USC Spartanburg). The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton College & State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997, to bring the current membership to 12 institutions.

Former Augusta State basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference's first full-time commissioner in July of 1991. He established the conference office in Augusta, Ga., which houses the commissioner and his staff.

Dr. Thomas Hallman, president of the University of South Carolina at Aiken, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2003-04.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

Pirates Club / AASU Athletic Highlights

Dear Friends:

One of the goals of Armstrong Atlantic State University is to make every component of the university outstanding. This includes excellence in teaching, learning, scholarship and service.

AASU athletics is no exception. The record is clear in this regard. Our athletic teams and individual athletes are competing with great success at both the regional level in the Peach Belt Conference and at the NCAA Division II national level. There is no doubt that our coaches are recruiting and preparing true student-athletes. Our athletes perform well academically as well as athletically.

In order to sustain this record of excellence, we need your assistance. A nationally-prominent athletic program begins with community support. Please consider being one of AASU's community supporters. I invite you to join the team and become a member of the Pirates Club.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt

Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team enjoys a walk on the beach at Tybee Island. Just minutes away from downtown Savannah, Tybee Island is a popular attraction for Savannah natives and tourists alike, adding to the six million visitors that experience the Coastal Empire area each year.
