The story
Bowman birdied her first hole of the day, the 345-yard, par-4 5th, and played her first nine holes 1-over. She made birdie at 14, 17 and 18 and finished the day with four straight pars, shooting 2-under on her last nine.

Ofstedahl played her first four holes 1-under with a birdie at the par-5, 460-yard 6th. The junior wrapped up the tournament with pars on her final seven holes.

The Eagles made 38 birdies in the event, the second most of the week, and ranked fourth in par-4 and par-5 scoring. Bowman led the tourney with 12 birdies, and Natalie Petersen made nine.

Quotables from Coach Emily Kuhfeld
"We struggled a bit today but pulled it together at the end and have a lot to be proud of this week. Ansley bounced back from her opening round and her determination almost won her her first title! We have three weeks before our next event, and we are excited to regroup and prepare for the second half of our fall tournament season!"

Next Up
The Eagles have a few weeks off before traveling to the Terrier Intercollegiate Oct. 29-30, hosted by Wofford at the Spartanburg Country Club.
