2003 Memorial Health Diamond Classic

If one were to talk about the 'tradition' of the Memorial Health Diamond Classic, reborn last season out of the ashes of the former Great Savannah Shootout, one would certainly have to focus on the quality of collegiate baseball teams that historic Grayson Stadium has seen pass between its bolded lines within the past 14 years.

The list reads like a who's who of the finest collegiate teams the Southeast has to offer. Georgia Southern, Wake Forest, Georgia, Liberty and others made up the first field back in 1989 and since then, the Citadel, Kentucky, North Carolina State, North Carolina, Vanderbilt and other top Division I schools have taken the field.

Last season, Georgia, North Carolina, Connecticut and host Armstrong Atlantic State brought a total of 44 NCAA Regional berths into the 2002 Memorial Health Diamond Classic and put on a show that resulted in two extra-inning games, three more games decided by four runs or less and an astounding 29 home runs launched over the walls.

And who could forget the stunning finale, won by the hometown Pirates over the University of Georgia in the 11th inning?

Topping that fare will be tough, but let's introduce you to the 2003 Memorial Health Diamond Classic field that will endeavor to uphold the Classic's tradition.

The University of Michigan, Rider University and Georgia Tech join Armstrong Atlantic State this year at Grayson Stadium and bring with them a total of 56 NCAA Regional berths to Savannah.

The preseason No. 1 team in collegiate baseball, Georgia Tech makes its first appearance in the Coastal Empire area and brings preseason All-America starting pitcher Kyle Bakker. Michigan has won two NCAA College World Series titles in its long baseball-rich history and also makes its first appearance in Savannah. Rider University brings head coach Sonny Pittaro, who has won 719 career games in his term as head baseball coach for the Broncos, and is also a first-time participant in Savannah.

You'd think these teams, from different parts of the country, would not be familiar with each other, but in 1987, the Yellow Jackets, Wolverines and Broncos all participated in the NCAA's Northeast DI Baseball Regional. Held at Chandler Stadium and hosted by Georgia Tech in Atlanta, Georgia, all three teams met in a six-team field with a berth to the College World Series on the line.

The familiarity with these programs and the success each have experienced in the past guarantee another exciting weekend of action in the 2003 Memorial Health Diamond Classic.

And of course, all of the teams will feel right at home in Savannah with the future Major League talent that has graced the Classic's history. Last year, the Classic field generated 12 picks in the 2002 MLB First-Year Player Draft, highlighted by first-round pick Russ Adams of North Carolina, selected by the Toronto Blue Jays with the 14th overall selection. Several former major league players have also come through Savannah in the Classic's previous history, including Georgia's Dave Fleming, Kentucky's Rod Bolton, Larry Luebbers, William VanLandingham and Mark Thompson, Georgia Southern's Joey Hamilton and Todd Greene, The Citadel's Tim Jones, Mercer's Mike and Mark Mimbs, NC State's Corey Lee, Adam Everett and Andy Barket and Wake Forest's Kevin Jarvis.

In retrospect, then, the 2003 field can be held up to the high standards set by last season's successful Classic that brought 12,070 fans through historic Grayson Stadium's turnstiles and energized the Coastal Empire area with quality collegiate baseball action. The tradition has been carried on and even surpassed by the Memorial Health Diamond Classic.

The Peach Belt

The Peach Belt Conference is arguably the best - or certainly among the very best - NCAA Division II baseball leagues in the nation. Traditionally, the PBC has several World Series candidates every year.

Since 1993, the PBC has sent six different clubs to Montgomery to play in the NCAA DII World Series; Armstrong Atlantic State, Columbus State, Kennesaw State, Georgia College & State, North Florida and USC Aiken. Since 1984, PBC clubs have made it to 22 World Series, with 6 NAIA World Series appearances and 16 NCAA DII World Series appearances by PBC members in the past 18 years and three national titles since 1994!

In 1999, UNF (No. 5) won the PBC with eight losses while KSU (No. 2), CSU (No. 17) and Armstrong (No. 10) all ended up with nine losses. Lander (No. 24) and GC&SU (No. 30) also were ranked. In 2000, UNF (No. 3) ran away with the PBC title, but a tight race for second saw GC&SU (No. 6) and CSU (No. 24) tie and KSU (No. 17) finish one game back. Armstrong (No. 25) was also ranked. In 2001, UNF (No. 3) won again with KSU (No. 6) edging GC&SU (No. 10) for second by a game. AASU (No. 15) and Lander (No. 18) tied for third, two games back, and CSU (No. 22) was also ranked. 2002 saw Columbus State capture the NCAA Championship despite finishing third in the league, as Kennesaw State (No. 5) won the league crown and North Florida (No. 10) finished second. GC&SU (No. 14) and USC Aiken (No. 20) also finished the season ranked nationally.

