ABOUT THE COLLECTION

Biographical History:

Porter Wilkins Carswell Jr. (1904-1986) was the son of Porter Wilkins (1867-1905) and Arabella Walker Carswell (1868-1931) and was a lifelong resident of Burke County, Georgia. His family owned a cotton plantation of 3400 acres near Waynesboro, Georgia, named Bellevue. In 1980, the Carswell plantation was the oldest plantation still owned by the original Georgia family. Porter Carswell Jr. was a prominent farmer, civic leader, and politician. He served four terms in the General Assembly.

Porter Carswell Jr. was educated at Waynesboro Grammar School, Academy of Richmond County, Emory University, and the University of Georgia. He married Elizabeth McMaster Macaulay in New York on June 15, 1932. Elizabeth McMaster Macaulay was the daughter of Dr. Hugh Buchanan (1856-1908) and Rosa Moore McMaster (1875-1964) of Burke County. They had one son, Porter Wilkins Carswell III (1933-2005).

Porter Carswell Jr was active in numerous civic, fraternal, and agricultural organizations, including Sons of Colonial Wars, Children of the Confederacy, Waynesboro Rotary Club, and Waynesboro Chamber of Commerce as well as a member of the First Methodist Church of Waynesboro. Carswell was also instrumental in bringing electricity to rural Burke County. In the 1960s, Carswell was the editor of Waynesboro's weekly newspaper, the True Citizen, and served as a correspondent for the Augusta Chronicle. He also wrote articles for other newspapers, such as the Savannah Morning News Magazine.

Biographical history derived from Carswell family finding aid processed by the Georgia Historical Society.

Scope and Content: The collection consists of the papers of Porter Wilkins Carswell Jr (1868-1931) much of which concern Waynesboro and Burke County. Materials include personal and business correspondence, administrative records of civic and fraternal organizations in Burke County including Waynesboro Rotary Club, First United Methodist Church of Waynesboro records, and Rural Electrification Association (REA) materials.

Miscellaneous Correspondence

The next files contain photocopies mainly of whole newspapers or whole sections of newspapers which were found inside a box in the original collection. The majority of the papers are from two years, and are organized by those dates. The newspapers from 1939 seem to have the common theme of the premiere of Gone With the Wind in Atlanta; the newspapers from 1966 focus on Carswell's failed run for Congress as a Republican (the first Republican to run for national office in Georgia since Reconstruction).

Box 23: Rotary Club Board Minutes 0200103503575

The following materials were originally in three-ring binders. The binders were rusting and deteriorating, so they were thrown out. The materials were kept together as they had been in the binders. They consist mostly of booklets with "Minutes of the (month, year) Meeting of the Board of Directors of Rotary International."

Minutes 1932-1934

Minutes 1934-1936

Minutes 1936-1937

Minutes 1938-1940

Minutes 1940-1942

Note: The next two folders contain photocopies of pages from a binder. The original pages had been damaged with water; the first twenty or so are partially unreadable from sticking together. The title page reads "Proceedings - Board of Directors Meeting - Rotary International" with "Confidential for Members of Board" handwritten in the top right hand corner. The date given for the meeting is January, 1938.
