Making a First-Year Experience Course iPad Intensive

a cautionary tale

Presented by Ruth L. Baker, Georgia Southern University
27th Annual GaCOMO Conference
Athens, GA, October 7-9, 2015

Pilot Project Goals - Fall 2014

- Team Teaching with Instructional Designer (Stacy Kluge)
- Improve SLOs through Instructor & Librarian collaboration
- Improve student engagement and critical thinking through collaboration and peer-review
- Infuse Information Literacy throughout the course

FYE Learning Outcomes

Course Description

Thematic seminar designed to promote information literacy skills and support students' cognitive and affective integration into the University community. Required during the first semester for all students new to the University (except for transfer students with 30 hours or more); students may not withdraw.

Course Outcomes

1. Locate and critically evaluate print and electronic information for its currency, relevancy, authority, accuracy and purpose.
2. Explain the academic integrity provisions of the Student Conduct Code and consider their own ethical responsibilities within and beyond the university community.
3. Analyze in discussions, presentations and writing the cultural-historical context of important works of horror.

Course Textbook

Phillips, K. R. (2005). Projected fears: Horror films and American culture. Westport, Conn.: Praeger.

Phillips (communication and rhetoric, Syracuse Univ.) discusses ten seminal horror films (1931-99), gauging their function as the "collective nightmares" of their audiences and their times, as films resonating and resisting their respective cultural anxieties. In this context, ... (Choice Reviews Online)

Class Schedule: Film Cycles

- Film showing
- Outside reading and quiz on cultural-historical themes in each film
- Librarian-led instruction sessions followed by independent outside research
- Documentaries created in groups to summarize research and analysis
- Documentaries screened, followed by in-class discussion and peer-review

Infusion of Information Literacy (IL) Skills

- Flipped Classroom (tutorial LibGuide) <http://georgiasouthern.libguides.com/fyehorror>
- Multiple instruction sessions - building through semester (scaffolding) (in addition to standard FYE

Modules: Evaluating Information, Academic Research & Academic Integrity that are designed to promote IL)

- Google Search-selecting and evaluating sources (CRAAP Test)
  - Cultural-Historical (C-H) Context of of Classic Horror Films
  - Evaluation of sources-reading critically
- Types of Periodicals <http://georgiasouthern.libguides.com/fye2>
  - Database searching for C-H articles (CRAAP Test)
  - continued evaluation of sources

Taking it to the Next Level

- To achieve the goal of increased student engagement and critical thinking:
  - Students worked in self-selected/named groups of 4 or 5 (collaboration)
    - real-time collaboration in class (and out of class)
  - Groups created Documentary (or Explainer) “videos” using Adobe Voice app for iPad

Documentaries or Explainer Videos cont'd

- Students gathered college-level sources on C-H context of each film to enhance and inform their documentaries (critical thinking)
- Documentaries consisted of images, sounds (voiceover narration) and text

Sample Video Documentary

The “Murdering Mermaids” comparison of Psycho and Night of the Living Dead

<http://voice.adobe.com/v/N6irsAftznz>

*[Caution: because of the nature of these films, some of the images in the documentary
are graphic in nature and may offend some viewers]*

After screening their documentaries, students engaged in real-time peer-review (in class) of group documentaries

[permission to use student created video documentaries granted through GSU

IRB approval #H16066, Sept. 10, 2015]

Peer Review & Rubric for Grading Documentaries

Peer-Review

- Takeaways from the documentaries (main ideas)
- What did you like? what was unclear? what was missing?
- How could it be improved?

Rubric

- Audio/Visual/Clarity
  - Content
  - Citations
  - Pacing

Goals Achieved and Lessons Learned

Demonstrated improvement in engagement and critical thinking

Technical issues:

- Audio-issues with clarity of narration, minimize music and background noise, appropriate pacing
- Visuals-image resolution, too many/too few images, appropriateness, transitions
- Clarity-integrating main ideas and examples, accuracy checking, appropriateness
- Content-cover all the major areas in research, maximize topic of limited scope
- Citations-accurate citations, distinguish book and article citations

Other Issues

- Pitfalls of using new software and unfamiliar mobile technology
    - unexpected upgrades and unintended consequences
    - inability to edit videos after upload
    - network issues
  - Conflicts with in-house procedures
(cycle of course vs. Systems Dept. wiping procedures/schedule)
  - Group dynamics and inter-personal conflict resolution
