Lady Pirates Relish Role Of

For a program has strung together four consecutive winning seasons, made two trips to the NCAA Championships and has featured three WBCA All-America honorees in four years, you wouldn't necessarily expect the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team to feel like they need to prove themselves on the court.

But here the Lady Pirates are again, determined to show the rest of the Peach Belt and the nation that success at Armstrong Atlantic is not a fleeting thing.

Despite a preseason pick to finish seventh in the 12-team standings, head coach Roger Hodge and the Lady Pirates have the talent and the drive to extend their recent run of success at AASU.

Gone are seniors Audosha Kelley and Alicia Durham, two key components to the Lady Pirates' last four years of success. Kelley was an All-America honoree last season while Durham finished her four-year career as AASU's all-time leader in games played.

As a result, the Pirates' backcourt will have a different look, but one component that hasn't changed is junior point guard Jasmine Herron (5-3, Jr., Lawrenceville, Ga.). Herron has been the starting point guard ever since stepping on campus as a freshman and last year led the Pirates in assists with 75 and ranked second on the team in steals with 37. She'll be backed up by sophomore Ashley Duhart (5-3, Soph., Macon, Ga.), who saw extensive action in her redshirt freshman season, averaging 3.1 points and dishing out 39 assists. Sophomore Jemere McCurdy (5-7, Soph., Carrollton, Ga.) transferred from Valdosta State and would have been in the mix at the point guard spot, but an injury suffered in the pre-season will keep her out for the year.

Replacing the scoring load left by Kelley and Durham will not be easy, but the Pirates are excited about the shooting ability of sophomore Tana Griffiths (5-5, Soph., Eltham, Australia). The Aussie showed a glimpse of her scoring prowess in the PBC Tournament, where she hit 5-of-9 three-pointers for 15 points against GCSU, and coach Hodge expects her to become one of the best three-point shooters in the Peach Belt this season.

Senior Sarah Brown (5-4, Sr., Richmond Hill, Ga.) has seen her playing time steadily increase each year as she will stretch defenses with her long-range shooting ability as well. Senior Jennifer Anderson (5-9, Sr., Jacksonville, Fla.) saw limited time in her junior season but her size and quickness give her the ability to score.

Moving into Kelley's spot in the lineup will be junior college transfer Lindsay Lieneman (5-10, Jr., Gilbert, Ariz.), another in a long line of Scottsdale CC products to make their way east to Armstrong Atlantic. Lieneman averaged 12.5 points and 5.6 rebounds as a Junior Kaneetha Gordon ranked third in the PBC and 25th in NCAA Division II in rebounding in 2005-06, averaging 9.6 per game.

Junior Tana Griffiths hit 35 three-pointers in 2005-06, including five vs. GCSU en route to 15 points in the PBC Quarterfinals.

The Underdog In 2006-07

Sophomore Lacey Willis made the most of her time on the floor as a freshman last year, scoring 119 points and notching 89 rebounds in 295 minutes of action.

sophomore for the Artichokes and is a threat from long range. She'll be pushed for playing time by another transfer, Ameshia Bryant (5-9, Soph., Miami, Fla.). The athletic sophomore comes to AASU from the University of Maine, where she played in 17 games for the Black Bears, averaging 3.2 points and 4.0 rebounds per game. Redshirt freshman Dartayvia Thomas (5-8, Fr., Augusta, Ga.)

freshman season of her own with 4.4 points and 3.3 rebounds per game, and possesses the ability to play all three spots in the frontcourt.

Finally, senior center Emily Perpich (6-0, Sr., Coldspring, N.Y.) returns to the Lady Pirates for her senior season after a long layoff. Perpich played in the Lady Pirates' PBC Championship season of 2002-03 and averaged 3.3 points and 3.0 rebounds for AASU as a junior.

As always, the Lady Pirates' schedule will be challenging with several tough non-conference dates and a 16-game Peach Belt Conference slate. AASU faces nationally-ranked Shaw, enjoys home-and-home meetings with region powers Fayetteville State and Lenoir-Rhyne, while also taking on Sunshine State Conference foes Eckerd and Florida Tech. AASU visits North Carolina Central in December for tournament action against NCCU and Elizabeth City State, then hosts the Chatham Orthopedics Holiday Classic in December.

