Armstrong Women's Basketball

The Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball program suffered through a tough 2009-10 season racked with untimely injuries as well as the challenges of playing in the Peach Belt, arguably the deepest NCAA Division II league in the nation.

But the future looks bright as head coach Matt Schmidt found several players who will look to build the foundation of Armstrong women's basketball for years to come.

The Lady Pirates return a solid nucleus of five players who saw extensive action last season, as well as two redshirted players from last season. Add to that a talented core of six newcomers and Armstrong aims to surprise the league in 2010-11.

The lone senior on this season's squad is forward Arpine Amirkhanyan (5-11, Sr., Van Nuys, Calif.), who averaged 10.0 points and 7.9 rebounds per game in her first season as a Lady Pirate last season. Amirkhanyan also gained valuable experience playing for the Armenian national team this July in the FIBA Division B European Championships and is ready to take the next step in becoming one of the Peach Belt Conference's top post players.

Senior Arpine Amirkhanyan averaged 10.0 points and 7.9 rebounds per game as a junior in 2009-10 and also played for the Armenian national team this summer in the FIBA Division B European Championships.

The Lady Pirates also return starting point guard Jazmin Walker (5-7, Soph., Lawrenceville, Ga.), who was forced to play a lot of minutes as a true freshman in the grueling PBC slate. Walker averaged 32.3 minutes per game, averaging 8.2 points per game. Walker will again run the point for the Lady Pirates in 2010-11 and look to improve offensively while distributing the ball to Armstrong's improved lineup.

One of those weapons is junior long-range threat Brooke Long (5-10, Jr., Richmond, Va.), who averaged 12.4 points per game in the first 14 games of the 2009-10 season before an injury ended her season prematurely. Long will be back and can play either shooting guard or small forward and should be a focus of the perimeter game this season.

Junior Brooke Long averaged 12.4 points per game through the first 14 games of 2009-10 before an injury halted her season prematurely.

The rest of the projected starting lineup should include a pair of talented post players ready to make an impact during this season. Sophomore forward Marissa Rimbart (6-0, Soph., Suwanee, Ga.) saw action in 20 games last season, averaging 6.4 points per game, and the high school teammate of Jazmin Walker looks to step up in her second season in Savannah. Talented incoming freshman Mauri Wells (6-0, Fr., Rome, Ga.) could be the Lady Pirates' best post player since Kaneetha Gordon when all is said and done and the Rome HS product will be counted on to provide rebounding and scoring early on in her career.

One other returnee who saw action last season will see increased playing time this year is sophomore guard Briana McFarland (5-6, Soph., Dallas, Ga.). McFarland averaged 2.5 points per game in 13 contests and will back up at shooting guard.

Two players who received medical redshirts last season will be in line for their first action as Lady

Looks To Surprise In The Peach Belt

Sophomore Marissa Rimbart averaged 6.4 points and 5.4 rebounds per game in her debut season with the Lady Pirates in 2010-11.

Pirates this season - redshirt freshmen Ashley Slade (5-10, Fr., Buckley, Mich.) and Brittany Reddy (5-8, Fr., Strongsville, Ohio). Slade will provide depth at the 3-4 spot, while the talented-shooting Reddy can play guard or small forward.

Incoming freshman Stephanie Wheeler (5-8, Fr., Suwanee, Ga.) - the brother of Armstrong men's basketball player Jesse Wheeler - will be the primary backup to Jazmin

Walker at the point guard position while fellow incoming freshman Kianna Jacobs (5-10, Fr., Durham, N.C.) will have to redshirt her freshman year after suffering an injury in preseason practice.

The other two incoming freshmen for head coach Matt Schmidt are a pair of good-sized post players - freshman Skye Rogers (6-1, Fr., Woodstock, Ga.) and Danielle Zuercher (6-0, Fr., Sagamore, Ohio) - who will add depth to the Lady Pirates' talented frontcourt.

One more newcomer to the Lady Pirates this season will be making the transition in November from the soccer field to the basketball court as freshman Morgan Mitchell (5-9, Fr., Lilburn, Ga.) joins Armstrong after the women's soccer season is done. Mitchell was a high school standout at Parkview HS and will be the Lady Pirates' first two-sport player on since Tana Griffiths also played soccer and basketball in 2006.

