My News

May 11, 2015

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews
Part of the Higher Education Commons

For supplemental articles, click on the link in the recommended citation.

Recommended Citation
https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews/45

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Office of Strategic Communications & Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in My News by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Georgia Southern receives funding for new classroom building, degree program

Georgia Governor Nathan Deal visited Georgia Southern this morning to sign into law HB 76, an important part of the 2016 Fiscal Year Budget. The law includes $33.6 million for the multidisciplinary disciplinary classroom building, as well as $1 million for our operating budget to build a world-class manufacturing engineering program.

New MyGeorgiaSouthern goes live May 13

The newly-redesigned My.GeorgiaSouthern.edu goes live on May 13 for all users. Several beta users have been using the system for the last few months, helping IT Services find any bugs or issues. The new design is mobile-friendly and has a more user-friendly interface.
Georgia Southern graduate student wins fellowship to study renewable energy

Martin Muinos, a graduate student at Georgia Southern, has won a National Science Foundation grant to continue his work at the Renewable Energy and Engines Laboratory.

Learn More ›
Recreation Facility renamed for former University President and First Lady

Georgia Southern University’s state-of-the-art Recreation Activity Center (RAC) will be named after former University president and first lady, Bruce and Kathryn Grube.

Dr. Grube was Georgia Southern University’s 11th president and served from 1999 to 2009. During his tenure, the University became a Carnegie Doctoral/Research university, experienced record-breaking enrollment and significant improvement in academic quality, as well as growth in facilities and other resources.
Two Georgia Southern students selected to join Teach For America

Khrysta Robinson and Marissa McOmber both crossed the stage this weekend and officially became alumnae of Georgia Southern University, and both are excited to begin a career this summer working with children.
Graduation 2015 at Georgia Southern

More than 2,600 students graduated from Georgia Southern University this weekend. Check out photos from the graduate commencement ceremony, the traditional Lantern Walk and the undergraduate commencement ceremony.

Click here to see photos »
Don't miss the Staff Council Picnic this week!

The Staff Council will host the Staff Council Picnic, an annual staff appreciation event, on Thursday, May 14, from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m. Participants will receive free hot dogs, chips, cookies and drinks and can purchase raffle tickets for one of several prizes. Be sure to bring a canned food item to the picnic to donate to the Statesboro Food Bank.

In the Media...

- Outlook for college grads best in years – Business Savannah
- Georgia Southern remembers Rolling Stones visit 50 years ago – WTOC
- Georgia Southern Logistics Students Participate in Multinational Case Study – Savannah CEO
- Georgia Southern selected for NCAA Golf Regional – Statesboro Herald
- Cardinals Bring In 14 Undrafted Rookies – AZCardinals.com
Join the Faculty and Staff Google+ Community

GSInfo Community is a voluntary, private network designed to foster a friendly online workplace environment, encourage camaraderie and facilitate cross-organizational relationships.

Learn More >