AASU MADE BACK-TO-BACK NCAA APPEARANCES IN 2002-03 AND 2003-04

NEW HEAD COACH MATT SCHMIDT

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team returned to the PBC Championship Game for the first time since 2003 last season, winning 20 games and also witnessed the close of one of the finest basketball careers in school history with the final season of senior Kaneetha Gordon.

The loss of Gordon, the school's all-time leader in scoring and rebounding, leaves big shoes to fill for the Lady Pirate players in 2008-09, while the loss of eight-year head coach Roger Hodge leaves big shoes to fill for the AASU women's basketball program as a whole. Hodge resigned as the AASU women's basketball coach in July to take an assistant position with East Carolina University.

Enter Matt Schmidt, who comes to Savannah with the perfect pedigree for helping the Lady Pirates achieve the ultimate goal for any collegiate basketball player - as an assistant last season, Schmidt helped Northern Kentucky capture the 2007-08 NCAA Division II National Championship. During his four seasons with the Norse, he helped Northern Kentucky to a 92-32 record. Prior to joining the NKU staff, Schmidt served as an assistant coach at the University of Findlay for three seasons.

Schmidt inherits a team that returns 10 players from last season's 20-win squad and has talent to build around as he looks to lead the Lady Pirates back to the NCAA Championships. First and foremost, he will have senior forward Lacey Willis (5-11, Sr., Dublin, Ga.) to help provide the scoring punch that she brought towards the end of last season. Willis played her best basketball late in the season, earning PBC All-Tournament honors in helping AASU reach the Championship game. On the year, she ranked 10th in the PBC, averaging 13.9 points per game, and scored in double figures in 14 of the last 16 games of the year. This year, she was named as one of the league's five Preseason All-Conference selections in a vote of the league's Sports Information Directors.

Willis will not have to shoulder the scoring load by herself, however, as senior three-point sharpshooter Lindsey Holmes (5-9, Sr., Bonaire, Ga.) returns for her final season after setting a school record in 2007-08 by hitting 90 three-pointers. Holmes averaged 9.6 points per game and ranked among the PBC's best in three-point baskets and three-point percentage (35.2 percent).

Another key returnee will be junior swing player Dartayvia Thomas (5-8, Jr., Augusta, Ga.), who improved tremendously as a redshirt sophomore, averaging 4.8 points and 4.0 rebounds per game.

Lost in the fanfare of Kaneetha Gordon's last season was the loss of another important player, point guard Jasmine Herron. Stepping into her role in directing the offense for AASU this season will be senior

KELLY VERSLUIS BLOCKED 42 SHOTS IN '07-'08, FIFTH MOST IN A SINGLE SEASON IN AASU HISTORY, WHILE AVERAGING 4.9 POINTS AND 4.3 REBOUNDS PER GAME

Ashley Duhart (5-3, Sr., Macon, Ga.), who started nine games last year at the position and averaged 3.6 assists per game, as well as 4.1 points per game.

Schmidt and the Lady Pirates are also excited about the continued development of center Kelly Versluis (6-4, Jr., Heerjansdam, Netherlands), whose adjustment to the American game picked up towards the end of the season.

Versluis averaged

4.9 points and 4.5 rebounds per game, but blocked 42 shots, ranking third in the PBC and 61st nationally in that category.

Local shooting guard Portia Jones (5-5, Jr., Savannah, Ga.) returns as well for her second year as a Lady Pirate, as does sophomore Brittany Hodges (6-2, Soph., Atlanta, Ga.). Rounding out the returnees are a trio of players who redshirted the 2007-08 season; freshman point guard Jenni Wynes (5-5, Fr., Alderson, W. Va.), freshman shooting guard Jenea Boni (5-8, Fr., Bluffton, S.C.) and junior forward Angela Miller (5-9, Jr., Pembroke, Ga.).

