AASU has made five straight trips to the NCAA Championships

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the South-eastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2001.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed buildings include a 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building opened in 2002; the brand new Student Recreation Facility, which is the temporary home of the Lane Library while the Library undergoes an 11-month renovation project and phases one and two of Compass Point, the school's first dormitory buildings which opened in 2003. Phase two provides an additional 300 beds to the already existing 275 beds from phase one and campus leaders are in talks for a planned phase three addition to Compass Point.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. In 2004-05, Armstrong Atlantic State hosted Peach Belt Conference Championships in volleyball and golf, while also hosting the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf National Championships.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debut in 2004-05, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Volleyball began as an intercollegiate sport at AASU in 1986

Dr. Thomas Z. Jones University President

Thomas Z. Jones, the sixth president to serve at Armstrong Atlantic State University, begins his fifth year at AASU. Hired on August 1, 2000, Jones was selected by the Board of Regents and University System of Georgia Chancellor Stephen R. Portch after an exhaustive national search.

Dr. Jones served on the faculty and administration at Columbus State University, as its vice president for academic affairs from 1988-2000, prior to coming to Armstrong Atlantic State. A 30-year veteran of university teaching and administration, Dr. Jones has taught at Indiana State University, Emory and Henry College and the West Virginia Institute of Technology. While at West Virginia Tech, Dr. Jones served as the Westmoreland Professor of Mining, an endowed professorship, and vice president of academic affairs.

Dr. Jones received his bachelor's degree in physics from Fairmont State College, his master of arts degree in geology from West Virginia University and his Ph.D in Geology from Miami (Ohio) University.

From 1980-1988, he owned and served as president of Technical Evaluation Consultants, Inc., a privately owned business specializing in providing science, technical and engineering services for business, industry, government agencies and the legal community.

Dr. Jones and his wife, Joyce, have two sons, Matthew and Michael.

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher Athletic Director

Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher begins his tenth full year as the athletic director for Armstrong Atlantic State University.

Dr. Aenchbacher's responsibilities include overseeing the entire athletic department and promoting Armstrong Atlantic State athletics in the community of Savannah.

Dr. Aenchbacher received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Armstrong Atlantic State in 1979, where he was a standout student-athlete for the baseball team as a pitcher. He received his Master's degree and Doctorate of Education from the University of Georgia.

Along with his student-athlete experience at AASU, Dr. Aenchbacher also coached the Pirate cross country teams for five years and started the first AASU men's soccer team, which he coached for seven years.

During Dr. Aenchbacher's tenure as athletic director, AASU's athletic programs have had tremendous success in the classroom and on the playing field. Student-athletes at AASU have excelled in academics with 51 percent earning a 3.0 grade point average or better. The overall grade point average of AASU student-athletes is 2.83, higher than the overall institutional GPA. In 2004-05, the AASU athletic department captured the school's third NCAA Division II National Championship in women's tennis and successfully hosted the 2005 NCAA Division II Men's Golf Championships, the first NCAA national championship event ever hosted in Savannah. The Pirates also collected the fifth-most points per sport sponsored in the annual NACDA Director's Cup competition, which tracks the performance of Division II schools in all sports.

Dr. Aenchbacher has been married for 13 years to Michele and together they are the proud parents of two children, Jesse and Lainey.

Alan Segal Head Volleyball Coach

Alan Segal begins his seventh season as head coach of the Armstrong Atlantic State University volleyball squad after leading the Pirates to their fifth straight NCAA Championships berth in 2004. The five straight years of NCAA postseason play represent the third-longest postseason streak at AASU, behind only men's and women's tennis.

The 1999 and 2000 Peach Belt Conference Coach of the Year, Segal and the Pirates compiled a 29-8 record in 2004 and finished the season ranked No. 21 in the final AVCA/ Division II national rankings, the highest ranking ever received by the AASU program.

In six seasons, Segal has compiled a 175-57 overall record at AASU and has a 215-89 overall head coaching record in seven seasons.

In his first season as the Pirates' head coach, Segal directed the Pirates to 29 consecutive victories to start the season and finished the year with a school-record 36 wins. Segal also directed a 23 and a half-game turnaround from a team that finished 8-24 the year before, the best single-season turnaround in the NCAA that season.

