Week 6: Introduction

Today’s Big Idea: Teach and test so that all students can show their true understanding of course content.

Quick Overview: In addition to exchanging ideas or activities on how to overcome misconceptions and learning bottlenecks, there is a readiness assessment test or RAT, and we will learn about multiple choice tests. We will also revisit lesson planning briefly and critique a quiz.

Below you will find the SLOs, PowerPoints and handouts for Week 6. If you have questions about creating effective tests or helping students become self-directed learners, please let me know.

Week 6: Learning Outcomes

At the completion of this learning module, you will be able to:

- Demonstrate your ability to address disciplinary misconceptions and learning bottlenecks.
- Explain what instructors can do to help students become self-directed learners.
- Analyze test items and complete a table of specifications.
- Identify flawed multiple choice test items.

Week 6: Task List, PowerPoints & Handouts

Complete the following before you come to class:

1. Bring an activity—discrepant teaching event—or ideas to address ONE misconception or learning bottleneck in your discipline or target course

2. Read Chapter 7,
