German professor on a streak

February 23, 2018

For 25 years in row, Dr Horst Kurz has attended and provided support at the annual State German Convention, taking place at a weekend early in the year. The "SGC" is a state-wide event for high school students that offers them opportunities to meet and compete with peers. Higher-ed faculty are needed to help judge competitions fairly and objectively. At the same time, faculty interact with students and can encourage them to continue at the college and university level.
