ALMA MATER

Down among the murmuring pine trees
Where old nature smiles,
GTC holds up a standard
Known for miles and miles.
Lift the chorus. Speed it onward,
Ne'er her standard fail,
Hail to thee our Alma Mater,
GTC All Hail.
From the blue and broad Atlantic,
Balmy breezes blow,
Wafting far GTC's Spirit
May she ever grow.

DEDICATION

No man can reveal to you aught but that which already lies half asleep in the dawning of your knowledge.
The teacher who walks in the shadow of the temple, among his followers, gives not of his wisdom but rather of his faith and his lovingness.
If he is indeed wise he does not bid you enter the house of his wisdom, but rather leads you to the threshold of your own mind.

Kahlil Gibran

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

To The Students of Georgia Teachers College

An old college annual is a prized possession of many college people. It serves as a stimulus for bringing back many happy experiences. This week, at a civic club meeting, I talked with a student who graduated fifteen years ago. He told of a recent evening he had spent with his old college annuals. From the conversation with him I found that he had really enjoyed his experiences on the Georgia Teachers College campus. I think the students during school year 1956-57 have also enjoyed college life and will give the 1957 REFLECTOR a place among their permanent book collection.

I have enjoyed the fine spirit of comradeship which has existed during the year among the Georgia Teachers College family. The students have taken a real interest in the life of the college. One student said recently, "I like the spirit on the campus because I feel free to do the fine things I want to do."

It is a real pleasure for me to have the opportunity to work with such a fine student group.

Sincerely,

Zach S. Henderson

STUDENT COUNCIL

Leading and Promoting By Planning and Working.

At the head of the student activities is the Student Council, a group of officers chosen by the entire college group, to promote the general welfare of the college through active participation of the students in campus life. Each class has a number of representatives; and, by each class working together, the student body is able to engage in and initiate worthwhile activities on the campus. All activities are planned for the advancement of college life. The Student Council is not a student government, but a coordinating body for all the student activities.

The Home Economics Club membership is made up of students who are majoring or minoring in home economics and students who are particularly interested in the field. Bi-monthly meetings are held to discuss professional interests and opportunities, to promote good fellowship among the members, and to offer opportunities for individual growth and development. The organization is affiliated with the American Home Economics Association, Province III College Club Section, and Georgia Home Economics Association College Club group. State and Province III officers have been selected from our membership.

Each year one girl is chosen as "Miss Home Economics." This is the highest honor that the club can give one of its members. She is chosen on the basis of work and leadership in the club. Last year the award was given to Miss Janice Miller, junior, Brooklet.

The Editors
THE REFLECTOR
Collegeboro, Ga.

Dear Editors:

In asking me to select "Miss Reflector" from among the photographs which you sent me, you have given me a pleasant but a difficult task. Georgia Teachers College is surely endowed with a generous representation of Southern beauty and charm. After much study, I have at last narrowed the choice down to three which I have indicated by writing the numbers one, two and three on the back of the respective photographs.

My congratulations to "Miss Reflector", to all the participants in the contest - and to the school children of Georgia who will have such charming teachers!

Sincerely,

Cecil B. deMille

Well, at last here it is—these pages are visible evidence of things we have been doing and that you have been wondering about. We have enjoyed it all—even the frustration and the confusion. We hope that with this book you will be able to carry more clearly the memories of a great year at Georgia Teachers College.

To our staff especially, we would like to say thanks for all your tireless efforts, for without your willing work and cooperation the book would not be a reality.

And we should like to thank the faculty and the student body for their cooperation and understanding and for being everything that made this book possible.

We hope as you leave this campus you will carry with you this book and that in the days to come you will gain true enjoyment by referring to these unforgettable days.

EMORY AND MICKIE
Co-Editors in Chief

The Reflector for 1957 expresses its appreciation to the following business concerns, whose interest and cooperation have helped to make possible the publication of this yearbook of Georgia Teachers College.

The editors and business manager respectfully urge that friends of the college examine the advertisement of these firms and individuals, and call upon them for services at every possible opportunity.
