Statesboro walks for sexual assault awareness at annual Walk a Mile in Her Shoes event

Students, faculty and the Statesboro community put on their high heels for the sixth annual Walk a Mile in Her Shoes event Tuesday.

Each year, the Statesboro Regional Sexual Assault Center, also known as the Teal House, puts on the award-winning event that strives to raise awareness about the causes, affects and solutions to sexual assault and gender violence. Participating men wore made-for-men heels to literally walk in women's shoes. Full Story.

Women's golf finishes 10th in final tournament before Sunbelt Championship

The Georgia Southern women's golf team traveled to Mt. Pleasant, SC to compete in the Charleston Invitational. In the first round, the Eagles were led by freshman Natalie Petersen, who posted a 74, and sophomore Ella Ofstedahl who shot a 71. Full Story

GS' to perform Shakespeare's "Measure for Measure"

The Georgia Southern University Theatre Department's production of the William Shakespeare play "Measure for Measure" opens Wednesday night.

"Measure for Measure" follows Angelo, a man who has been appointed to govern Vienna in the Duke's absence. Angelo quickly cleans up Vienna, until he meets the Isabella, the sister of a man sentenced to death under Angelo's new laws. Isabella comes to Angelo to beg for her brother's life. Angelo makes a deal with Isabella, if she sleeps with him he will let her brother go. Full Story

Rajin Cajuns end Tennis Team's win streak

Coming off of a weekend where they grabbed 2 big wins against conference rivals Georgia State and Appalachian State, the Georgia Southern men's tennis team hosted yet another conference foe Louisiana on Tuesday.

Their contest against the Ragin Cajuns was the Eagles' final conference matchup of the season, and unfortunately for GS, it didn't end how they had hoped. Full Story.
