ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Administrative/Biographical History: Taylor C. Scott received his B.A. from University of Florida in 1947 and his Ph.D. in Sociology from the University of Maryland in 1967. Scott was a professor in the Department of Sociology at Georgia Southern College from 1967 to 1988. Scott was awarded the title of Associate Professor Emeritus of Sociology on December 16, 1988.

Scope and Content: Collection consists of materials related to Taylor C. Scott's sociological survey of Statesboro-Bulloch County residents from 1969 to 1972. Materials include completed resident and employment surveys, survey project reports, researcher notes, and general demographic records of Statesboro-Bulloch County residents. Additional documentation of survey methods and data including codebooks, maps, charts, and graphs are included.

System and Arrangement: Some of the folders contained in Boxes 3, 4, 5 and 6 [from Attitude toward Old People - Blank to Personality Cards - Unclassified (10)] were originally located in two portable file drawers. All the papers were loose in the drawer. However, the papers were separated by labelled file markers. The large headings in italics indicate the locations of the file markers in the drawers. Box 7 contains oversized maps, charts, and graphs that were used in the sociological survey.

"Attitude toward Old People" Multiple blank copies of Likert Scale for Assessing Attitudes toward Old People Questionnaire is a list of 34 statements re: old people, with a numerical rating scale for agreement or disagreement with the statements. Attached in front of the questionnaire is a statement explaining its purpose and asking for the sex and age of the respondent, as well as whether he/she lives in a rural or urban setting, and the occupation of the respondent's father. On the last page, there are questions about the frequency of contact between the respondent and old people, as well as a list of short statements where the respondent can either agree or disagree.	3	27