The schedule for coach Schmidt and the Lady Pirates includes several tough non-conference opponents as Armstrong will face NCAA participant Anderson and Conference Carolinas school Mount Olive in the 2010 Hampton Inn & Suites Fall Finals Classic; Sunshine State Conference foes Saint Leo and Florida Southern at the Saint Leo Sleep Inn Classic in Florida and single games against Converse, Allen and Edward Waters.

Defending PBC champion Lander has been picked to finish first in the aforementioned preseason poll of the league's coaches. Clayton State has been picked to finish second, followed by Francis Marion. Georgia College has been picked to finish fourth, followed by USC Aiken and Columbus State. UNC Pembroke was picked to finish seventh, followed by North Georgia and Georgia Southwestern. Montevallo was picked to finish 10th, followed by Armstrong Atlantic State University. Augusta State and Flagler were each picked to finish tied for 12th to round out the Peach Belt preseason coaches' poll.

The Lady Pirates open the 2010-11 season on Friday, November 12, visiting Converse for a 6:00 p.m. matchup in Spartanburg, S.C. Armstrong opens up its home season on Monday, November 15, hosting Allen at 5:30 p.m.

Matt Schmidt Head Women's Basketball Coach

Matt Schmidt begins his third season as the head women's basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State University.

In 2009-10, the Lady Pirates finished 9-17 overall after suffering a series of preseason and early season injuries that hampered Armstrong. Late-season success included a come-from-behind 83-80 win over UNC Pembroke and a season series sweep of Augusta State.

In his first season as a collegiate head coach, Schmidt led the Lady Pirates to a third-place finish in the Peach Belt Conference and a 17-11 overall record, including a 12-8 mark in the league. The Lady Pirates continued their streak of defeating at least one nationally-ranked team each season, stretching that streak to nine straight years with wins over No. 7-ranked USC Aiken and No. 7-ranked Francis Marion.

Schmidt joined AASU from Northern Kentucky, where he served as an assistant coach from 2004-08. He was instrumental in helping the Norse achieve its second NCAA Division II National Championship a season ago as Northern Kentucky went 28-8 and defeated South Dakota 63-58, in the national championship game.

During his four seasons with the Norse, he assisted head coach Nancy Winstel in all aspects of the Northern Kentucky program, including recruiting, scouting, practice and game-day coaching, and helped the Norse to a 92-32 record during that span.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Schmidt spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Findlay prior to joining the Northern Kentucky coaching staff. He also previously served as an assistant coach at both West Virginia University and the University of Maryland-Baltimore County.

Schmidt took over an AASU women's basketball program that went 20-11 in 2007-08 and advanced to the 2008 Peach Belt Conference Championship game, the third title game appearance in history.

Schmidt played basketball at West Liberty State College in West Virginia, where he graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He earned his master's degree in physical education from West Virginia University in 2000.

Schmidt and his wife, Brittany, were married in May of 2009 and reside in Savannah.

Karmen Graham Assistant Coach

Karmen Graham begins her second season with the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball coaching staff as head coach Matt Schmidt's assistant for the 2010-11 season.

Graham joined AASU from Ashland University, where she served as a graduate assistant during the 2008-09 season. While at Ashland, she coordinated film exchange, conducted individual workouts and was involved with recruiting for the Lady Eagles, who went 17-11 overall and 13-9 in the GLIAC.

A graduate of Northern Kentucky University with her bachelor's degree in education, Graham was a four-year standout for the Norsewomen, helping lead NKU to three NCAA Championships appearances. A Kodak/WBCA Division II Honorable Mention All-American honoree in 2005-06, Graham finished her career as the 19th leading scorer in NKU history, as well as ranking in the top 10 in free throw percentage (3rd) and field goal percentage (7th). Graham also played for coach Schmidt

While at NKU, Graham assisted with head coach Nancy Winstel's individual and team camps all four years. After graduating, she served as an assistant varsity coach at Highlands HS in Fort Thomas, Ky., for the 2007-08 season prior to joining the Ashland staff.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Graham played high school ball at Kettering Fairmont HS and was a two-time All-Conference honoree.

Nicole Chiodi Graduate Assistant Coach

Nicole Chiodi begins her second season with the Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball coaching staff as a graduate assistant coach for the 2010-11 season.

Nicole played collegiate basketball for four years for then-assistant coach Matt Schmidt at Northern Kentucky University. She was the starting point guard for the 2008 National Championship Norse, where she led the team in assists, steals and was second on the team in rebounding. Chiodi also set a Norse all time record for minutes played in a season. She graduated in 2008 from NKU with her bachelor's degree in radio and television.