Segal's second season at AASU saw the Pirates achieve their first AVCA Division II national ranking (No. 24) and advance to their first NCAA Division II National Championship appearance. AASU won its first post-season match, 3-1 over USC Spartanburg, and also had one of its players earn AVCA All-Region honors for the first time in school history in middle hitter Sarah Haynes.

The Pirates matched their 29-10 record in Segal's third season and made their second-straight trip to the NAAs, while the 2002 season saw AASU capture its first Peach Belt Conference tournament championship and automatic berth to the NAAs. In 2003, AASU overcame a 1-5 start to finish the 2003 season with a 22-14 record, the fifth straight year of 20 or more wins for AASU - with a team that included no seniors.

Prior to joining the AASU coaching ranks, Segal coached for two years at Michigan Tech, where he led the Huskies to a 40-32 record over two seasons and a No. 23 national ranking at the end of the 1997 season. Before his inaugural collegiate head coaching position, Segal was an assistant coach at Florida Southern College from 1994-96, where the Mocs advanced to NCAA Tournament play two of three seasons.

Segal has also accumulated coaching experience as head girls' volleyball coach at Agoura High School (1989-92), where he led the team to the Division 3A finals in the California Interscholastic Federation in 1989; assistant men's coach for Pierce Junior College in Woodland Hills, Calif. (1989-91); assistant women's coach at Western Illinois University in Macomb, Ill. (1988-89); assistant women's coach at Delta Junior College in Stockton, Calif. (1983-84); assistant women's coach at Cosummes River College in Sacramento, Calif. (1982); and assistant girls' coach at Cordova High School in Rancho Cordova, Calif. (1980).

Segal is a 1982 graduate of California State University at Sacramento, where he earned a bachelor of science degree in recreation administration. An active member of the American Volleyball Coaches Association, Segal is on the 40-member coaches panel that determines the AVCA Division II Top 25 each week.

Segal is also a veteran volleyball official. He officiated the National Junior College Championships in both 1994 and 1995 and the NCAA Women's Indoor Championships from 1984-1988. For the past 19 years has also been one of the top-rated officials on the AVP Professional Beach Tour.

Born March 16, 1959, Segal is single and resides in Savannah, Ga.

Jenni Holste

Assistant Volleyball Coach

Jenni Holste begins her second season as Armstrong Atlantic State's assistant volleyball coach in 2005.

Last year, she helped the Lady Pirates accumulate a 29-8 record, their fifth-straight NCAA Championships appearance and a No. 21 final AVCA DII national ranking.

A two-time AVCA All-South Region honoree, Holste is Florida Southern College's career record holder in blocks with 493. A three-time All-Sunshine State Conference honoree, Holste also ranks third all-time in Moccasin history in kills with 1,496. She was an honorable mention AVCA All-America honoree in 2003 and was named the FSC team MVP as a senior.

Holste graduated from Florida Southern in 2004 with a bachelor's of science degree in sociology and criminology. The Orange Park, Fla., native graduated from Middleburg HS and was a two-time All-Conference player for the Broncos.

Holste, 23, will be working on her master's degree in criminal justice from Armstrong Atlantic State in addition to her coaching duties.

AASU Volleyball Live On The Web !

The Armstrong Atlantic State athletic department will continue to bring home all of the exciting volleyball action in 2005 right to your computer as the Pirates stream live audio and video of all 11 home matches over the Internet.

Fans will be able to catch all of the action from the official Website of AASU Athletics, www.athletics.armstrong.edu, using the power of Windows Media Player.

AASU debuted its Internet broadcasting system in 2001 with incredible success as every home men's and women's basketball game, volleyball match, the majority of the Pirates' baseball and softball games and the NCAA Mid-Atlantic Women's Tennis Regional were available last season.

For more information about the AASU Web broadcast, visit the AASU Athletics Web Site or contact Director of Sports Communications Chad Jackson at jacksoch@mail.armstrong.edu

Pirates Become "Team To Beat" In Peach Belt Conference Aim To Make Sixth Straight Trip To NAAs

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad has had an amazing run under the tutelage of head coach Alan Segal. Since taking over the program in 1999, the Pirates have won 175 matches in six seasons - more impressive when you take into consideration that in the 13 years of AASU volleyball prior to 1999, the Pirates won 151 matches total.

