ARMSTRONG MADE BACK-TO-BACK NCAA APPEARANCES IN 2002-03 AND 2003-04

ARMSTRONG WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

After two below average seasons and a roster that lacks a single senior, head coach Matt Schmidt's prospects for the upcoming 2011-12 Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball season might be challenged at best.

But to talk to coach Schmidt and the members of the Pirate squad, the optimism for Armstrong women's basketball is profound.

Six players return from last season's squad that went 8-18 overall and 4-12 in the Peach Belt Conference, and coach Schmidt went near and far to find nine newcomers to join Armstrong for 2011-12 and form an intriguing team that looks to prove the doubters wrong in the ultra-competitive Peach Belt Conference.

After manning the starting point guard spot for her first two seasons at Armstrong, junior Jazmin Walker (5-7, Jr., Lawrenceville, Ga.) will have a little competition heading into the season.

JUNIOR JAZMIN WALKER AGAIN RANKED AMONG THE LEAGUE'S LEADERS IN MINUTES PLAYED (35.3) WHILE AVERAGING 12.0 PPG AS A SOPHOMORE IN 2011-12

Walker has played the most minutes of any Peach Belt player over the last two seasons and during her sophomore season, ranked second on the Pirates in scoring, averaging 12.0 points per contest.

Walker's competition at the point will come mainly from freshman Dee Hayward (5-7, Fr., Glasgow, Scotland), who comes to Armstrong with considerable international experience after serving as the starting point guard for the Great Britain U-20 National Team in the FIBA Championships in July, as well as earning Player of the Year honors for her club, Saint Mirren, in 2009. Sophomore Niagara University transfer Noelle Zletni (5-9, Soph., Richmond Hill, Ontario) joins the Pirates after playing her freshman season for the Purple Eagles, seeing action in 24 games.

The depth at point guard will also allow Walker to play shooting guard, where the Pirates have also brought in a pair of players to compete for time with fellow returnee Briana McFarland (5-6, Jr., Dallas, Ga.). McFarland averaged 2.5 points per game last season as a sophomore. Florida State College at Jacksonville transfer Angelia Hill (5-6, Jr., Macon, Ga.) averaged 8.3 points in 24 games as a sophomore for the Stars last season, while Polish native and Iowa Western CC transfer Karolina Rykowska (5-11, Jr., Ostroleka, Poland) averaged 7.2 points per game in 31 games for the Reivers last season.

Other guards who will have the opportunity to see action this season include Hill's junior college teammate, Amber Ford (5-8, Jr., Royal Palm Beach, Fla.) and freshman local product Sonny Canady (5-7, Fr., Savannah, Ga.), who played at Calvary Day School.

Talented junior college transfer Demisha Mills (5-9, Jr., Gray Court, S.C.) will step in to the Pirates' lineup at small forward after back-to-back Mid-Florida All-Conference seasons at Santa Fe College. Both Ford and Rykowska are able to play the position as well as sophomore Morgan Mitchell (5-9, Soph., Lilburn, Ga.), who will join the team after her duties on the Armstrong women's soccer squad are complete. Mitchell joined the team last season in December and made 18 starts, averaging 2.2 points and 3.6 rebounds per game.

The frontcourt for the Pirates boasts a standout returnee in sophomore Mauri Wells (6-0, Soph., Rome, Ga.), who put up a All-PBC caliber season last year by scoring 11.9 points and averaging 9.7 rebounds per game, ranking third in the league in rebounding. Fellow returnee Marissa Rimbart (6-0, Jr., Suwanee, Ga.) was making incredible strides in the offseason, but a preseason injury means she will have to redshirt this upcoming year.

Junior D.D. Gipson (6-1, Jr., Laveen, Ariz.) gives the Pirates outstanding size in the paint after averaging 10.2 points and 7.5 rebounds per game as a sophomore at South Mountain CC in Arizona, and sophomore returnee Danielle Zuercher (6-0, Soph., Sagamore, Ohio) looks to improve on her freshman season. Armstrong also adds a veteran presence - literally - in freshman Priscilla Westfield (5-11, Fr., Savannah, Ga.), who finished her U.S. Military commitment and will play for the Pirates while returning to school.

