Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 6,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 15 years, from 2,740 students in 1987 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include the Fine Arts Center, with a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002. The campus also welcomed the second phase of Compass Point, an addition to the school's first dormitory buildings in 2003. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. In 2004-05, Armstrong Atlantic State will host Peach Belt Conference Championships in volleyball and golf, while also hosting the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf National Championships.

AASU sponsors eight intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. The Pirates have not finished below fourth in the league's allsports competition since joining the league and finished third in 2003-04, behind North Florida and Kennesaw State.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU Volleyball began as an intercollegiate sport in 1986

AASU Administration

Dr. Thomas Z. Jones University President

Thomas Z. Jones, the sixth president to serve at Armstrong Atlantic State University, begins his third year at AASU. Hired on August 1, 2000, Jones was selected by the Board of Regents and University System of Georgia Chancellor Stephen R. Portch after an exhaustive national search.

Dr. Jones served on the faculty and administration at Columbus State University, as its vice president for academic affairs from 1988-2000, prior to coming to Armstrong Atlantic State. A 30-year veteran of university teaching and administration, Dr. Jones has taught at Indiana State University, Emory and Henry College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology. While at West Virginia Tech, Dr. Jones served as the Westmoreland Professor of Mining, an endowed professorship, and vice president of academic affairs.

Dr. Jones received his bachelor's degree in physics from Fairmont State College, his master of arts degree in geology from West Virginia University and his Ph.D in Geology from Miami (Ohio) University.

From 1980-1988, he owned and served as president of Technical Evaluation Consultants, Inc., a privately owned business specializing in providing science, technical and engineering services for business, industry, government agencies and the legal community.

Dr. Jones and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Matthew and Michael.

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher Athletic Director

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher begins his ninth full year as the athletic director for Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Aenchbacher's responsibilities include overseeing the entire athletic department and promoting Armstrong Atlantic State athletics in the community of Savannah.

Dr. Aenchbacher received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1979, where he was a standout student-athlete for the baseball team as a pitcher. He received his Master's degree and Doctorate of Education from the University of Georgia.

Along with his student-athlete experience at AASU, Dr. Aenchbacher also coached the Pirate cross country teams for five years and started the first AASU men's soccer team, which he coached for seven years.

During Dr. Aenchbacher's tenure as athletic director, AASU's athletic programs have had tremendous success in the classroom and on the playing field. Student-athletes at AASU have excelled in academics with 48 percent earning a 3.0 grade point average or better. The overall grade point average of AASU student-athletes is 2.87, higher than the overall institutional GPA. In 2003-04, the AASU athletic department sent seven of eight teams to the NCAA DII Championships for the second straight season, the best ratio in the nation. The Pirates also collected the third-most points per sport sponsored in the annual NACDA Director's Cup competition, which tracks the performance of Division II schools in all sports. AASU accumulated its most Director's Cup points ever (328.5) and averaged 41.1 points per sport, behind only Grand Valley State (MI) and Cal State Chico.

Dr. Aenchbacher has been married for 13 years to Michele and together they are the proud parents of two children, Jesse and Lainey.

Head Coach Alan Segal

Alan Segal Head Volleyball Coach

Alan Segal begins his sixth season as head coach of the Armstrong Atlantic State University volleyball squad after leading the Pirates to their fourth straight NCAA Championships berth in 2003. The four straight years of NCAA postseason play represent the third-longest postseason streak at AASU, behind only the men's and women's tennis teams, and Segal accomplished the feat in 2003 with a team consisting of no seniors.

The 1999 and 2000 Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Segal and the Pirates overcame a 1-5 start to finish the 2003 season with a 22-14 record, the fifth straight year of 20 or more wins for AASU. Segal's squad boasted three All-PBC honorees in juniors Darcey Krug and Candice Modlinski, as well as AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year Traci Knuth. These three performers helped AASU lead the Peach Belt and rank 14th in the nation in blocking, averaging 2.96 per game.

In five seasons, Segal has compiled a 146-49 overall record at AASU and has a 186-81 overall head coaching record in six seasons.

In his first season as the Pirates' head coach, Segal directed the Pirates to 29 consecutive victories to start the season and finished the year with a school-record 36 wins. Segal also directed a 23 and a half-game turnaround from a team that finished 8-24 the year before, the best single-season turnaround in the NCAA that season.

