Anchor College of Business' VITA program saves Bulloch County residents $33K in tax prep fees in 2021.

College of Engineering and Computing faculty present at national conference, reconnect with alumni.

Georgia Southern professor, alumnus honored at Regents Scholarship Gala.

Office of Facilities Planning, Design and Construction earns top state awards for high performance and environmental efficiency.

October week 3 COVID-19 vaccine reward and incentive program winners.

It's the last week to participate in the COVID-19 vaccine reward and incentive program.

Make an appointment for an AIG retirement or Valic financial advisor meeting.

Open Enrollment is Oct. 25 through Nov. 5.

This entire message may not display in your email body. Remember to click “View entire message” at the bottom of your email screen.

Wings Up, Sleeves Up! What's your vax story?

Join the University Store on the Statesboro and Armstrong campuses for a Halloween Costume Contest Friday, Oct. 29.

Volunteers needed for December commencement ceremonies.

Disc golf course coming to Georgia Southern's Armstrong Campus.

Alumni Association Homecoming events.

Drive-thru Fresh Fruit Friday event for faculty, staff on the Statesboro Campus, Friday, Oct. 29, from 7 to 8:30 a.m.

Football, rifle, volleyball and men's soccer at home this week.

Holiday Helper Tree returns Nov. 1 for 28th year of giving.

Lawrence W. Sherman to present 'Policing, Violence and Mental Health: The Case of Domestic Homicide' during Norman Fries Distinguished Lecture Series on Nov. 2.

Women's Leadership Series Employee Resource Group to host 'Lessons Learned: Advice on Tenure and Promotion for Women in Academia' on Nov. 3.

Join the Diversity and Inclusion Faculty Fellows for 'Recognizing Bias' on Nov. 5.

José de Arimatéia da Cruz, Ph.D., to present Robert Strozier Faculty Lecture on Nov. 5.

Celebrate Together brings festivities and fun to the Armstrong Campus.

Download the official Georgia Southern Pumpkin Carving Kit, show off your True Blue spirit this Halloween.

Homecoming Parade will be livestreamed on the Georgia Southern University Facebook page on Friday, Oct. 29.

In case you missed it:

Nominations for the 2021-2022 University Awards of Excellence are now open.

Register for the First-Generation Day Reception on Nov. 8.

Cross Country preview: Eagles to compete in Sun Belt Championship.

Halloween activities planned for Saturday's football game.

Ashlyn Lovett named Sun Belt Defensive Player of the Week.

Georgia Southern University builds tribute to Armstrong athletics.

RiteCare Center hosts shoe drive.

Celebrate Together event returns to Armstrong campus — WJCL.

Georgia Southern Speech Center wins Parkinson Voice Project Grant — Parkinson's Today.

Georgia Southern's Dominique Halaby on the BIGx Accelerator Program — Savannah CEO.

Liberty County student's career training takes off with dual enrollment — Savannah CEO.

Steve Wariner returning to Savannah for show at GSU — Connect Savannah.

Georgia Southern alumna, 2022 Georgia Teacher of the Year to speak on Armstrong Campus on Oct. 20 — Spot on Georgia.

The mosasaur is back! Georgia Southern Museum reopens after 3 years — Statesboro Herald.

Have a story, event or achievement idea for inclusion in Your Midweek Memo? Submit ideas for consideration to news@georgiasouthern.edu by Mondays at noon.