

2008

Honor Code Proposal

Georgia Southern University

Student Government Association

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/faculty-senate-index>

Part of the Higher Education Administration Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University and Student Government Association, "Honor Code Proposal" (2008). Faculty Senate Index. 36.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/faculty-senate-index/36>

This motion request is brought to you for free and open access by the Faculty Senate Documents at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Faculty Senate Index by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

Honor Code Proposal

Be it resolved that the Georgia Southern University Student Government Association brings forth the following decision:

WHEREAS

1. The Student Government Association and Faculty Senate deem it necessary to include an Honor Code in Section 3 of the AStudent Conduct Code.@
2. The present system described in the AStudent Conduct Code@ will still apply. The AStudent Conduct Code@ sets forward a good and reasonable judicial process for handling academic misconduct cases.

THEREFORE

3. As a part of the GSU 1210 class, the Honor Code, its meaning and intention will be discussed. In addition, the Honor Code will be distributed to each student as a part of the Student Conduct Code. The student will be aware of the penalties for academic misconduct.
4. The term Aacademic honesty@ and Aacademic misconduct,@ as used in the above statement, shall have the same meaning stated in the AStudent Conduct Code.@

BE IT RESOLVED

Enactment of this Honor Code will enhance Georgia Southern University's academic atmosphere and quality of standing. The Honor Code will state:

I will be academically honest in all of my course work and will not tolerate the academic misconduct of others.@