Segal's second season at AASU saw the Pirates achieve their first AVCA Division II national ranking (No. 24) and advance to their first NCAA Division II National Championship appearance. AASU won its first postseason match, 3-1 over USC Spartanburg, and also had one of its players earn AVCA All-Region honors for the first time in school history in middle hitter Sarah Haynes.

The Pirates matched their 29-10 record in Segal's third season and made their second-straight trip to the NCAAs, while the 2002 season saw AASU capture its first Peach Belt Conference tournament championship and automatic berth to the NCAAs.

Prior to joining the AASU coaching ranks, Segal coached for two years at Michigan Tech, where he led the Huskies to a 40-32 record over two seasons and a No. 23 national ranking at the end of the 1997 season. Before his inaugural collegiate head coaching position, Segal was an assistant coach at Florida Southern College from 1994-96, where the Mocs advanced to NCAA Tournament play two of three seasons.

Segal has also accumulated coaching experience as head girls' volleyball coach at Agoura High School (1989-92), where he led the team to the Division 3A finals in the California Interscholastic Federation in 1989; assistant men's coach for Pierce Junior College in Woodland Hills, Calif. (1989-91); assistant women's coach at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill. (1988-89); assistant women's coach at Delta Junior College in Stockton, Calif. (1983-84); assistant women's coach at Cosummes River College in Sacramento, Calif. (1982); and assistant girls' coach at Cordova High School in Rancho Cordova, Calif. (1980).

Segal is a 1982 graduate of California State University at Sacramento, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in recreation administration. An active member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Segal is on the 40-member coaches panel that determines the AVCA Division II Top 25 each week.

Segal is also a veteran volleyball official. He officiated the National Junior College Championships in both 1994 and 1995 and for the past ten years has been one of the top-rated officials on the AVP Professional Beach Tour.

Born March 16, 1959, Segal is single and resides in Savannah, Ga.

AASU Assistant Coaches Jenni Holste and Jen Michael

Jenni Holste Assistant Volleyball Coach

Former Florida Southern College standout Jenni Holste joins the AASU volleyball program as an assistant coach for 2004.

A two-time AVCA All-South Region honoree, Holste is the Florida Southern career record holder in blocks with 493. A three-time All-Sunshine State Conference honoree, Holste also ranks third all-time in Moccasin history in kills with 1,496. She was an honorable mention AVCA All-America honoree in 2003 and was named the FSC team MVP as a senior.

Holste graduated from Florida Southern in 2004 with a bachelor's of science degree in sociology and criminology. The Orange Park, Fla., native graduated from Middleburg HS and was a two-time All-Conference player for the Broncos.

Holste, 24, will be working on her master's degree in criminal justice from Armstrong Atlantic State in addition to her coaching duties.

Jen Michael Assistant Volleyball Coach

Former Francis Marion University standout setter Jen Michael begins her third season as an assistant coach for the AASU volleyball squad.

A four-year letterwinner for Francis Marion, Michael also competed for the Patriot track and field and cross country squads. The 2000 team MVP, Michael was a member of the 1998 Patriot squad (27-6 record) that won the PBC Tournament and advanced to the NCAA Division II national tournament. During her four-year career, she appeared in 120 matches (394 games) and recorded 228 kills, 985 assists, 135 service aces, and 880 digs. As a senior, she ranked sixth in the PBC in assists per game and 10th in service aces per game.

Michael earned her bachelor's degree in mathematics in May of 2002 and graduated magna cum laude. She received the Secondary Education Award at the university's 2002 Academic Awards Day program. She was named to the Peach Belt Conference Presidential Honor Roll four times, was a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Chi Alpha Sigma honor societies, was a Francis Marion Scholar, and was selected to Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. A native of Canal Fulton, Ohio Michael was an All-League and All-District performer at Jackson High School, and a senior played in the Ohio East-West All-Star Match.

Michael, 24, completed her master's degree in math education at Armstrong Atlantic State University in 2004. She currently teaches classes at AASU as well as in high school, in addition to helping out the AASU volleyball program.