The schedule for coach Schmidt and the Lady Pirates begins with an exhibition contest at the College of Charleston on November 4th. Armstrong will host the 2011 Wingate by Wyndham Classic in November, featuring Anderson (SC) and Young Harris, and the Pirates will play South Atlantic Conference foe Mars Hill; Conference Carolinas school Converse as well as new in-state rival Coastal Georgia. NAIA schools Bluefield College, Edward Waters and Allen wrap up the non-conference portion of the schedule.

Defending NCAA Division II National Champion Clayton State has been picked to finish first in the aforementioned preseason poll of the league's coaches. Lander has been picked to finish second, followed by USC Aiken. Columbus State has been picked to finish fourth, followed by Francis Marion and UNC Pembroke. Georgia College was picked to finish seventh, followed by North Georgia and Georgia Southwestern. Armstrong is picked to finish 10th, followed by Montevallo. Augusta State is picked to finish 12th and Flagler is picked to finish 13th round out the Peach Belt preseason coaches' poll.

The Pirates open the 2011-12 season on Friday, November 11, hosting Bluefield College at 5:30 p.m. Armstrong plays its first seven games at home in 2011-12 and 10 of its first 11, giving the Pirates a great chance to get off to a good start and show the Peach Belt that this season's team will be one to reckon with.

MATT SCHMIDT HEAD WOMEN'S BASKETBALL COACH

Matt Schmidt begins his fourth season as the head women's basketball coach at Armstrong Atlantic State University.

In three seasons at the helm of the Lady Pirates, Schmidt has compiled a 34-46 overall record, including an 18-20 mark in the Peach Belt Conference.

Last season, the Pirates went 8-18 overall and 4-14 in the Peach Belt Conference, following a 9-7 overall mark and a 6-12 Peach Belt record in 2010-11.

Schmidt's first season with the Pirates in 2008-09 saw Armstrong go 17-11 overall and 12-8 in the Peach Belt Conference, winning six of its last eight games heading into the PBC Tournament. The team featured first-team All-PBC selection and All-Region performer Lacey Willis.

Schmidt joined Armstrong in 2008-09 from Northern Kentucky, where he served as an assistant coach from 2004-08. He was instrumental in helping the Norse achieve its second NCAA Division II National Championship in 2007-08 as Northern Kentucky went 28-8 and defeated South Dakota 63-58, in the national championship game.

During his four seasons with the Norse, he assisted head coach Nancy Winstel in all aspects of the Northern Kentucky program, including recruiting, scouting, practice and game-day coaching, and helped the Norse to a 92-32 record during that span.

A native of Johnstown, Pa., Schmidt spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Findlay prior to joining the Northern Kentucky coaching staff. He also previously served as an assistant coach at both West Virginia University and the University of Maryland-Baltimore County.

Schmidt played basketball at West Liberty State College in West Virginia, where he graduated in 1996 with a bachelor's degree in health and physical education. He earned his master's degree in physical education from West Virginia University in 2000.

Schmidt and his wife, Brittany, were married in May of 2009 and reside in Savannah.

ARMSTRONG ATLANTIC STATE UNIVERSITY

Since its founding in 1935 - more than 75 years ago - Armstrong Atlantic State University has continued to develop to meet the Savannah community's educational needs. From its first location in Armstrong House in downtown Savannah to its current home on a scenic 268-acre lot off of Abercorn, the university has become one of the finest educational institutions in the Southeastern United States. Last year, Armstrong celebrated its 75th anniversary as a premier institution of higher education in the Coastal Empire.

Armstrong Junior College was established by the Mayor of Savannah and other public officials in 1935. Housed in the beautiful and historic Armstrong House, a gift to the city from the family of George F. Armstrong, Armstrong Junior College grew over the years to occupy eight additional buildings in the Forsyth Park and Monterey Square areas.

In 1959, as Armstrong College of Savannah, it became a two-year unit of the University System. The Board of Regents conferred four-year status on Armstrong in 1964 and the college moved to a 250-acre location, a gift from Donald Livingston and the Mills B. Lane Foundation, in December of 1965. Additional buildings joined the eight original structures as Armstrong added professional and graduate programs and tripled in size.

In July of 1996, the Board of Regents voted to rename the college to Armstrong Atlantic State University to reflect its mission and identity. The university's reputation of excellence is still evident in its dedication to students, with a supportive environment.

