Old Business

Picnic – The picnic was on May 16th. All feedback was positive from those who attended. $491.00 was collected for the scholarship fund and over 366 cans of food collected

Suggestions for next year:

- Start at 11:00 and end at 1:00
- Have the music play longer
- More sprite and possibly add ice tea
- Have each VP present speak to staff
- Have a sign for the raffle table to help promote and explain what the raffle is for
- Have one large door prize
- Need a donation jar for those who forgot a can good but would like to donate money
- "Staff Council" signs (we can have these made and use at all events)
- Open the raffle up for several days for pre-sales
- Ask Mr. Chris Pugh to participate again in 2014 Picnic

New Business

Town Hall Meeting: The next 2 town hall meetings will be May 22th at 4:00 pm – 5:00 pm and May 29 at 11:00 am– 12:00 pm. Place: Nessmith-Lane room 1909. Pattie will send Paul the information to send out the dates campus wide.

Bylaws: The current Bylaws have been revised by the executive committee. Each Staff Council member received a copy of the edited document 1 week prior to the meeting. An open discussion was held and other edits made. Lisa Bridges will send the edited version to the Staff Council the week of May 20th for the council to review again and vote on during the June meeting.

(See edited Bylaws attached)

Herty: It was presented to the Council that with the assignment of Herty, the 65 + Herty employees will now be under GSU. It was recommended to add a seat to the Staff Council to include a Herty representative. Lisa Bridges will speak with Dr. Charles Patterson about this addition and who best can attend the meetings on behalf of Herty.