Pirates Aim To Make It Five In A Row In 2004 Keep NCAA Postseason Streak Alive

Armstrong Atlantic State has become a fixture in the NCAA postseason, making appearances in the last four consecutive South Regionals. This year, the tournament field expands from 48 teams to 64, meaning eight teams from the South Region will make the postseason in 2004.

And the Pirates are in good shape to make a fifth straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, thanks to a solid core of returning players and a talented incoming class of six newcomers.

Last season, head coach Alan Segal and the Pirates used their strong middle hitters to lead the PBC in blocking, averaging 2.96 blocks per game. AASU sported three of the top five blockers in the league and all three return for the 2004 season.

Traci Knuth (l) and Darcey Krug (r) helped the Pirates lead the PBC in blocking in 2004, averaging 2.96 blocks per game.

Senior All-PBC middle hitter Candice Modlinski, the Pirates' leading hitter each of the last two seasons, joins with AVCA All-Region Freshman of the Year MH Traci Knuth as AASU's starting middles in 2004. Sophomore Lauren Good will also see time in the middle, as will two newcomers, junior Ranay Dato (Huntington Beach, Calif. / Golden West CC) and freshman Kassi Kixmiller (Bloomington, Ind. / Bloomington North HS).

Right side will again be the domain of All-PBC senior Darcey Krug, who ranked third in the PBC in blocks in 2003. Good and freshman Rindy Vidovich (San Pedro, Calif. / Mary Star of the Sea HS) will also contribute on the right side.

Senior Ashley Lavender and sophomore Christina Flores will start on the outside, but Vidovich and freshman Stacia McCoy (Eagan, Minn. / Eastview HS) will push for playing time.

The loss of both setters from the 2003 squad leaves the Pirates with a healthy competition in 2004 between two Southern California freshmen. Margaret Thornton (Hesperia, Calif. / Sultana HS) and Karla Readshaw (Huntington Beach, Calif. / Edison HS) will battle for the starting spot and both are capable of coming in and leading the Pirate offense right away.

The 2004 schedule features five matches against teams listed in the CSTV/AVCA Division II preseason rankings and seven matches against teams that advanced to the 2003 NCAA Championships. The Pirates again will host the Chatham Orthopaedics Volleyball Classic on Sept. 10-11, featuring 24 matches over two days and including top teams such as Tampa, Florida Southern and Florida Gulf Coast. AASU will also take part in tournaments in Illinois (Quincy University) and New York (LIU-C.W. Post) as well as taking on non-conference foes Eckerd, Saint Leo, Florida Southern, Tampa, Flagler, Converse, Coker and Florida Gulf Coast.

AASU has been picked to finish second in a preseason poll of the Peach Belt Conference coaches, behind five-time PBC champion North Florida.

AASU Volleyball Travels to China

First-Ever Overseas Trip for AASU Volleyball An Awesome Experience For Players and Coaches

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad, participants in the NCAA Championships each of the last four seasons, embarked on a once-in-a-lifetime trip on Tuesday, July 27, flying to China for a two-week preseason tour. Head coach Alan Segal's squad played five scrimmage matches against Chinese teams during the tour in preparation for the upcoming 2004 season.

This was the first overseas tour for any Armstrong Atlantic State squad since the men's basketball team, under the direction of George Bianchi, took a preseason trip to the French West Indies and played four games in Fort-de-France in 1982.

Eight players represented the Pirates in China, including 2004 AVCA South Region freshman of the year Traci Knuth and All-PBC players Candice Modlinski and Darcey Krug. Senior Ashley Lavender, sophomore Lauren Good and freshmen Amber Stewart and Stacia McCoy also represented the Pirates, as well as assistant coach Jen Michael.

The trip was run by TranSports Athletics, Inc., a Savannah-based company that provides athletic teams of all levels to experience overseas trips around the world.

The Pirates arrived in China on Wednesday afternoon after leaving Savannah early Tuesday morning. A two-hour flight to Chicago and a 13-hour flight to Beijing, along with crossing the international date line on the trip, made it all told a 32-hour journey. What follows is the team journal of the two-week experience, as recorded on the www.athletics.armstrong.edu website during the trip.

Wednesday, July 28, 2004

The team checked into the Jianguo Garden hotel in downtown Beijing and enjoyed a leisurely evening, including dinner at an entertaining Mongolian restaurant. Live music entertained the part, as two very talented musicians played an instrument that looks like a bass, but only had two strings and the instrument could be plucked or strummed with a bow.