Armstrong Atlantic State University was fully accredited as a senior institution by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools in December, 1968, with accreditation retroactive to January 1, 1968, and was last reaccredited in December, 2002.

The university offers more than seventy-five academic programs and majors in the College of Arts and Sciences, College of Health Professions, College of Education and School of Computing. The academic community includes approximately 7,650 students and more than 400 faculty members. Enrollment has more than doubled in the last 20 years, from 3,700 students in 1990 to its current number.

Across campus, evidence of the university's growth can be found in its facilities. Recently completed projects include the $31 million Windward Commons, a 567-bed, freshman-dedicated residence hall completed over the summer, which brings the number of students living on campus to more than 1,400, and the new $16 million, 60,180 square-foot Armstrong Student Union that was built entirely through student fees and opened in fall of 2010.

The athletic department of Armstrong Atlantic State University is housed in the Armstrong Sports Center, completed in 1995. The Sports Center includes offices for the physical education department, training room and weight room areas, basketball courts, indoor track and offices for coaches and athletic department personnel. The building played host to the Peach Belt Conference's basketball tournament in 1998 and 1999 and hosts several in-season tournaments each year. Construction of a women's fieldhouse for soccer and softball was completed in the spring of 2007.

Armstrong sponsors eleven intercollegiate sports and is a charter member of the Peach Belt Conference, formed in 1991. Women's soccer and women's golf debuted in 2005-06 and men's cross country was reinstated in 2009, joining men's and women's basketball, volleyball, baseball, men's and women's tennis, men's golf and softball as sports that Armstrong sponsors. In 2008-09, the Armstrong men's and women's tennis teams each captured NCAA Division II National Championships for a second straight year, with the women's tennis team earning the "three-peat" of three straight titles in 2010.

Continuing a mission begun in 1935, Armstrong Atlantic State University today serves a rich gamut of traditional and non-traditional students. Forty-three percent of Armstrong's student body are from the Savannah-Chatham area, while others come from around the state, nation and world. All have come to Savannah to experience and thrive on the campus of one of the fastest developing higher learning institutions in the nation - to be a part of Armstrong Atlantic State University.

ARMSTRONG WAS FULLY ACCREDITED AS A SENIOR INSTITUTION IN DECEMBER 1968

DR. LINDA M. BLEICKEN UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Dr. Linda M. Bleicken joined Armstrong in 2009 after serving at Georgia Southern for 19 years. She is the seventh Armstrong president and the first woman to lead the institution since the establishment of Armstrong Junior College in 1935.

A woman with deep roots in Iowa farm country, Bleicken began her career at Georgia Southern as an assistant professor of management in 1990. Over the following years she would serve as acting chair of the department of management, associate dean of the College of Business Administration, vice president for student affairs, acting provost and vice president for academic affairs and lastly provost, a position she held since 2005.

A marketing major from Georgia State University who graduated magna cum laude, Bleicken's experiences in the business arena include a foray into real estate in Atlanta as owner and manager of residential properties and serving as a sales representative for Innerface International. She also spent two years in marketing research for BellSouth and Brittain Associates, both in Atlanta.

It was her experiences in marketing research that led her back to higher education. In 1987, she chose to continue her education in a university campus, this time as a teaching instructor at her alma mater, Georgia State University. Three years later she earned her academic credentials, a master's and Ph.D. in management, once again from Georgia State.

A long-time resident of Savannah—she commuted to Georgia Southern all those years—Bleicken knows and cares deeply about Savannah and the Coastal Georgia region. She has served on the Ossabaw Island Foundation Board since 2007 and been involved with the Savannah Downtown Neighborhood Association.

LISA SWEANY ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

Lisa M. Sweany begins her first season as Director of Athletics at Armstrong Atlantic State University for the 2011-12 academic year.

Sweany brings to Armstrong extensive experience in NCAA Division II athletics, including more than 10 years with the premiere Division II program at GVSU. Since being named senior associate athletics director in 2007, she has been responsible for budget, personnel and facilities management. Her duties have included direct supervision of seven coaches, overseeing game and event operations, as well as management of all athletics personnel. In addition, she coordinated all aspects of compliance and eligibility for more than 500 student athletes.