Three newcomers will join the Lady Pirates in 2008-09, and all three could see significant action right away. Junior shooting guard Lauren Hall (5-5, Jr., Detroit, Mich.) joins the Lady Pirates from Mesa CC in Arizona, where she averaged 13.4 points per game as a sophomore, earning All-ACCAC honors. Freshman Lindsey Hill (6-0, Fr., Weatherford, Texas) was a three-time defensive Player of the Year at Weatherford HS, while freshman local product Mallory Mitchell (5-5, Fr., Savannah, Ga.) was a two-time All-Greater Savannah Area honoree at Jenkins HS.

AASU features several challenges in its schedule, even outside the Peach Belt Conference's round-robin slate with 20 league contests. AASU opens the season in Concord, W. Va., facing a pair of WVIAC schools in 20-game winner Fairmont State and host Concord. The Lady Pirates then play a pair of conference champions in Conference Carolinas champ Pfeiffer and South Atlantic Conference champ Newberry, before rounding out its non-conference slate against Limestone and a pair of NCAA teams from a season ago, Wingate and preseason Gulf South Conference favorite Valdosta State.

The Lady Pirates have been picked to finish eighth in the 2008-09 PBC Preseason Coaches' Poll. USC Aiken, one of five teams that tied for the league crown a season ago, has been picked to repeat, followed by Clayton State, Francis Marion and Columbus State. Lander has been picked to finish fifth, followed by North Georgia and Augusta State. After AASU, GCSU has been picked to finish ninth, followed by UNC Pembroke and Georgia Southwestern State.

MATT SCHMIDT HEAD WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

New head coach Matt Schmidt begins his first season as the head women's basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State University. Schmidt joins the Pirates from defending DII national champion Northern Kentucky, where he has served as an assistant coach for the last four seasons.

Schmidt was instrumental in helping the Norse achieve its second NCAA Division II National Championship a season ago as Northern Kentucky went 28-8 and defeated South Dakota 63-58, in the national championship game. During his four seasons with the Norse, he assisted head coach Nancy Winstel in all aspects of the Northern Kentucky program, including recruiting, scouting, practice and game-day coaching, and helped the Norse to a 92-32 record during that span.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Schmidt spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Findlay prior to joining the Northern Kentucky coaching staff. He also previously served as an assistant coach at both West Virginia University and the University of Maryland-Baltimore County.

Schmidt takes over an AASU women's basketball program that went 20-11 a season ago and advanced to the 2008 Peach Belt Conference Championship game, the third title game appearance in Lady Pirate basketball history. The Lady Pirates return 10 players from last season's squad and add a trio of newcomers to the squad for 2008-09 as AASU searches for its first PBC title since 2002-03.

Schmidt played basketball at West Liberty State College in West Virginia, where he graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He earned his master's degree in physical education from West Virginia University in 2000. He is engaged to Brittany Baume, the assistant women's volleyball coach at Wittenberg University.

"I would like to thank President Jones, Dr. Eddie Aenchbacher and the search committee for selecting me as the next head coach for the Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball program," Schmidt said upon being hired to direct the Lady Pirate program. "This is a great opportunity to build on the success that Roger Hodge has established the past eight years. I am looking forward to working with the students, faculty and administration at AASU.

"The moment I walked on the AASU campus, I immediately felt at home," Schmidt said. "The AASU community made me feel welcome right away. This is an excellent academic institution located in a beautiful city with a great campus and fantastic facilities.

"The Peach Belt is a great league for women's basketball at the Division II level," Schmidt said. "I look forward to competing against some of the top teams and coaches in the country. The PBC is a well-respected conference, and I expect the level of competition to mimic that of the Great Lakes Valley Conference."

VERONICA BLACK ASSISTANT COACH

Veronica Black begins her fourth season with the women's basketball coaching staff in 2008-09, assisting new head coach Matt Schmidt with the Lady Pirate program. Black joined the AASU coaching staff in 2005 after playing two seasons for the Pirates.

Black played in 60 games from 2003-05 after transferring from Olney Central College, scoring 185 points and grabbing 218 rebounds at AASU. She averaged 11.9 points and 6.1 rebounds while at OCC and was an NJCAA Academic All-America nominee.