Thursday, July 29

Thursday marked the first full day of sightseeing, and it was quite full! The team visited Tienamen Square, the Forbidden City and the Summer Palace before getting an hour of practice in during the afternoon. The morning was rainy, but the weather cleared up nicely in the afternoon. All throughout the day, in both the Forbidden City and the Summer Palace, youngsters stopped the AASU players to have pictures taken with them. Some brave children even struck up conversations with the players, practicing English that is now part of their grade school curriculum.

Friday, July 30

Friday started off with an early morning drive out to the Great Wall on the Badaling expressway. 20 members of the AASU travel party started the arduous climb, and nine survived to make it all the way to the top! We ran into other tour groups from the states, including a seniors tennis club playing matches in China, as well as groups from Indiana and Houston. After the Great Wall, we had lunch, then visited the Ming Tombs, where everyone took turns dressing up in period Chinese emperor's and empress' clothing for photo opportunities. This drew quite a crowd among several of the other tourists!

The day ended up with a visit to the Sacred Way, a pathway leading to the Ming Tombs that contains several statues of animals and other Chinese mythic figures.

Saturday, July 31

Our first weekend day in Beijing also brought our first match against Beijing University. With a city of 30 million people, automobile (and bicycle) traffic on a Saturday was just as heavy as any rush hour traffic you can see in the U.S. We arrived at Beijing University at 9:00 a.m. and, after a 30-minute warmup, played a five-game match using international rules - which bear a striking resemblance to NCAA volleyball rules! The only major difference is the scoring as games are played to 25 points. The Beijing squad played a typically Chinese brand of volleyball - very hard serves, excellent passing and a lot of quick sets. Beijing took the first four games of the five-game scrimmage, but the Pirates rallied to take the fifth game, 18-16, and improved greatly throughout the course of the match. Senior Darcey Krug led the Pirates with nine kills and hit .316, while Christina Flores, Traci Knuth and Candice Modlinski each had six kills. Jen Michael tallied 30 assists and Flores led defensively with nine digs. Freshman Stacia McCoy, in her first action in a Pirate uniform, recorded three kills and six digs.

After the match, the team enjoyed a rickshaw tour of the Hutong district, a very old housing district in central Beijing. The team visited a family's house in the district, the Li family, who have lived four generations in the same district! After the rickshaw tour, the girls were treated to a trip to Silk Alley, for a little shopping excursion.

The Pirates were in China from July 27 - August 9, 2004

Sunday, August 1, 2004

Sunday, we found, is a big tourist day not only for foreigners but for Beijing natives as well. This morning, we traveled to the Temple of Heaven. Literally thousands of Beijing natives were there on a beautiful Sunday morning, exercising, playing games such as Dominos, cards and chess (the Chinese version!) and listening to live music. Inside the temple is the Qinandian, or the Hall of Prayer for Good Harvests. It is the most photographed building in Beijing - it is also incorporated into the Beijing 2008 Olympic logo and will be the site of the 2008 Olympic opening ceremonies. So, of course, the team had to add to that lore by getting photographed in front of it! After the visit, the team played its second match against Beijing University. This was played under regular match rules, and even though Beijing University won in three straight games, several Pirates played well, including Christina Flores, who had six kills and hit .556. Ashley Lavender had seven digs and Jen Michael had 18 assists and a team-high eight digs. After the match, the two teams got together for photos.

The final event of the day was a traditional Peking Duck dinner in the evening. Ever since the team has arrived in Beijing, most lunches and all of the dinners have been a "all you can eat" affair where the teams sit in a circular table and servers bring out platefuls of food. You rotate the plate around and take as little or as much as you want. Tonight, the "traditional" duck dinner featured many many other dishes, including beef, pork, chicken, fish, shrimp and rice .. all before the duck arrived! It was served as the last course and many of the players had a taste or two of a meat they had never had before.

Monday, August 2

Our last guided tour of Beijing took us to the Lama temple, or the Lamasery of Harmony and Peace. Practitioners of Tibetan Buddhism, the Lamasery consists of several buildings where worshippers come to offer incense and prayer to Buddha. Even on a work day, the temple was full of worshippers. The main sight in this Lamasery is the 28-meter high Buddha statue, carved from a single piece of white sandalwood. The sculpture is eight meters below ground and 18 meters high. Basically, they built the statue first, then built the building around the statue!

