Never too busy to help, never too hurried to explain, always ready with an argument no matter which side a student takes in a classroom debate. These qualities describe the man to whom this Reflector '66 is dedicated.

A universally known professor on this campus, respected by all for his mastery of his subject matter, liked because of his easy-going personality, and the unique personality of his "Lady" companion. This 1966 Reflector is dedicated to Dr. Otis Stephens.

Theta Pi Omega

Theta Pi Omega service sorority was founded by its eight charter members, Louise Cox, Ginger Hill, Sharon Allen, Becky Motes, Virginia Coward, Michaela Dennis, Diane Ellis, and Ann Hendrix, during Fall Quarter, 1964, to promote sisterhood on campus. It was officially accepted as a Georgia Southern College sorority in January, 1965.

The desire of Theta Pi Omega Sorority is that each sister be loyal, trustworthy, dependable, and congenial with all sisters.

The sorority was founded for the purpose of continuing leadership, fellowship, stewardship, and scholarship among its sisters.

During the past year and a half the sorority has grown and continued to stress its purposes. The sorority has taken part in Georgia Southern's Campus Life Enrichment Program, assisted the faculty members with free baby sitting service, acted as official hostess for special events and for visitors on Georgia Southern Campus. One of Theta Pi Omega's main projects is the Indian girl from Oklahoma whom the sorority adopted Spring Quarter 1965.

Theta Pi Omega is a small sorority—a sorority with a name and a purpose, but most of all Theta Pi Omega is a sorority of love and sisterhood.

PEM Club

The PEM Club is an organization for all women majoring in physical education. The purpose of the club is to promote all phases of physical education and athletics through professional meetings, club sponsored activities, and school sponsored activities.

PEM fulfills its purpose by sending teams to other colleges to participate on a competitive basis. This year PEM has sponsored the girls' soccer team and tennis team. The club has also sent a group to the Georgia Athletic Recreation Federation of College Women held at West Georgia College.

PEM raises money to finance these trips by individual work of each member. Money making projects include working at concession stands during basketball games, running a coat and hat check at ball games, selling candy, and dues.

One of the main projects of PEM is directing the Women's Intramural Program for all college women. The tournaments held this year were flag football, basketball, speedball, badminton, volleyball, tennis, track and field, and ping-pong.

PEM also participates in the Annual Physical Fitness Day for Georgia High Schools. This day is planned and carried out by both the girls' and boys' departments.

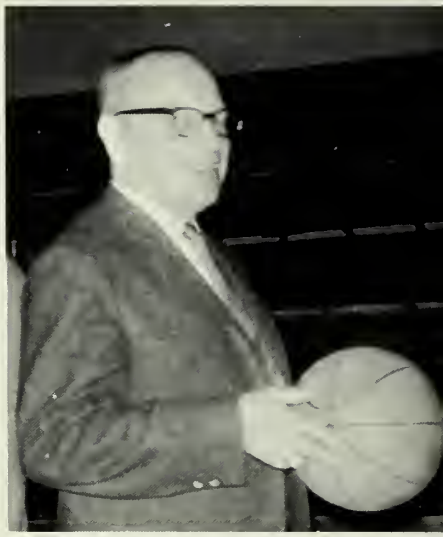
Head Basketball Coach



Basketball, Georgia Southern style, is fast, exciting, and colorful. Students await the arrival of the opening game and make their way to the exits after the season final—only to long for the next season.

A dedicated and exciting coach, along with fast action, characterize G.S.C. basketball. From pre-game warm-ups to the final buzzer, basketball G.S.C. style is fast, exciting, and colorful.

The Eagle cagers got off to a sluggish start dropping three of their first five games, including an opening game to Shorter 87-80.

GSC then won their next contest including the Chattanooga Invitational Championship. Arch-rival Oglethorpe snapped Southern's six game winning streak with a 71-67 victory in Atlanta.

They knocked off their next ten opponents, including a 94-80 victory over the "Stormy Petrels" of Oglethorpe in Statesboro. Carson-Newman broke the Eagles' winning streak at ten even with a 81-72 win in Jefferson City, Tennessee. GSC closed out the regular season with a 97-79 win over Mercer to finish up with a 20-5 record.

Southern then earned the right to compete in the N.A.I.A. National Tournament by downing Shorter 76-66 and Valdosta State 63-57.

What does one think of when one thinks of Georgia Southern College?

Long lines, free movies, concerts, hamburgers on Tuesday and hotdogs on Wednesday, blind dates, "Pops", walks in Sweetheart Circle, the ducks, campus cops, parking tickets on rainy days, basketball games, the "two-faced" people, the "one-faced" people, the "no-faced" people, lectures, bull sessions, dorm meetings, hot nights, snow, cold showers, the lakes, the moat of mud around the student center, the tension, the relief, the anger, the love, the silent moments, the joyous moments, the tearful moments, graduation, and the draft. These are a few of the fond memories we have of G.S.C.

A special memory (nightmare) is the date of the deadline of the Reflector.

The annual is completed and so is another school year. There are so many people to whom I owe a big thank you for helping me get this book together: first of all to Linda, who put up with me during the deadlines; and Blimp who always had a new joke to cheer me when the pressure was on; thanks to Sandra who acted as an executive secretary and general "pusher-oner"; to Leland and Bill who acted as traffic managers and good listeners; thanks to all my section editors and their staffs for doing such a fine job; thanks to Bill Diehl for his artistic photography; thanks to Bill and Claudia Muller and their coffee pot; and, thanks to the innumerous people who helped in many ways.

My thanks especially go to Mr. Mandes and Ed Jones who had enough faith to entrust this position to me.