A native of Vincennes, Ind., Black received her bachelor's degree in biology from Armstrong Atlantic State in December of 2005 and received her master's degree in sports medicine in 2007. She is married to former AASU men's basketball player Tim Black and the couple reside in Savannah.

SARAH BROWN VOLUNTEER ASSISTANT COACH

Former Armstrong Atlantic State shooting guard Sarah Brown begins her second season in serving as a volunteer assistant coach for the Lady Pirates in 2008-09.

Brown played in 82 games over four seasons for the Lady Pirates from 2003-2007 and was a member of AASU's 2003-04 squad that captured the school's first-ever NCAA postseason victory. She was a career 32.5 percent three-point shooter and, in her senior season, hit 37.1 percent of her threes (36-of-97), the 10th best single-season three-point shooting performance in school history.

Brown graduated from Armstrong Atlantic State University in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in health science. She is currently pursuing a second degree in physical education from AASU.

ARMSTRONG ATLANTIC STATE UNIVERSITY

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System. The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,000 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has nearly doubled in the last 15 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the nearly 30,000 square foot Armstrong Center for Continuing Education and Community Engagement, which opened this fall; a $5 million dollar renovation of the Lane Library; a brand new Student Recreation Facility and a 14,500 square foot Dental Hygiene clinic and Communicative Disorders Center. Campus life is abundant with Compass Point, University Crossings and University Terrace offering on-campus, two- and four-bedroom furnished apartments for 856 students.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball was completed in the spring of 2007.

AASU sponsors ten intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors. In 2007-08, the AASU men's and women's tennis teams each captured NCAA Division II National Championships, becoming just the second school in NCAA history to win both titles in the same year.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU WAS FULLY ACCREDITED AS A SENIOR INSTITUTION IN DECEMBER, 1968

ALUMNI ARENA @ ARMSTRONG SPORTS CENTER

The Armstrong Atlantic State University's athletic department prides itself on having one of the finest athletic facilities not only in the conference, but in the region as well.

AASU's Sports Center, completed in July of 1995, immediately became a top basketball complex by hosting the 1998 and 1999 Peach Belt Conference basketball tournaments.

This 82,000 square foot multi-purpose building provides expanded academic offerings in spacious, modern surroundings. Students have a three-station computer lab; a 1,965 square foot weight training/fitness center with more than 30 Cybex machine exercise stations, stair climbers, treadmills, upright and semi-recumbent bike, elliptical trainer and a free weight area; four new classrooms and two 3,535 square foot activity areas.

AASU's athletic teams play home events in a 4,000 seat arena that contains theatre-type seating for all spectators, and also plays host to a wide variety of social and sporting events.

AASU HAS DEFEATED A RANKED TEAM IN EACH OF THE LAST EIGHT SEASONS

2007-08 SEASON REVIEW

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team advanced to the Peach Belt Conference Championship game as a No. 7 seed, fashioning a 20-win season for the third time in head coach Roger Hodge's tenure and also witnessing the close of one of the most outstanding careers in Lady Pirate history.

AASU went into the PBC Championships as the No. 7 seed despite finishing just two games out of the PBC regular season race. A first-round win over UNC Pembroke matched the Lady Pirates up against co-champion Clayton State in the quarterfinals. Lacey Willis' baseline jumper with two seconds left gave AASU a thrilling 68-66 victory over the Lady Lakers. AASU knocked off Columbus State, 78-68, to earn the program's third-ever berth in the PBC Championship game, but Lander prevailed, 68-65.

The Lady Pirates also extended their impressive streak of knocking off at least one ranked opponent to eight straight years as AASU knocked off No. 23 Francis Marion, 78-65, on February 27. The streak, which dates back to 2000-01, began with a win over then-No. 22 Francis Marion.