After lunch, the Pirates played its third match of the trip against the Beijing University of Aeronautics and Aviation. This team captured the collegiate championship for Beijing last year and the girls played five games against two separate teams - the first two games against one team, and then three against a second team. In front of a crowd numbering nearly 40 to 50 students from the University, the Pirates took the first two games, 25-22 and 25-21. Against the second team, the Pirates dropped three games, but both Universities represented themselves very well in an entertaining scrimmage. Darcey Krug led the Pirates with 14 kills, while Traci  Knuth added 10 kills and 12 digs. Jen Michael tallied 36 assists to go along with 10 digs, and Candice Modlinski recorded five blocks.

Tuesday, August 3

Tuesday was a "free day" to explore Beijing before our departure for Shanghai tomorrow morning. Some traveled back to Tienemen Square and the Forbidden City for a more in-depth guided tour, while some took the opportunity to return to Silk Alley for more shopping and bargains. A couple of the party even took in a movie at the cinema closest to the hotel! Today's pictures. therefore, are a collection of shots from the past six days and we will return with an update tomorrow night after the team arrives in Shanghai.

Traci Knuth attacks against the Beijing Univ. of Aeronautics and Aviation on Monday.

Wednesday, August 4

The traveling party arrived in Shanghai, no worse for wear, though a bit of turbulence heading into Shanghai on our China Air flight gave a few of the players a little jolt. Shanghai's Pudong airport is exquisitely modern, built just four years ago in the year 2000. We took a charter bus into downtown to our hotel, the Holiday Inn Plaza, but when we leave on Monday, we will be taking the Maglev train that zips you from downtown to the airport in eight minutes. Our charter bus ride was just under an hour! Temperatures were around 35 degrees Celsius and overcast, thanks to a few clouds and smog. We might be getting a few rain showers tomorrow.

With most of the day taken up by traveling, dinner was an early affair at the Sunjoy restaurant in downtown Shanghai. Afterwards, a few of the players and parents took in a little live music at one of the fountains nearby. Unfortunately, Shanghai is in the middle of a bit of an energy crunch. Downtown would normally be lit brightly, but energy restrictions have forced most companies not to light the outer lights of its buildings at night to save energy, thus an interesting nightlife where the city streets are lit, but two stories up it is almost pitch dark because of the lack of building lights.

Thursday, August 5

Our first full day in Shanghai turned out to be quite full indeed! A morning trip to the Shanghai Museum and the People's Square fascinated everyone with the exhibits in Chinese coins, calligraphy, art, furniture, sculpture and silk. And from ancient to modern, we then took a trip to the top of the Shanghai TV Tower, Asia's tallest free standing structure and the third tallest tower in the world! The sight from near the top of the tower, 360 meters high, dwarfed the high rise buildings surrounding it.

After lunch, the team then took a trip to the Bund, a riverfront section in downtown Shanghai noted for its wonderful scenery and fun-loving vendors, as the pictures prove! Dinner was preceded by a tour of a real Chinese silk factory, where the girls got a chance to see how silk is harvested and pulled to make many items, then just -had-to pick up a few of these items in the factory's store.

Darcey Krug hit .291 with a team-high 41 kills on the China trip

Friday, August 6

Early Friday morning, we took an hour-long bus ride out to the suburbs of Shanghai, where the U17 Shanghai Youth volleyball club lives and trains. The complex is huge - it is probably as close to the Disney's Wide World of Sports complex in Orlando as you're going to get. There was a natatorium, several other sports fields and venues, as well as a volleyball-only facility, in which we played. The Shanghai Youth club consists of a mixture of 15-, 16- and 17-year old students. These students literally eat, sleep and drink volleyball and they only get to go home every other weekend to be with their families. They train along an Olympic developmental squad from Shanghai - this team consists of high caliber players, including the very last cut from the Chinese Olympic squad of 12 that departed for Athens last week. The Pirates scrimmaged against the Shanghai Youth for five games. Christina Flores led offensively with eight kills, while Darcey Krug added seven. Freshman Stacia McCoy hit an impressive .444 off the bench and also added six digs.

