The Fourth Annual Sebastian Dangerfield St. Patrick’s Week Lecture and Irish Coffee Reception

Frank Clancy
Department of Languages, Literature & Dramatic Arts

Presented in honor of Sebastian Dangerfield, the saintly hero of Donleavy’s The Ginger Man, this lecture will resurrect a twentieth century Irish writer. Again this year the talk will be followed by an Irish coffee reception for those who have kept up the outward appearance of virtue and who have never set sinful example.

Title: "A Scandalous Woman: The Short Fiction of Edna O'Brien"

All lectures are presented on Thursdays at 12 noon in the Health Professions Auditorium on campus. The public is invited to attend at no charge.
