MSN Program Ranked One of the Best for 2018

September 17, 2018

Georgia Southern University's School of Nursing has been selected as one of the Best Master of Science in Nursing (MSN) for 2018 by OnlineMasters.com. The School of Nursing's MSN program was ranked number 50 out of 866 programs analyzed. Programs were selected based on academic quality, student success and affordability.

"Nursing remains one of the most competitive programs in professional education," stated School Chair Catherine Gilbert, Ed.D., RN. "Prospective students have many options to pursue higher education; therefore, national rankings assist students in choosing a school that provides the highest level of education; Georgia Southern University is proud to be among these recognized leaders in nursing education."

The School of Nursing is housed in the Waters College of Health Professions and is fully accredited by the Georgia Board of Nursing and the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education.