After a rest at the hotel, the team ventured out to the Yu Yuan Gardens in downtown Shanghai. An enclosed garden originally laid out in the 1500s by a wealthy businessman. The gardens cover more than 20,000 square meters and contain, along with plants, a few fish streams, man-made rock formations and temple rooms. After the gardens, a visit to the adjacent Yu Yuan market where a very popular dumpling restaurant exists - the cooks draw quite the audience by just preparing these delicacies, and the line to buy is 10 meters long.

Saturday, August 7

Our final match of the trip saw the Pirates play the Shanghai Youth U17 club for a second time, and that made a difference as the Pirates played very well in their "swan song" in China. Christina Flores (9 kills, 18 digs) led the way, while Ashley Lavender added eight kills and Darcey Krug had seven kills and three blocks. Freshman Stacia McCoy added five kills and 11 digs off the bench, and after the match, head coach Alan Segal and Shanghai Youth head coach Dr. Liu - a former member of the Chinese Olympic Men's Volleyball Team - posed for a picture as Dr. Liu presented the Pirates a signed volleyball from the Shanghai Youth squad. The team even followed the girls out to the bus to give them a farewell wave

Then it was off to lunch, where the team celebrated a birthday as Flores turned 19 years old, complete with a cake and a song. The afternoon touring took the Pirates to the Jade Buddha Temple, home of one of two Jade Buddha figurines delivered to China and housed in a temple. It is a functioning temple, with dining halls, incense burners and prayer areas for people to come and worship Buddha. The team then enjoyed a tea ceremony afterwards.

Sunday is our final full day in China, and the team is going to take a train ride to Suzhou in the morning and visit that city, often called the "Venice" of China.

Sunday, August 8

The final full day in China for the Pirates ! The day included a morning train trip to Suzhou. Sunday is a family day in China, with many people traveling the train to and from Shanghai to visit parents or children. Also, train tickets in China are sold on a one-way basis only. When we arrived in Suzhou at 10:00 a.m., we tried to get return tickets to Shanghai for that afternoon only to find that tickets were sold out! We were able to hire a tour bus and van, however, and see some of the sights of Suzhou and still get a ride back to Shanghai. We visited the city gates of Suzhou, which included the Flower Pavilion, a gondola ride through one of the streams and a tea ceremony. Afterwards, the team visited another silk store and an arts and crafts store, where several beautiful works such as embroidery, sandalwood carving and painting were on display. The 85-km ride back to Shanghai took about an hour and a few of the party took one last shopping trip to one of the Shanghai markets!

The Pirates left for the states on Monday morning, departing from Shanghai on a Noon flight and, thanks again to crossing the date line, will returned to the US on the same day.

2003 Season Review

Freshman Traci Knuth hit .253 with 304 kills and 127 blocks, earning All-PBC and 2003 AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year honors for the Pirates.

With a team consisting of no seniors, five juniors, two sophomores and seven freshman, the Pirates overcame a 1-5 start to finish with a 22-14 record and earn the program's fourth straight NCAA Championships appearance.

AASU finished tied for second in the Peach Belt Conference regular season standings, but knocked off USC Spartanburg in the PBC Tournament semifinals to not only reach the PBC Tournament final for the fifth straight year, but also wrap up an NCAA at-large berth. AASU has now made the NCAA Tournament each year since 2000, the third longest current streak among Pirate sports.

A big part of the Pirates' success in 2003 was the play of middle hitter and AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year Traci Knuth. The Columbus, Neb., native hit .253 with 304 kills and 127 blocks, becoming the first freshman since Lindsay Ehlers in 1999 to earn All-PBC honors. Her AVCA South Region Freshman of the Year honor is also the first in school history.

Pirates, leading the squad in hitting percentage for the third straight year (.264) and leading the Peach Belt Conference in blocking, averaging 1.26 per game. Modlinski earned All-PBC and honorable mention AVCA All-South Region honors for her efforts and will go into 2004 needing just 199 kills to become the fourth player in AASU history to record 1,000 career kills.

Junior rightside hitter Darcey Krug also turned in an outstanding season, earning All-PBC and honorable mention AVCA All-Region honors. Krug ranked second in the Peach Belt Conference in blocking, averaging 1.16 per game.