A native of Highland Heights, Kentucky, Nicole played high school basketball at Newport Central Catholic High School, where she set the all time scoring record with 2,124 career points, as well as setting all-time records in assists and steals.

The daughter of Susan and Tony Chiodi, Nicole has one sister, Maria, and one brother-in-law, Jeff. She is currently pursuing her master's degree in education from AASU and resides in Savannah.

Armstrong Atlantic State University

Since its founding in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System. The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,500 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 20 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the $31 million Windward Commons, a 567-bed, freshman-dedicated residence hall completed over the summer, which brings the number of students living on campus to more than 1,400, and the new $16 million, 60,180 square-foot AASU Student Union that was built entirely through student fees and opened in fall of 2010.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball was completed in the spring of 2007.

AASU sponsors eleven intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06 and men's cross country was reinstated in 2009, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that AASU sponsors. In 2008-09, the AASU men's and women's tennis teams each captured NCAA Division II National Championships for a second straight year, with the women's tennis team earning the "three-peat" of three straight titles in 2010.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of AASU's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

AASU was fully accredited as a senior institution in December, 1968

Dr. Linda M. Bleicken University President

Dr. Linda M. Bleicken joins AASU after serving at Georgia Southern for 19 years. She becomes the seventh AASU president and the first woman to lead the institution since the establishment of Armstrong Junior College in 1935.

A woman with deep roots in Iowa farm country, Bleicken began her career at Georgia Southern as an assistant professor of management in 1990. Over the following years she would serve as acting chair of the department of management, associate dean of the College of Business Administration, vice president for student affairs, acting provost and vice president for academic affairs and lastly provost, a position she held since 2005.

A marketing major from Georgia State University who graduated magna cum laude, Bleicken's experiences in the business arena include a foray into real estate in Atlanta as owner and manager of residential properties and serving as a sales representative for Innerface International. She also spent two years in marketing research for BellSouth and Brittain Associates, both in Atlanta.

It was her experiences in marketing research that led her back to higher education. In 1987, she chose to continue her education in a university campus, this time as a teaching instructor at her alma mater, Georgia State University. Three years later she earned her academic credentials, a master's and Ph.D. in management, once again from Georgia State.

A long-time resident of Savannah—she commuted to Georgia Southern all those years—Bleicken knows and cares deeply about Savannah and the Coastal Georgia region. She has served on the Ossabaw Island Foundation Board since 2007 and been involved with the Savannah Downtown Neighborhood Association.

Andy Carter Athletic Director

Andy Carter begins his second year as the Director of Athletics at Armstrong Atlantic State University for the 2009-10 season.

Carter was hired on April 8, 2009, by then-University President Dr. Thomas Z. Jones after an exhaustive national search. In his first year with AASU, the Pirates sent six teams to the NCAA Championships and women's tennis captured the school's seventh NCAA Division II National Championship.

Carter joined the Pirates from Newberry College, where he served as since 2002. In that time, he increased the visibility and success of the Newberry athletic department both on and off the competitive playing field. Newberry has won four of the past five South Atlantic Conference academic titles, while also leading 14 teams to NCAA Championships appearances after the school had collected just one in the previous 11 seasons.

He developed the "Newberry College Athletic Initiative" upon arriving at the Newberry, S.C., campus, a long-term plan to improve Newberry's athletic program while maintaining the school's excellent academic record. Other highlights include the beginning of an intercollegiate wrestling program that finished second in NCAA Division II in 2009; SAC Championships for football in 2006 and 2008, as well as SAC titles in women's basketball and men's golf.

Prior to Newberry, Carter served as the Director of Athletics at Missouri Baptist University in St. Louis, Mo., from 1997 through 2002. He served as the baseball coach from 1991 through 1999, leading the team to seven straight conference titles.

Carter received his bachelor's of science degree in business administration from Missouri Baptist in 1987, then earned his MBA from Lindenwood University in 1990. He and his wife, Rena, have six children – Aaron (22), Becca (20), Beth (17), Jake (15), Rachel (14) and Micah (9).

2009-10 Season Review

The Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball team suffered through a tough 2009-10 season as early-season injuries and a tough schedule resulted in a 9-17 overall record and a 6-12 mark in the Peach Belt Conference.