It appears that 2003 will again be a banner year in the PBC with five teams in the preseason Top 15 - KSU (No. 1), UNF (No. 6), GC&SU (No. 11), CSU (No. 12) and USC Aiken (No. 15). Several other PBC clubs are looking to field their best squads in a while as the league continues to improve its depth, tightening up the bottom to the middle each year.

The 2003 Schedule

Once again, AASU will play a demanding NCAA Division II slate with 12 of their 30 Peach Belt games against highly-ranked clubs. AASU will travel to No. 1 KSU, No. 6 KSU and No. 11 GC&SU while hosting No. 12 CSU in three-game sets.

The Pirates will host their 16th annual Savannah Invitational with 2002 NCAA DII World Series club Kutztown, along with other regional powers SIU Edwardsville (No. 25) and Concord. AASU has 10 games in the event with four against those powerful clubs. Overall, AASU has 18 games against ranked clubs this spring.

AASU will also play in the 2003 Memorial Health Diamond Classic, which returned to play to wide success last season. Georgia Tech, Michigan and Rider will take part in the classic at Grayson Stadium on Feb. 21-23.

The rest of the Pirates' schedule includes regional participant Valdosta State (No. 29), St. Andrews, Mars Hill, NW Missouri State, Mercyhurst, Gannon and Benedict.

AASU has nine teams on its schedule that went to the DII World Series since 1990 in UNF, GC&SU, KSU, CSU, USC Aiken, Valdosta, Lewis, SIU Edwardsville and Kutztown.

Pirate Overview

Armstrong Atlantic State is working hard to post an above-average baseball season this spring. The "average" baseball season at AASU since 1983 is a 43-17 record with probable post-season contention. AASU is one of only six NCAA Division II teams to play in 9 of the past 15 regionals and the Pirates are the second winningest NCAA DII team since 1983.

Head coach Joe Roberts has 14 new faces on his versatile 20-man roster this spring. AASU is ranked 28th nationally and the Pirates have finished in the Top 25 in 11 of the last 15 years. AASU expects to post its 24th consecutive winning season and hopes that the 14 versatile new recruits can contribute and help the six returnees play itself into contention in the powerful Peach Belt Conference and for a South Atlantic Regional berth this spring. A position-by-position nutshell follows:

Pitching

Pitching coach Calvin Culberson has had 10 pro signees from his staff in the past five years, including 12th-round draft pick Mike Roga (Toronto) last season, and now he has to rebuild another new staff with only two holdovers returning to a nine-man staff where he could have an entirely new starting rotation from a year ago.

Junior Curtis Morrison (RHP, 6-1, 220) and junior Jon Dobyms (RHP 6-1, 210) will be two of the Pirates' starters in 2003 as each come from strong junior college programs. Morrison went 5-4 with a 3.00 ERA and 81 strikeouts in 69 innings pitched last season for Indian Hills CC, while Dobyms went 8-2 with a 3.33 ERA at Chandler-Gilbert CC.

Joining these two in the rotation will be senior Jason Olson (RHP, 6-3, 195), who makes the move from middle reliever to starter in 2003. Olson went 4-1 with a 2.70 ERA last season, including hurling five one-hit innings to defeat Georgia in the Memorial Health Diamond Classic.

The bullpen begins with returning closer Zach Shelnett (RHP, 6-0, 175), a Collegiate Baseball Pitcher to Watch in 2003. Shelnett went 3-2 with a 2.58 ERA and six saves in 2002. The junior from Snellville, Ga., should be one of the top relievers in the Peach Belt Conference.

Junior Joey Smith (RHP, 6-0, 190) will be Shelnett's primary setup man and be a workhorse in the bullpen. Freshman Brett Hart (RHP/INF, 5-10, 150), an all-State performer at Tattnall Square HS in Macon, Ga., will also be a main part of the bullpen.

Junior lefthander Jonathan Troop (LHP, 6-0, 195), the Pirates' most effective starting pitcher during the fall and expected anchor of the rotation in the spring, has an ulnar nerve problem that makes his status uncertain as the season begins.

Added relief help will come from two-way players Brian Dice (RHP/OF, 6-0, 190) and George Fletcher (LHP/UTIL, 6-1, 220).