The outside hitting of junior Ashley Lavender and freshman Christina Flores also shined in 2003. Flores led the Pirates in digs as a true freshman with 350 to go along with her 197 kills, while Lavender recorded career highs in kills (266), digs (295) and blocks (47).

Freshman setter Kelly Asbury was thrown into the fire early, starting the first 19 matches of the season and averaging 11.40 assists per game in those matches as sophomore Shannon Tracey healed from offseason surgery. When Tracey returned, the duo helped the Pirates' late-season surge to the NCAA Championships and both setters averaged more than nine assists per game.

As a team, the Pirates led the Peach Belt Conference in blocking, averaging 2.96 blocks per game. Three Pirates - Modlinski, Krug and Knuth - ranked in the top five in the league in blocking and the Pirates ranked 14th in NCAA Division II in that category as well. AASU ranked third in the PBC in kills and assists per game and continue to be one of the top offensive teams in the league.

Without a single senior on the squad, the foundation has been set for the Pirates to keep its postseason streak alive. It took the AASU volleyball squad 17 seasons of competition to taste postseason play for the first time, and now there hasn't been a Pirate volleyball player since the new millennia who has gone through a season not experiencing the NCAA Championships.

Junior Darcey Krug earned All-PBC and honorable mention AVCA All-South Region honors in 2003.

The Pirates are 146-49 under coach Alan Segal in four seasons

AASU Facilities and Athletic Training

The Armstrong Atlantic State University's athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region.

AASU's Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Athletic Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000-square-foot multipurpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a threestation computer lab, a 1,965-squarefoot weight training/fitness center with 21 Cybex machine exercise stations and a free weight area; four new classrooms, and two 3,535-square-foot activity areas.

AASU's athletic teams play home events in a 4,000-seat arena that contains theater-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

Directly behind the Armstrong Sports Center sits the home fields for the baseball and softball teams.

Pirate Field seats 750 fans for the Armstrong Atlantic State University's highly successful baseball program. Generally regarded as one of the best playing surfaces in the conference, Pirate Field has seen the baseball squad advance to 10 NCAA regionals over the past 15 seasons.

To the west of Pirate Field sits the AASU Softball Complex, home to the Pirate softball squad.

The Aquatics and Recreation Center serves as the host of the AASU volleyball squad. The 1,000 seat arena features newly renovated bleacher seating and scoreboards and is the sole volleyball-only facility in the Peach Belt Conference. AASU will host the 2004 Peach Belt Conference Championships in the ARC on Nov. 12-14, the first time AASU has hosted the league tournament since 1996.

AASU Athletic Training

Dr. Spencer Wheeler

Stacey Foust, ATC

AASU athletic teams benefit from the fine athletic training staff, headed by medical director Dr. Spencer Wheeler and head athletic trainer Stacey Foust.

AASU's training room, part of the Armstrong Sports Center, sits adjacent to the fitness center and across the hall from the Pirate locker rooms. The room offers the most modern and advanced equipment to help players deal with injuries and rehabilitation.

Two other graduate assistant trainers aid Dr. Wheeler and Foust in helping treat and prevent injuries to AASU athletes -Luke Hensel, ATC, and Rusty White.

Strength & Conditioning

The AASU volleyball team also benefits from a fine strength and conditioning program, headed by Olympic Weightlifting champion Team Savannah's head coach, Henry Meyers. As the strength and conditioning coach of the volleyball squad, Meyers

Henry Meyers has been integral to the team's fitness and strength for the past two seasons.

Meyers, a native of Savannah and a graduate of Jenkins HS in 1989, was named the 2000 USOC Coach of the Year for Weightlifting as five of Team Savannah's lifters represented the United States in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney. Three more represented the United States in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens.

Myers, 33, is married to Michelle Powell-Meyers.

The Pirates attained their first-ever national ranking in 2000

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

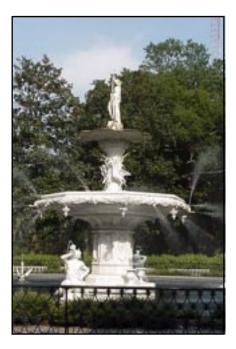

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of mossladen trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance," starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics and most recently served as the media home for the G-8 Summit. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by more than $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the Southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historic settings, the friendliness of a Southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.