The last five seasons have seen the Pirates advance to NCAA Championship play and at the end of the 2004 season, AASU finished the year ranked No. 21 in the final CSTV/AVCA Division II Top 25 Poll.

With the exit of North Florida from the Peach Belt Conference, it is clear who now inherits the bullseye at the top of the league as the 2005 season begins - preseason No. 21-ranked Armstrong Atlantic State.

Traci Knuth (l) and Christina Flores (r) each earned PBC weekly honors in 2004 and return to lead the Pirates in 2005.

AASU was a clear selection by the league's coaches to capture the 2005 Peach Belt Conference championship, and they'll try to accomplish the feat with eight returnees and six newcomers that make up a deep and experienced squad. The Pirates feature no freshman and just one senior on this season's club, giving them a core of juniors and sophomores that will be together for the next two seasons.

The middle sees four returnees, including two-time All-PBC selection junior Traci Knuth, junior Lauren Good, senior Ranay Dato and sophomore Kassi Kixmiller. Joining these four are incoming juniors Leah Schmiedge (Regina, Saskatchewan / Pasco Hernando CC) and Rachel Falco (Long Beach, Calif. / Golden West CC).

Three returning outside hitters - juniors Christina Flores and sophomores Stacia McCoy and Rindy Vidovich - will be pushed for time from incoming juniors Shari Hicks (Round Rock, Texas / Lamar University), Nikki Ciapponi (Fresno, Calif. / Fresno City College) and Adriana Miller (Rocklin, Calif. / American River College).

Competition for the starting rightside spot will be fierce as well between returners Good and Vidovich, as well as newcomers Falco and Hicks.

Sophomore Margaret Thornton returns at the setting position, and will be joined by incoming junior Stacy Yates (Shorewood, Ill. / Joliet JC). Last year the Pirates ran an effective 6-2 offense utilising two setters per rotation, and coach Segal has indicated that is again a possibility for 2005.

The 2005 schedule features five matches against teams ranked in the CSTV/AVCA Division II preseason rankings, including No. 3-ranked and defending DII National Champion Barry University. The Pirates will again host the Chatham Orthopaedics Volleyball Classic on Sept. 9-10, featuring 32 matches over two days and including top teams such as Florida Southern, Florida Gulf Coast, Puerto Rico-Rio Pedras and Rollins. AASU will also take part in tournaments in Texas (St. Mary's) and Illinois (Lewis University) as well as taking on non-conference foes Tampa, Flagler, Valdosta State, Florida Tech and West Georgia.

AASU Earns Fifth Straight Trip To NCAAs Finishes Season With No. 21 AVCA National Ranking

Senior Candice Modlinski became the fourth AASU player to record 1,000 career kills and also finished her career as AASU's all-time blocks leader with 425.

The Armstrong Atlantic State volleyball squad made its fifth straight appearance in the NCAA Championships in 2005, finishing the season ranked No. 21 in the final AVCA/DII Top 25 rankings, only the second time in school history that the Pirates have finished the season in the national rankings. AASU advanced to the Peach Belt Conference tournament championship game for the sixth straight season and also hosted the PBC Championships for the first time since 1996.

AASU finished second in the Peach Belt regular season standings and earned an at-large berth to the NCAA Championships, extending their streak of postseason play.

The Pirates began the season with two undefeated performances at the Quincy University/McDonald's Invitational in Quincy, Ill. and the LIU-C.W. Post Classic in Brookville, N.Y., en route to a 10-0 start. In late October, the Pirates cracked the AVCA Division II Top 25 poll for the first time since the 2001 season, entering the poll at No. 25 and staying in the rankings throughout the rest of the season.

A 12-2 mark in the Peach Belt Conference set the Pirates up as the No. 2 seed in the PBC Tournament, which AASU hosted for the first time since 1996. AASU breezed through the first two rounds, matching up with nemesis North Florida in the final. A tightly-contested match went to the Ospreys, but the Pirates held their own with UNF during the season, taking games from the Ospreys in each of their three meetings and even pushing them to five games on their home court on Oct. 27 in Jacksonville.