Pirate pitching, a traditional strength, has had a nationally-ranked ERA in 15 of the past 16 seasons. Pitching coach Calvin Culberson says, however, "Our pitching staff is uncharacteristically thin compared to previous years, as we will be carrying just three starters, four relievers and two two-way players. Without the bullpen depth we have enjoyed the last few seasons, we will be counting on our front three starters of Morrison, Dobyms and Olson to give us at least seven innings with each outing. With only one underclassman on the staff, our experienced juniors and seniors understand that they have to perform up to their potential and capabilities."

Senior Jeremy Olson

Catching

The Pirates' past three catchers have signed pro baseball contracts and the streak should continue this year. Australian junior college transfer Andrew Graham (C, Jr., 6-4, 215) is a quality all-around player who will catch the majority of the time with lefty-hitting Stacy Bennett (3B-C, Jr., 6-2, 190) catching most of the remaining innings. Michael Pelley (1B-C, Jr., 6-2, 190) and lefty-hitting Jeremy Lendvoy (LF-C-3B, Fr., 6-1, 195) are both capable backups with Josh Griffin (3B-1B-C, Fr., 6-3, 215) providing depth.

First Base

Australian junior college transfer Michael Pelley (1B-C, Jr., 6-2, 190) is a solid all-around player who should get most of the time here with versatile George Fletcher (DH-OF-LHP-1B, Jr., 6-1, 220) a solid possibility and Josh Griffin (3B-1B-C, Fr., 6-3, 215) providing depth.

Second Base

Sophomore Matt Stephens (2B-3B, Soph., 6-2, 175), a capable lefty hitter, and senior Adam Brandenburg (2B-SS, Sr., 5-10, 160), a quality defender, will both see a lot of time here with freshman Brett Hart (RHP-2B, Fr., 5-10, 150) providing emergency depth.

Senior Chris Boaen

Shortstop

Local senior Chris Boaen (SS, Sr., 5-9, 175), a solid all-around player, is the primary option with senior Adam Brandenburg (2B-SS, Sr., 5-10, 160) being a quality defender and a solid option.

Third Base

Junior Stacy Bennett (3B-C, Jr., 6-2, 190), a quality all-around player, is a lefty hitter and the primary option before shifting to catcher. Freshman Josh Griffin (3B-1B-C, Fr., 6-3, 215) and lefty-hitting sophomore Matt Stephens (2B-3B, Soph., 6-2, 175) are both capable here with freshman Jeremy Lendvoy (LF-3B-C, Fr., 6-1, 195) providing capable depth as a lefty hitter.

Outfield

The Pirates have a brand new outfield in 2003. Junior college transfer Brandon McKinnon (CF, Jr., 6-0, 225) is a solid all-around player in center field. Another junior college transfer, Joe Swaim (RF, Jr., 5-10, 185), is a lefty hitter and a solid player who should be the primary option in right field, with versatile George Fletcher (DH-OF-LHP-1B, Jr., 6-1, 220) a capable option. Freshman Jeremy Lendvoy (LF-3B-C, Fr., 6-1, 195), a mid-year entry and a capable lefty hitter, and junior college transfer Kyle Maddux (LF, Jr., 6-2, 235) could both see a lot of time in left field. Junior transfer Brian Dice (RHP-OF, Jr., 6-2, 190) provides depth at all three outfield spots.

Junior Stacy Bennett

Designated Hitter

Versatile junior college transfer George Fletcher (DH-OF-LHP-1B, Jr., 6-1, 220) is the primary option here, with junior catcher Andrew Graham (C, Jr., 6-4, 215) a quality option and freshman Jeremy Lendvoy (LF-3B-C, Fr., 6-1, 195) a solid possibility.

Coaches' Comments

"We pretty much have a brand new team this year. We should show good catching and a good defense. If our pitching and offense come around, we could be an interesting club - however, we're in no danger of peaking early this year, like we did in 2002" Roberts observes.

2002 Season Review

The Pirates experienced a tale of two halves in 2002, sprinting out to a 26-4 start that included an excellent showing in the 2002 Memorial Health Diamond Classic and a No. 3 ranking in the Collegiate Baseball Top 25 Poll, but then Armstrong slumped during the second half of the season, finishing the year with a 34-21 record - the 23rd consecutive winning season in AASU history.

David Harriman

The highlight of the year came at historic Grayson Stadium as the Pirates hosted the University of Georgia in the finale of the Diamond Classic. AASU was 1-1 in Classic play at that point as David Harriman's 10th-inning home run gave the Pirates a 9-8 win over Connecticut, but the Pirates lost a 10-6 decision to North Carolina.

