Volunteer with Operation Empower Health!

When: May 10th through 18th, various times

What: St. Joseph's/Candler, Georgia Southern University, City of Savannah and Garden City are supporting the U.S. Military to provide no-cost healthcare for those in need in our region. Volunteers from the Georgia Southern and Armstrong family - students, faculty, staff, family and friends - are needed in a variety of ways including organizing the flow of people or helping patients find low-cost or free follow-up care.

How: Click newsletter to sign-up.

Volunteer with the Reading Carnival!

SUMMER READING CARNIVAL!

When:

Friday, May 18 from 4pm – 8pm, 4-5 volunteers needed to help with event set up

Sat., May 19 from 9:30am-12pm, 10-15 volunteers needed to help with event check in, and assistance overall with event

Saturday, May 19 from 12pm – 2pm, 8-10 volunteers needed to help with event break down

What: Come join us at this fun community event! The focal point of the Bulloch County Community Reading Fair are the Interactive Reading Stations. Schools, businesses and organizations will to set up “Reading Stations” based on a favorite book or novel. Each reading station will be elaborately decorated and include volunteers who will dress up as characters from the book. The idea is to create a mini set that will look as if someone stepped into the pages of the book. Volunteers will assist with various aspects of the Reading Carnival. It is sure to be a fun time!

Where: Statesboro High School