She actively researched and implemented a plan to offer women's lacrosse as GVSU's 20th varsity sport. She has served on the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletics Conference Executive Council, the Irwin Club Advisory Board and the Intercollegiate Athletics Advisory Board.

Prior to joining GVSU, she served at Tri-State University in Angola, Indiana, starting in 1995 as athletics facilities director. During her five-year stint at Tri-State, she served in various capacities of increasing responsibility, including assistant basketball coach, head coach of softball and associate athletics director, a position she was named to in March 1995.

Sweany is a member of the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators and the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, as well as the first vice president of the CEFMA (Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association) for 2011-12. From 2010, she served as chair of the NCAA Midwest Regional for Softball, helping to oversee rankings in the region. Since 2008, she has served as second vice president and convention planning chair for the Collegiate Event and Facility Management Association, where she was a founding board member.

She holds a master's degree in physical education with a concentration in sports management from Ball State University in Muncie, Indiana and a bachelor's degree with honors in business administration with a concentration in accounting from Tri-State University in Angola, Indiana.

2010-11 SEASON REVIEW

The Armstrong Atlantic State University women's basketball squad finished the 2010-11 season with an 8-18 overall record and a 4-14 record in Peach Belt Conference play.

The Lady Pirates opened the season with a 56-47 region win over Converse, and also knocked off Allen and Edward Waters before opening the Peach Belt Conference campaign with a 77-73 win over Augusta State, holding the Lady Jaguars scoreless over the last two minutes of the contest to secure the victory.

Armstrong picked up conference wins over Flagler and swept the season series from Augusta State, then came up with a thrilling 55-48 overtime win at North Georgia on Jan. 29 as a Mauri Wells open layup with 3.5 seconds left pushed the game into overtime, then the Pirates hit two three-pointers in overtime to pull away for the key road win.

Senior Arpine Amirkhanyan, Armstrong's lone senior for 2010-11, earned PBC Player of the Week honors on Dec. 6 for averaging 22 points and 12.5 rebounds in a pair of wins that week. She finished the season ranking 12th in the Peach Belt Conference in scoring, averaging 12.3 points

Freshman Mauri Wells had an outstanding debut season, ranking third in the league in rebounding (9.7 rpg) while also averaging 11.9 points per game, ranking 16th, and shooting .481 from the floor, eighth-best in the league. She also notched 12 double-doubles during her first season as a Pirate.

Junior point guard Jazmin Walker ranked second in the Peach Belt Conference in minutes played per game and averaged 12.0 points per game and 3.42 assists per game, ranking 12th and 14th in the league, respectively. Freshman Ashley Slade led the Peach Belt Conference in free throw percentage at .870, as well as ranking second in the league in three-point percentage at .402.

As a team, the Pirates ranked second in the league in rebounding, averaging 41.7 boards per game, while also ranking second in rebounding margin at +4.2. Armstrong also ranked fifth in the league in scoring offensive, averaging 64.3 points per contest.

THE PEACH BELT CONFERENCE

Entering its 22nd year of existence in 2011-12, the Peach Belt Conference has become one of the elite Division II conferences in the nation. Since its inception in 1990-91, the Peach Belt has developed a consistent history of excellence which continues to this day with 30 national championships and 27 national finalists.

Starting with only two championships in 1991, in men's and women's basketball, the conference has expanded to 13 championship sports with the addition of women's golf in the fall of 2009.

The conference traces its roots back to November of 1988 when 11 schools first met in Greenville, S.C. to form a Division II conference. Following a second meeting on Dec. 3, 1989, five of those 11 schools, plus two others, formed the Peach Belt and begin play in fall 1990.

The Peach Belt was less than a year old before capturing a national championship. The Columbus State golf team took the honor by winning the 1992 national crown, the first of three golf championships the Cougars own. One year later, the Lander men's tennis team began their record-breaking run of eight straight national titles, the first PBC dynasty. Since then, USCA men's golf has won three straight national titles from 2004-06 while Armstrong women's tennis has captured four titles overall.