Georgia took a 6-3 in the top of the seventh inning against the Pirates but again Harriman provided the heroics, launching a three-run home run in the bottom of the seventh to tie the game at 6-all.

Jeremy Olson shut down the Bulldog offense over five innings and Chris Boaen would score the winning run in the bottom of the 11th, giving the Pirates a 7-6 win over Georgia.

Harriman capped a dream season in which the senior collected a DII single-season record 41-game hitting streak by becoming AASU's first first-team All-American since 1994 and adding second-team Academic All-American honors as well. Junior Kirk Nordness and junior pitcher Mike Roga all earned All-PBC and All-South Atlantic Region honors as well as Harriman, and all three were selected in the 2002 MLB First-Year Player Draft.

As a team, the Pirates posted a .339 batting average, which ranked 17th in NCAA Division II. As always, the Pirates' pitching was also strong in 2001, compiling a 3.73 team ERA, good for 20th in NCAA Division II. AASU also ranked 39th in scoring, 28th in fielding, 43rd in home runs and 41st in slugging.

Other than the Pirates' three All-Region players, senior Brian Allen ended his Pirate career with a fine season in which the Cairo, Ga., native ranked 10th in the PBC in ERA (3.24) and 20th nationally in strikeouts per nine innings (10.5). Senior Pat Daly finished his four-year career as a starting pitcher for the Pirates, striking out 39 batters in 35.2 innings pitched.

Joe Roberts Head Baseball Coach

Joe Roberts begins his 24th season at the helm of Armstrong Atlantic State. While at AASU, Roberts has posted an overall 945-427 (.689) record and has established a winning tradition that has resulted in 23 consecutive winning seasons. During his career, Roberts' teams have been consistently ranked among the nation's elite, including a streak of 110 straight weeks in the NCAA Division II Poll, covering seven full seasons. Roberts also currently serves as the DII National Poll Chairman for baseball, the ABCA Coaches' Association President and a member of the ABCA Executive Committee.

The 1988, 1989 and 1994 Pirate squads advanced to the NCAA Division II World Series, and the 1990 team was ranked No. 1 in the country for the entire season.

As impressive as Roberts' teams have been on the field, they've been just as impressive in the classroom, with 86 graduates in the past 17 years alone.

Roberts was a four sport letterman at Lebanon (Ind.) HS before attending Lake Sumter CC in Leesburg, Fla. He finished his collegiate career at St. Andrews College in Laurinburg, N.C., where he was again a four sport letterman and a basketball standout, setting several school, conference and NCAA records during a two year career that saw him named All-Conference twice. He was selected the Dixie Conference MVP in his junior year of 1974 and was inducted into the St. Andrews Athletic Hall of Fame in 1995.

The Lebanon, Ind., native is married to the former Lynn Tucker of Port Wentworth. The couple have two sons, Brian, 13, and Eric, 12.

Calvin Culberson Assistant Baseball Coach

Calvin Culberson will be in his eighth season as a full-time assistant coach at AASU, after completing an eight-year professional baseball career. Calvin is no stranger to Armstrong Atlantic, having played for the Pirates from 1985-1988, and having assisted coach Roberts in a part-time role during his professional career.

Calvin's coaching role at AASU includes working with the outfielders and pitchers, and assisting with baserunning and hitting instruction.

While working with AASU's pitchers, Culberson has instructed several players who have, like him, enjoyed professional success. Current Detroit Tiger Adam Bernero, who Culberson coached during the 1999 season, reached the major leagues in just 15 months, becoming AASU's first major league player. Jeremy Wedel, a Culberson-coached hurler for the Pirates in 1998, was placed on Philadelphia's 40-man roster in December, 2002, and will be in spring training in 2003.

Culberson finished his pro career in 1995 at Pawtucket, a triple-A affiliate of the Boston Red Sox. He had joined the Red Sox organization as a free agent after having pitched at Double-A Chattanooga and Triple A Indianapolis in the Cincinnati Reds farm chain. Calvin began his pro career in 1989 in the Atlanta Braves farm system, hitting .313 in his first season, then continuing as a pitcher.

During Culberson's AASU career, the Pirates posted an overall 181-66 (.733) record, with Calvin hitting in the leadoff spot his final three years. The Rome, Georgia native holds seven school records with the most notable being his 32-game hitting streak (1988) and his 128 career stolen bases.

