

11-1-2018

Message from the President

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/president-messages>

Part of the Higher Education Commons

Recommended Citation

Georgia Southern University, "Message from the President" (2018). Messages from the President (2016-present). 39.
<https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/president-messages/39>

This article is brought to you for free and open access by the Communications from the Office of the President at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Messages from the President (2016-present) by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.

To the University Community:

Today I met with a group of students who held a peaceful march on the Statesboro Campus. I continue to be impressed with the student leaders and how they are approaching tense situations with maturity and conviction. We had a meaningful and productive conversation. I heard their concerns and they heard that the University is taking their concerns seriously. We are a university that respects all people and values diversity and inclusion. As we work through these challenging situations together, it's crucial we maintain a respectful posture and listen. Today was a positive step forward and we will continue the dialogue.

Shelley C. Nickel