The 2010-11 season was one of the most memorable the league has ever had. Clayton State became the first PBC women's basketball team to capture a national championship. The Columbus State men's tennis team reached the national semifinals while the Clayton State and Armstrong Atlantic State women's tennis teams also played in the national semifinals. The North Georgia softball team made an unprecedented third straight appearance in the NCAA Women's College World Series, while Columbus State's Meshack Koyiaki registered a runner-up finish at the Men's Cross Country National Championships. In all, 46 Peach Belt teams made appearances in the NCAA postseason, including seven men's tennis teams and six each in the sports of men's golf and women's tennis.

The seven charter members of the conference were Armstrong Atlantic State University, Columbus State University, Francis Marion University, Georgia College & State University, Lander University, USC Aiken and USC Upstate. The name Peach Belt Athletic Conference was adopted in January of 1990 and modified to Peach Belt Conference in May of 2000.

Augusta State joined the conference in 1991 and UNC Pembroke became the ninth member on July 1, 1992. They were followed by Kennesaw State University on July 1, 1994, Clayton State University on July 1, 1995 and the University of North Florida on July 1, 1997. Kennesaw State and North Florida departed for the Division I ranks in 2005, USC Upstate did the same in 2007, and the conference welcomed in North Georgia College & State University in 2005 and Georgia Southwestern State University in 2006. In 2009-10, the Peach Belt expanded to 13 members, the most the league has ever had, with the additions of Montevallo and Flagler. The two schools also returned a league presence to Florida and broke new ground in Alabama.

David Brunk was named the second PBC commissioner in May of 2007. Brunk replaced Marvin Vanover, who was the first PBC commissioner from 1991 to 2007. Brunk is charged with continuing the strong growth of the conference as its second era begins.

Dr. Kendall Blanchard, president of Georgia Southwestern State University, began the second of his two-year term as the league president in July of 2011.

The conference currently holds championships in 13 sports, six for men and seven for women. They are men's and women's cross country, men's and women's soccer, volleyball, men's and women's basketball, men's and women's tennis, baseball, softball and men's and women's golf.

THIS IS SAVANNAH

Historic Savannah, Georgia, is located on the Atlantic Coast, at the confluence of the Savannah River and the Atlantic Ocean. Throughout its history, there has been one adjective consistently used to describe Savannah: beautiful.

The reason? There's something about the unique beauty of Savannah that cannot be forgotten. Streets with canopies of moss-laden trees are honored venues for scores of historic homes. The town squares that Savannah's founding father, James Oglethorpe, laid out as public meeting places are now treasured "pocket parks" located throughout the downtown area.

A renovated waterfront area serves as the hub for shopping and entertainment. Nearby sandy beaches draw streams of visitors with persistent cool breezes and the endless lure of the rolling sea. Finally, there's an indescribable - but readily discernible - feeling in the air that pervades Savannah, a kind of "laid back" approach to the world, a "rootedness" that makes living or working in Savannah an experience second to none.

By way of affirmation, Le Monde, the leading French newspaper, called Savannah "the most beautiful city in North America."

Savannah has recently captured the imagination of a nation through its history and its appearance in several feature films, including "Glory," "Forrest Gump," "Something to Talk About," "Midnight In The Garden of Good and Evil," "The Legend of Bagger Vance," and the 2009 hit "The Last Song," starring Miley

Cyrus. Savannah also hosted the yachting events of the 1996 Summer Olympics and most recently served as the media home for the G-8 Summit. As a result, tourism has become one of the leading industries in the area.

Savannah hosts over six million tourists each year. Tourism impacts the Savannah area by more than $634 million. The city boasts over 7,000 rooms and more than 100 restaurants as folks have learned that Savannah is more than just a convenient rest stop on the interstate to Florida.

The climate of Savannah features warm, and sometimes hot, weather for most of the year. There are seven months in which the average temperature is 70 degrees or higher. The lowest average high is in January at 60.3 degrees.

The population in Savannah is roughly 130,000 and Chatham County is the fifth most populous county in Georgia.

Savannah also sits centrally located to some of the Southeast's finest beaches. Tybee Island, located less than 30 minutes from Armstrong Atlantic State's campus, offers six miles of unspoiled sands, tempting seafood and gracious accommodations. Resort areas such as Hilton Head, South Carolina, are less than one hour away and provide even more relaxing getaway options.

Whether it's the lure of historic settings, the friendliness of a Southern community or the beautiful climate of southeast Georgia, Savannah is the place for you.