Calvin was an all-Big South Conference selection in 1986 and 1987 when AASU was playing NCAA I baseball. In his last season with the Pirates he was an AASU co-captain and was chosen as a member of the all-South Atlantic Region team and an honorable mention DII All-American.

Calvin is married to the former Pamela Johnson of Port Wentworth, an AASU graduate, who works as a System Analyst II for AASU. The couple have a four-year old son, Matthew, and a newborn son, Brandon.

Tommy Thomson Assistant Baseball Coach

Tommy Thomson is entering his 23rd season as a volunteer assistant baseball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State.

Serving the Pirates whenever his local business interests allow, Thomson's primary area of instruction with AASU has been as a hitting instructor.

In his 22 seasons, the Pirates have posted an overall record of 923-407 (.697). The personable assistant has certainly been a key factor in the Pirates offensive showing during his tenure.

The Savannah native coached baseball for many years in the local youth leagues. After serving two years as an assistant with a local American Legion team, Thomson took over the head coaching duties and guided his teams to state championships all three years that he served in that capacity.

A premier bowler, Thomson graduated from Savannah High School in 1954. He is married to the former Carolyn Ihly of Savannah. The couple has two children, Lisa, 45 and Curtis, 40, and they have a pair of grandchildren by each child.

Thanks to a wildly successful 2002 Memorial Health Diamond Classic, a 40-game home schedule and the Pirates' record-setting 28-3 start to the season, Armstrong Atlantic State University led the nation in total attendance for the 2002 season. 14,516 fans watched the Pirates in Savannah and saw plenty of exciting action, including AASU's thrilling 7-6 come-from-behind extra innings victory over the University of Georgia in the finale of the Diamond Classic.

Overall, the three games the Pirates played in the 2002 Memorial Health Diamond Classic resulted in three of the top five all-time crowds to see a Division II baseball team play.

Outside of the Diamond Classic, 8,381 fans visited Pirate Field on the campus of Armstrong Atlantic State University to catch AASU baseball in 2002.

3,115 fans watched the Pirates defeat the University of Georgia, 7-6, in 11 innings at the 2002 Memorial Health Diamond Classic on February 24, 2002.

Chuck Christopher was inducted into the AASU Athletic Hall of Fame in a ceremony on January 26, 2002, bringing the total number of baseball inductees to 13 - 12 former players and one coach.

Below is a capsule of all of the AASU Athletic Hall of Famers who played baseball for the Pirates (year of induction in parenthesis):

Charlie Broad (1995)

The only player to have his number retired (#13), Charlie concluded a four-year career in 1987 with 25 school records and still is the Pirates' all-time leader in career hits, runs scored and runs batted in.

Chad Armstrong (2000)

Two-time All-America in 1989 and 1990, Chad led the Pirates to two No. 1 rankings. The epitome of a leadoff hitter, Armstrong reached base in all 56 games the Pirates played in 1990.

Tommy Bumgardner (1999)

AASU's all-time leader in innings pitched, Tommy's 11 career shutouts are still the second most in NCAA Division II history. AASU's second baseball All-America honoree, Tommy pitched from 1973-76.

Bobby Cannon (2000)

Two-sport star (basketball) for the Pirates in 1966 and 1967, Bobby played third base and pitched for AASU in its first year of four-year competition, earning All-Conference honors in 1967.

Tommy Cannon (2000)

Twin brother of Bobby, Tommy also played two sports for the Pirates in 1966-67. A left-handed pitcher with a devastating pickoff move, Tommy also earned All-Conference honors in 1967.

Chuck Christopher (2002)

AASU's all-time strikeout leader, Christopher pitched from 1985-1987, facing primarily Division I competition, and compiled a 27-9 career record. He still holds eight current AASU pitching records.

Bill Gearhart (1997)

The only AASU player to be drafted twice, Bill pitched for the Pirates in 1987 and 1988, compiling a 22-3 career record. He was the Big South Conference's Pitcher of the year in 1987 when he went 10-0.

Dana Harding (2001)

The Pirates' most decorated power hitter, Dana played in 1987 and 1988 and still holds the AASU record for most home runs in a career (39) and season (28). DII All-America honoree in 1988.

Mark Mamalakis (2001)

A 16-year-old freshman in 1970, Mark played four years for the Pirates and was the team MVP in 1971 and an NAIA All-District player in 1973. He still holds the record for steals in one game (7).

Steve McNeill (1998)

AASU's first All-America baseball player, Steve earned honorable mention All-America honors in 1973 and still holds the school record for best batting average in a single season (.451, 1972).