SENIOR KANEETHA GORDON FINISHED HER AASU CAREER AS THE LADY PIRATES' ALL-TIME LEADER IN POINTS SCORED (1,401) AND REBOUNDS (1,158)

Senior Kaneetha Gordon wrapped up her outstanding career by becoming AASU's all-time leader in both points (1,401) and rebounds (1,158), becoming just the fourth player in Peach Belt Conference history to record 1,000+ points and rebounds in a career. During the season, she was named the PBC's Player of the Week three times, earned All-PBC and Daktronics All-South Atlantic Region honors and also set the Alumni Arena record for rebounds in a game with 19 against Lander on January 26. The Riceboro native averaged a team-leading 14.2 points a game and also averaged 10.2 rebounds a game, leading the PBC in rebounding for a second straight year and ranking 22nd in NCAA Division II.

Senior point guard Jasmine Herron wrapped up her career as well, averaging 6.6 points and 4.1 assists per game in 2007-08 and finishing her four years with 364 assists and 196 steals, both ranking among the top 10 among AASU players. The Lady Pirates had one other senior wrap up her career, Lindsey Lieneman.

Willis' breakout season culminated in her earning All-PBC Tournament honors while averaging 13.9 points per game. Other impressive performances for the Lady Pirates included junior Lindsey Holmes, who set the single-season three-point record at AASU by canning 90 threes, breaking the record of 87 set by Tana Griffiths just a season ago. Holmes ranked 4th in the PBC in three-point baskets made and 12th in NCAA Division II, with 3.0 made per game, while ranking 11th in the PBC in three-point percentage at 35.2 percent.

Junior center Kelly Versluis ranked third in the PBC and 61st in NCAA Division II in blocked shots per game, averaging 1.5 blocks, and her 42 blocked shots on the season were the fifth-most in a single season in AASU history.

As a team, the Lady Pirates ranked third in the PBC in scoring defense, allowing just 64.4 points per game, while also setting a new school record and ranking nationally in rebounding margin at +5.2 (34th NCAA DII).

THE PEACH BELT CONFERENCE

Since its inception in 1990-91, the Peach Belt Conference has worked tirelessly to become one of the elite conferences in NCAA Division II. Now entering its 19th season with 26 national championships and 25 national finalists, the PBC has accomplished that goal.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 12 championship sports with the addition of women's soccer in the fall of 2000.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and begin play in fall 1990.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own. One year later, the Lander men's tennis team began their record-breaking run of eight straight national titles, the first PBC dynasty. Since then, USCA men's golf has won three straight national titles from 2004-06 while AASU women's tennis has captured four titles overall.

The 2007-08 season was indeed a remarkable one for the PBC. Armstrong Atlantic State became only the second team in the last 20 years to win both the men's and women's tennis national championships in the same season as they hoisted both trophies in 2008. The Augusta State men's basketball team also made a historic run to the national championship game.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005, USC Upstate did the same in 2007, and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006.

David Brunk was named the second PBC commissioner in May of 2007. Brunk replaced Marvin Vanover, who was the first PBC commissioner from 1991 to 2007. Brunk is charged with continuing the strong growth of the conference as its second era begins.

Dr. David Potter, president of North Georgia College & State University, is the president of the Peach Belt in 2008-09.

The conference currently holds championships in 12 sports, six for men and six for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's golf.

THIS IS SAVANNAH

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil" and the 2000 hit film "The Legend of Bagger Vance" starring Will Smith and Matt Damon. Also, Savannah hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by over $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000, with the Coastal Empire area population approaching 250,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in the state of Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historical settings, the friendliness of a southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

THE ARMSTRONG ATLANTIC STATE WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TEAM DURING THE 2005-06 SEASON ON THE RIVERBOAT "GEORGIA QUEEN", DOCKED ON THE SAVANNAH RIVER IN DOWNTOWN SAVANNAH. RIVER STREET AND TYBEE ISLAND BOTH ATTRACT MILLIONS OF TOURISTS EACH YEAR TO THE COASTAL EMPIRE AREA, ADDING TO THE 250,000 RESIDENTS OF THE SAVANNAH AREA.