Three seniors had a huge part in the Pirates' success in 2004 as Darcey Krug, Ashley Lavender and Candice Modlinski each capped their four-year careers with outstanding seasons. Krug hit .255 and ranked eighth in the PBC in blocks with 1.01 per game, earning All-PBC honors for a second-straight season. Krug finished her career with 371 blocks, fourth all-time in AASU history. Lavender hit a career-high .243 and ended her career ranked seventh all-time in kills with 826 and fifth all-time in digs with 879, earning All-PBC honors for the first time in her career.

Modlinski hit a career-high .335 and earned AVCA All-South Region honors, becoming just the fourth player in AASU history to record more than 1,000 kills in her career. She also became AASU's all-time blocking leader with 425 career blocks.

Sophomores Traci Knuth and Christina Flores continued to excel as well. Knuth was named the Peach Belt Conference's Player of the Week three times in 2004, the first AASU player to accomplish that feat in one season, as well as earning All-PBC honors for a second straight season. Flores was the league's first-ever Peach Belt Conference Specialist of the Week honoree on Sept. 7 and fashioned an outstanding defensive season, setting the single-season AASU dig record with 440.

Freshmen Margaret Thornton and Karla Readshaw split the setting duties during the year and combined to help AASU average 13.47 assists per game, second-best in the league.

Seniors Darcey Krug and Ashley Lavender each earned All-PBC honors in 2004 in their final seasons as Pirates.

AASU hosts the Chatham Orthopaedics Classic for the seventh straight year

AASU in the NCAA Tournament - 2000-05

2000 (NCAA South Regional - Tampa, Fla.)

In head coach Alan Segal's second season with the Pirates, and on the heels of a school-record 36-5 debut campaign, AASU finished the regular season with a 28-9 record and a second-place finish in the PBC and the PBC Championships.

AASU earned its first-ever bid to the NCAA Championships, capping off a season of firsts that included the program's first national ranking and first wins over nationally-ranked squads and advanced to the 2000 South Regional as the No. 3 seed, where it met up with fellow PBC foe and No. 6 seed USC Spartanburg. The Pirates knocked off the Rifles in four games, 15-10, 15-5, 8-15, 15-10, behind PBC Player of the Year and sophomore Sarah Haynes' career-high 23 kills and sophomore Erin Melius' career high-tying 67 assists to earn the school's first-ever NCAA postseason win.

In the semifinals of the South Region, AASU fell to No. 2-seed North Florida in three games.

The 2000 AASU Volleyball Squad

2001 (NCAA South Regional - Tampa, Fla.)

A second-straight 28-9 regular season record for the Pirates earned the program's second-straight NCAA Championships berth, again sending the Pirates to the University of Tampa for the 2001 NCAA South Region.

The No. 4-seeded Pirates matched up with a familiar foe in the postseason, No. 5-seeded USC Spartanburg, and again the Pirates were victorious, knocking off the Rifles in three games, 30-28, 33-31, 30-27, behind 15 kills from junior Sofie Hakansson, 14 kills from AVCA South Region middle hitter and junior Sarah Haynes and 44 assists from junior Erin Melius.

In the semifinals of the South Region, AASU fell to top-seeded and host Tampa in three games.

Sarah Haynes

2002 (NCAA South Regional - Tampa, Fla.)

AASU's two previous NCAA Championships bids in 2000 and 2001 were of the at-large variety. In 2002, however, the Pirates took matters into their own hands, earning the program's first automatic bid by capturing the 2002 Peach Belt Conference tournament title.

After facing USC Spartanburg in each of its two previous first-round matchups, the No. 4-seeded Pirates battled No. 5-seeded Florida Southern in the first round of the 2002 South Regional. The two teams had split their two meetings during the regular season with each team winning on its home court, but Florida Southern won the battle in the regional, defeating the Pirates in three games, 30-22, 30-27, 30-15.

2003 (NCAA South Regional - Miami Shores, Fla.)