With Georgia Southwestern State joining the Peach Belt Conference in 2006-07, the league returns to a divisional format for this season. The format will be short lived, however, as the league says goodbye to USC Upstate after this season with the Spartans reclassifying to Division I and joining the Atlantic Sun Conference in 2007-08.

will see action as well thanks to her tough defense and good shooting range.

A good battle for the power forward position is expected between Lieneman's junior college teammate from last season, Nicole Hornage (5-10, Soph., Oakland, Calif.) and senior Ashley Mason (5-11, Sr., Scottsdale, Ariz.). Hornage averaged 10.7 points and 7.8 rebounds last season for Scottsdale CC, while Mason averaged 3.2 points and 2.6 rebounds in 27 games of action for the Pirates.

The center spot is the domain of Kaneetha Gordon (5-10, Jr., Savannah, Ga.), who returned from missing all of 2004-05 to reassert herself as one of the best rebounders in the nation last year. The former PBC Freshman of the Year averaged 9.6 points and 9.6 rebounds per game last season, with her rebounding total ranking third in the PBC and 25th in NCAA Division II. She'll be backed up by sophomore Lacey Willis (5-10, Soph., Dublin, Ga.), who had a fine

Roger Hodge Head Women's Basketball Coach

Roger Hodge begins his seventh season at the helm of the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball program. The Lady Pirates continue to experience unprecedented success under Coach Hodge, stringing together four straight winning seasons for the first time in school history, advancing to two NCAA Championships berths, earning two WBCA Top 25 national rankings, knocking off a nationally-ranked team in each of his their seasons while compiling an impressive 103-72 overall record, the best winning percentage in AASU history.

AASU finished fourth in the PBC in 2005-06, went 15-13 during the season and had its third WBCA All-America honoree in four season as senior Audosha Kelley earned honorable mention honors.

In 2002-03, Hodge put the Lady Pirates on the map regionally and nationally, leading AASU to a 27-4 record, a first-ever PBC Championship, NCAA berth and a WBCA Top 25 national ranking. He also directed NCAA Division II's best single-season turnaround that season, taking an 11-18 squad that had advanced to the PBC Tournament semifinals and improving on the record by 15 games. He followed up that season with a 23-8 campaign in 2003-04 that included the program's first NCAA Championships win, then in 2004-05, led AASU to a 17-13 mark.

Coach Hodge led the Lady Pirates to a 10-16 record in his first season - a three-win improvement over the previous season - and also registered the program's first win over a ranked team in over four years with a 75-72 win over No. 22 Francis Marion on January 3, 2001. In 2001-02, he directed the Lady Pirates to a Peach Belt Conference tournament semi-final appearance, becoming the first No. 6 seed in league tournament history to advance that far.

The sixth AASU women's basketball coach in school history, Hodge succeeded Lynn Jarrett in 2000-2001 and was hired from Division I Liberty University, where he served as an assistant on the highly successful Flames program.

Hodge entered the collegiate coaching ranks in 1997 with Liberty University, Hodge assisted Lady Flames head coach Rick Reeves on two Big South championship squads in 1997-98 and 1998-99 and assisted head coach Carey Green in 1999-2000 when Liberty went 23-8 and captured the Big South Conference tournament for the fourth straight year.

Prior to Liberty, Hodge was an assistant coach at Mercer Christian Academy in Princeton, W. Va., and helped lead the school to the 1996 Class A state championship. Hodge also assisted at Hinton/Summers County High School from 1987-1994 and 1997, while the school captured three West Virginia Class AA State Championships in 1988, 1992 and 1994. A graduate of Concord College in Athens, W.Va., Hodge received a bachelor of arts degree in 1992.

He also received a bachelor's of science degree in education with a concentration in business principles in 1997. Hodge and his wife, Kristen, have two daughters, Madison and Emmaline, and the family resides in Savannah.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the nearly 30,000 square foot Armstrong Center for Continuing Education and Community Engagement, which opened this fall; a $5 million dollar renovation of the Lane Library; a brand new Student Recreation Facility and a 14,500 square foot Dental Hygiene clinic and Communicative Disorders Center. Campus life is abundant with Compass Point, University Crossings and University Terrace offering on-campus, two- and four-bedroom furnished apartments for 856 students.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball began in the fall and should be completed in Spring 2006.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU's enrollment is projected to top the 10,000 mark by 2010

The Lady Pirates have 13 wins over Top 25-ranked clubs in the Hodge era

2005-06 Season Review

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball squad put together its fourth consecutive winning season in 2005-06, finishing fourth in the Peach Belt Conference standings and picking up several key wins during the season.

