Health Services to Host Lunch & Learn: There's No Excuse for Abuse

February 16, 2015

STATESBORO, Ga. – Health Services is set to host a Lunch & Learn session on Tuesday, February 17 from 12 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. in Russell Union Room 2047. All students are invited to enjoy a meal while learning about the different types of domestic violence.

Majority of college students are unaware of the different types of domestic abuse, and how it can affect both their physical and mental health. Domestic violence can take on many forms, such as sexual assault or rape, most of which are never reported. As a growing University, it is important for students, both male and female, are educated about the facts of domestic violence and understand the importance of taking it seriously.

Lunch & Learn: There Is No Excuse For Abuse event will feature a guest speaker that is an authority on domestic violence to educate students about the different types of domestic violence, as well as answer any questions related to abusive situations. Reserve your lunch at georgiasouthern.edu/health.