Mike Mitchener (1996)

The highest draft pick ever in AASU history, Mitchener left the Pirates as a junior in 1988 after being taken in the third round by the Chicago White Sox. First-team DII All-America honoree in 1988.

Danny Sims (1995)

Two-sport star and President's Cup winner as a senior in 1968, leading the Pirates in hitting (.322). Danny played basketball and baseball while AASU made the transition from junior college to four-year school.

Dr. Roy Sims (1996)

Long-time coach and administrator for Armstrong, Dr. Sims coached the baseball team from the late 50s to 1967, then served as the Athletic Director twice, from 1955-67 and 1977-86.

Adam Bernero: AASU's First Major Leaguer

Adam Bernero continues to make strides in his ascent from former Armstrong Atlantic State staff ace, to Detroit Tiger prospect and now, Major Leaguer.

In 2002, Bernero reversed his fortunes from an injury-plagued 2001 season, making his first nine starts at Toledo and compiling a 2-2 record with a 1.58 ERA, earning a promotion to the Tigers and an immediate insertion into the starting rotation.

On a hot spring day in New Comiskey Park on May 26, Bernero baffled the White Sox for eight innings, allowing just four hits and two runs in picking up his first major league victory in only his fifth career start.

Adam got his first taste of interleague play against Montreal on June 10, outdueling Javier Vazquez and picking up his second win in a 6-4 victory over the Expos.

His pitching opponents didn't get any easier after that game as Adam would duel Cy Young Award winners Randy Johnson and Greg Maddux in his next two outings. Bernero matched Johnson pitch-for-pitch on June 15th, giving up four hits and one run in six innings of a game that Arizona would eventually win, 3-1.

On June 20th, Adam made his first professional start in the state of Georgia since leaving AASU at Turner Field. Again, Bernero was up to the task, allowing five hits and one run in eight innings, striking out four and walking none in a game that Atlanta would win in the bottom of the ninth, 3-2. Still, the message to the rest of baseball had been sent - Adam Bernero was here to stay.

Bernero's meteoric rise through the Tiger farm system took just 14 months after he signed with Detroit following the 1999 NCAA DII Regional in Jacksonville, Fla.

His major league debut came on August 1, 2000, as he pitched 5.2 innings at Anaheim, in front of dozens of friends and family for the San Jose, Calif., native.

Bernero held the Angels to five hits and two runs while striking out five, including the game's leadoff hitter, Darin Erstad. Adam made four starts for the Tigers and pitched in 12 games overall in 2000, then after spending most of the 2001 season in AAA Toledo following a shoulder injury, Bernero made it back into the bigs for five games of action in September.

Bernero has continued the AASU tradition of success in the professional ranks, including 20 players advancing to the next level of baseball in the past five seasons.

Savannah and Tybee Island

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong

Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Peach Belt Conference

Since its inception in 1991, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 12th season with 17 national championships and 15 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and begin play in 1991.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own.

The PBC has seen continued success in all sports with national rankings and multiple NCAA appearances in every sport last season, including a national championship for the Columbus State baseball team and a national championship finals appearance by the Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis team.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Spartanburg. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton College & State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997, to bring the current membership to 12 institutions.

Former Augusta State basketball coach and athletic director Marvin Vanover was named the interim commissioner in April, 1990, and served in that capacity until his appointment as the conference's first full-time commissioner in July of 1991. He established the conference office in Augusta, Ga., which houses the commissioner and his staff.

Dr. Allen C. Meadors, chancellor of the University of North Carolina at Pembroke, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2002-03.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 250-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System.

The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to its present 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 1992.

The university offers over seventy-five academic programs and majors in its School of Arts and Sciences, School of Health Professions and School of Education.

The academic community includes approximately 5,600 students and more than 250 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last decade.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. A Fine Arts Center, including a 1,000 seat theatre/auditorium, the Health Professions Building and an academic computing center are recent completed buildings, along with 84,400 square foot University Hall, built to make room for a student population of 8,000. A new 115,000 square foot, $28 million dollar science building has been under construction and is slated to open in January 2002.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Sixty percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - all have come to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU athletic teams benefit from the fine athletic training staff, headed by medical director Dr. Spencer Wheeler and head athletic trainer Mylene Benito.

AASU's training room, part of the Armstrong Sports Center, sits adjacent to the fitness center and across the hall from the Pirate locker rooms. The room offers the most modern and advanced equipment to help players deal with injuries and rehabilitation.