The four straight winning seasons are a new program high, and AASU also kept another impressive streak alive as head coach Roger Hodge knocked off another nationally-ranked team, meaning that the Lady Pirates have done so at least once in each of coach Hodge's six seasons at AASU.

This time, it was No. 19-ranked Carson Newman who fell to the Lady Pirates as AASU traveled to Jefferson City and knocked off the Lady Eagles, 72-61, in Carson Newman's season-opening tournament. AASU also knocked off the then-No. 15 ranked Eagles in Savannah, 58-53, on Dec. 17, and pulled out a thrilling 86-84 overtime victory over Tusculum the previous night.

Since coach Hodge has taken over the Lady Pirate program, AASU has gone 13-12 against nationally-ranked teams in his six seasons, and AASU has won five of its last six against ranked squads.

The Lady Pirates relied on the efforts of two seniors during the season as guard Alicia Durham and forward Audosha Kelley each wrapped up outstanding careers for AASU. Kelley became the third player in the last four years to be recognized as a WBCA All-American for the Lady Pirates as the Savannah native averaged 17.1 points and 7.1 rebounds per game. Kelley also earned All-PBC honors as well and finished her career with a 17.7 career scoring average, which ranks sixth all-time in AASU history.

Durham, perhaps the most versatile player in AASU women's basketball history, also finished her career by making a significant dent on the Lady Pirate charts. The all-time leader in games played, the Macon native scored 958 career points (9th all-time) in her career, grabbed 505 rebounds (7th all-time), hit 94 three-pointers (15th all-time), made 236 free throws (5th all-time), dished out 285 assists (4th all-time) and collected 268 steals (2nd all-time). During the season, Durham averaged 12.5 points per game, 11th in the PBC, and also ranked nationally in steals, averaging 2.82 per game (2nd PBC, 36th NCAA DII).

Senior Audosha Kelley earned honorable mention WBCA All-America honors in 2006-07, averaging 17.1 points per game.

Senior Alicia Durham finished her career ranked in the top 10 in six separate categories, including points, steals, assists and rebounds.

Sophomore Kaneetha Gordon returned from missing the 2005-06 season with an injury to reassert herself as one of the top rebounders in the PBC. Gordon averaged 9.6 rebounds per game, ranking third in the PBC and 25th in NCAA Division II. She also ranked 21st in the PBC in scoring, averaging 9.6 points per game, and 13th in the league in blocked shots with 0.57 per game.

As a team, the Pirates ranked third in the PBC in rebounding and fifth in scoring, while also ranking nationally in three-point field goals made (6.0 per game, 58th NCAA Division II). AASU set a new school record for three-point baskets attempted with 604 and narrowly missed the school record for three-pointers made. Seven different players made 10 or more three-point baskets during the season, including freshmen Tana Griffiths (35) and Ashley Duhart (12), as well as junior Sarah Brown (11).

Freshman Lacey Willis also turned in a fine debut season for the Lady Pirates, averaging 4.4 points and 3.3 rebounds per game and scoring a game-high 18 points in AASU's 75-70 win at USC Aiken.

Despite the departure of Durham and Kelley, the Lady Pirates return eight talented players for the upcoming 2006-07 season, where AASU looks to extend its school-record streak of winning seasons to five and keep the streak of knocking off ranked teams alive as well.

AASU has had winning seasons for four straight years for the first time ever

The Peach Belt Conference

Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 16th season with 24 national championships and 22 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000. The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and begin play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The 2005-06 season continued the tradition of excellence the conference has established. USC Aiken became only the second men's golf team in Division II history to capture three straight national titles with their win in the spring of 2006. The Columbus State men's golf team finished second in the nation to USCA while the Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team also reached the national championship final.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005 and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006.

Former Augusta State basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference's first full-time commissioner in July of 1991. Vanover will step down as the conference commissioner in June of 2007.

Dr. Thomas Jones, president of Armstrong Atlantic State University, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2006-07.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000, with the Coastal Empire area population approaching 250,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team during the 2005-06 season on the riverboat Georgia Queen, docked on the Savannah River in downtown Savannah. River street and Tybee Island both attract millions of tourists each year to the Coastal Empire area, adding to the 250,000 residents of Savannah and the nearby areas.
