Eagle Nation Displays True Community

The word "community" can often be used to describe any group of people loosely connected, but in the truer sense, a community is a group of people that share heritage, culture and resources toward a common goal. In the last week, the Eagle Nation has shown its true spirit of community as well as its capacity for grace and resilience in the midst of turmoil. This has truly been a difficult time for Georgia Southern, but the true community here sustains us all.