With the loss of five seniors from the 2002 squad and an imposing eight newcomers, early prospects for the NCAA Championships in 2003 seemed bleak, especially after a rough 1-7 start to the season.

The Pirates rebounded, however, to fashion a 22-13 overall record and again earn an at-large berth in the NCAA Championships. Barry University served as the host for the 2003 South Regional, ending Tampa's three straight years of hosting, and the Pirates entered the regional as the No. 5 seed.

A second-straight matchup with Florida Southern, seeded No. 4, loomed for the Pirates and the result was a closer match than the previous season, but the Mocs came out on top, winning in four games by scores of 31-33, 30-25, 30-16, 30-26. AVCA Region Freshman of the Year Traci Knuth collected 13 kills and 16 digs in the match to lead AASU.

Traci Knuth

2004 (NCAA South Regional - Miami Shores, Fla.)

Three seniors became the first AASU volleyball players to advance to the NCAA postseason in all four years as Ashley Lavender, Darcey Krug and Candice Modlinski helped the Pirates to the 2004 South Regional, compiling a 29-7 record during the regular season.

AASU regained a national ranking in 2004 and found themselves as the No. 5 seed in the expanded NCAA field of 64. Florida Southern again presented itself as the Pirates' first-round opponent as the No. 4 seed and the Mocs prevailed in a three-game match, 30-24, 30-24, 30-24. Modlinski, playing in her final game, hit .542 with 14 kills and six blocks to lead the Pirates.

The loss was AASU's eighth against nationally-ranked competition in 2004 - the Pirates finished the season 0-8 against teams ranked in the AVCA's Top 25, but 29-0 against unranked competition.

The Pirates never appeared in the NCAA postseason until 2000

AASU Facilities and Athletic Training

The Armstrong Atlantic State University's athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region.

AASU's Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Athletic Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000-square-foot multi-purpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a three-station computer lab, a 1,965-square-foot weight training/fitness center with 21 Cybex machine exercise stations and a free weight area; four new classrooms, and two 3,535-square-foot activity areas.

AASU's athletic teams play home events in a 4,000-seat arena that contains theater-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

Directly behind the Armstrong Sports Center sits the home fields for the baseball and softball teams.

Pirate Field seats 750 fans for the Armstrong Atlantic State University's highly successful baseball program. Generally regarded as one of the best playing surfaces in the conference, Pirate Field has seen the baseball squad advance to 10 NCAA regionals over the past 15 seasons.

To the west of Pirate Field sits the AASU Softball Complex, home to the Pirate softball squad.

The Aquatics and Recreation Center serves as the host of the AASU volleyball squad. The 1,000 seat arena features newly renovated bleacher seating and scoreboards and is the sole volleyball-only facility in the Peach Belt Conference. AASU will host the 2004 Peach Belt Conference Championships in the ARC on Nov. 12-14, the first time AASU has hosted the league tournament since 1996.

AASU Athletic Training

Dr. Spencer Wheeler

Stacey Foust, ATC

AASU athletic teams benefit from the fine athletic training staff, headed by medical director Dr. Spencer Wheeler and head athletic trainer Stacey Foust.

AASU's training room, part of the Armstrong Sports Center, sits adjacent to the fitness center and across the hall from the Pirate locker rooms. The room offers the most modern and advanced equipment to help players deal with injuries and rehabilitation.

One graduate assistant trainer aids Dr. Wheeler and Foust in helping treat and prevent injuries to AASU athletes - Rusty White.

Strength & Conditioning

Henry Meyers

The AASU volleyball team also benefits from a fine strength and conditioning program, headed by Olympic Weightlifting champion Team Savannah's head coach, Henry Meyers.

As the strength and conditioning coach of the volleyball squad, Meyers has been integral to the team's fitness and strength for the past two seasons.

Meyers, a native of Savannah and a graduate of Jenkins HS in 1989, was named the 2000 USOC Coach of the Year for Weightlifting as five of Team Savannah's lifters represented the United States in the 2000 Olympic Games in Sydney. Three more represented the United States in the 2004 Olympic Games in Athens.

Myers, 34, is married to Michelle Powell-Meyers.

★ TEAM SAVANNAH ★

The Pirates attained their first-ever national ranking in 2000