The Lady Pirates remained in contention for a berth in the 2010 Peach Belt Conference tournament all the way to the final week of the season and still secured a few highlight wins during the season.

Armstrong overcame an 18-point first-half deficit on February 24th to come back and beat UNC Pembroke, 83-80, in overtime. The Lady Pirates hit 13 three-pointers in the contest, the most three-pointers in a single game in school history.

The Lady Pirates also placed five players in double figures in a 76-63 win at Augusta State on December 5, and Armstrong shot 53 percent from the floor in a 72-53 Peach Belt win at Flagler on January 2.

Senior Dartayvia Thomas capped her four-year career for the Lady Pirates by averaging 8.6 points and 6.2 rebounds per game, while also shooting 77.8 percent from the free throw line and leading the Peach Belt Conference in minutes played. In her four years at Armstrong, Thomas hit 77.4 percent from the free throw line, second-best all-time, while also scoring 693 points and grabbing 508 rebounds, ninth most all-time. She also played in 112 games in her career, which ranks as the sixth-most in Armstrong women's basketball history.

Senior Portia Jones was a PBC All-Academic team member for a second straight year as the Savannah native averaged a career-best 12.3 points per game, ranking 12th in the Peach Belt. Jones hit 98 three-pointers in her three-year career as a Lady Pirate, good for seventh-best on the all-time three-point chart.

Senior Lauren Hall led the Lady Pirates in scoring, ranking ninth in the Peach Belt at 13.3 points per game, and also earned PBC Player of the Week honors on November 30. Hall's 59 three-pointers made ranked her third in the Peach Belt and were the sixth-most in a single season in Armstrong history.

Among the underclassmen, junior Arpine Amirkhanyan enjoyed a fine debut season with the Lady Pirates, averaging 10.0 points per game and a team-leading 7.9 rebounds per game. Freshman Jazmin Walker started at point guard as a true freshman and played the fifth-most minutes per game in the league, averaging 8.2 points and 3.3 assists per game as well.

The Lady Pirates return three starters and seven players overall for the 2010-11 season.

The Peach Belt Conference

Now entering its 21st year of existence in 2010-11, the Peach Belt Conference has become one of the elite Division II conferences in the nation. Since its inception in 1990-91, the Peach Belt has developed a consistent history of excellence which continues to this day with 29 national championships and 25 national finalists.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 13 championship sports with the addition of women's golf in the fall of 2009.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and began play in fall 1990.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own. One year later, the Lander men's tennis team began their record-breaking run of eight straight national titles, the first PBC dynasty. Since then, USCA men's golf has won three straight national titles from 2004-06 while AASU women's tennis has captured four titles overall.

The 2009-10 season was among the most successful the league has seen in its 20 years. Armstrong Atlantic State won their third consecutive women's tennis national championship while the Augusta State men's basketball team continued their unprecedented run with a third straight appearance in the Elite Eight. Flagler became the first PBC volleyball team to reach the NCAA Final Four. The North Georgia softball team was ranked #1 in the nation in every regular-season softball poll while, in all, five PBC programs were ranked #1 in the nation (GCSU men's golf, ASU men's basketball, AASU men's and women's tennis).

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005, USC Upstate did the same in 2007, and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006. In 2009-10, the Peach Belt expanded to 13 members, the most the league has ever had, with the additions of Montevallo and Flagler. The two schools also returned a league presence to Florida and broke new ground in Alabama.

David Brunk was named the second PBC commissioner in May of 2007. Brunk replaced Marvin Vanover, who was the first PBC commissioner from 1991 to 2007. Brunk is charged with continuing the strong growth of the conference as its second era begins.

Dr. Kendall Blanchard, president of Georgia Southwestern State University, began the first of his two-year term as the league president in July of 2010.

The conference currently holds championships in 13 sports, six for men and seven for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's and women's golf.

This Is Savannah

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil," "The Legend of Bagger Vance," and this summer's "The Last Song," starring Miley Cyrus. Savannah also hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics and most recently served as the media home for the G-8 Summit. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by more than $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the Southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historic settings, the friendliness of a Southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.

The Armstrong Atlantic State women's basketball team during the 2005-06 season on the riverboat "Georgia Queen", docked on the Savannah River in downtown Savannah. River street and Tybee Island both attract millions of tourists each year to the Coastal Empire area, adding to the 250,000 residents of the Savannah Area.

The Lady Pirates are 126-80 over the last seven seasons
