Steele-Monokou wins Student Government Association election

After several days of voting, the 2018-2019 Student Government Association elections came to a close and declared its winners.

Jarvis Steele, senior political science and philosophy double major, will serve as the SGA president for all three of GS's consolidated campuses. Amber Monokou, junior managing major, will serve as the next executive vice president for the Statesboro campus. Full Story.

The historic Willow Hill School lives on with help of GS community

Less than a 20-minute drive from Statesboro, where the historic Willow Hill School once operated in Portal, Georgia, now stands the Willow Hill Heritage and Renaissance Center, a community center and museum.

The Willow Hill School was originally established in an old turpentine shanty by former slaves in 1874. Full Story.

Gamecocks get the best of Camp and the Eagles

Georgia Southern looked to snap their losing streak when traveling to Columbia, South Carolina, but failed as they fell to South Carolina 5-2.

The Gamecocks were quick to score, as Alyssa VanDerveer hit a three-run home run in the bottom of the first to give USC an early lead. Full Story.

Football spring practice report April 4

The Eagles took the field for one of their last spring practices of the spring preseason. With one week until the spring game, there are only two more practices left for the talented football season.
