Georgia Southern Football Schedule Released

The Georgia Southern Athletics Department and the Sun Belt Conference have announced the Eagles' 2019 football schedule, one of the most difficult FBS slates in program history that includes six home games, at least two nationally televised games and seven contests against teams that played in the postseason last year.

"This schedule, on paper, is shaping up to be really tough, but we're up for the challenge," head coach Chad Lunsford said. "We start out at LSU, who is one of the top teams in the country, then host Maine who went to the FCS semifinals last year and then go to Minnesota, who won seven games and a bowl game as a young team last year. Then we also have to go to three of the top teams in the Sun Belt in App State, Troy and Arkansas State. But we're excited to have six games at Paulson at home again to be able to play in front of Eagle Nation. This schedule is a challenge, but we want to go from good to great this year and being able to navigate a schedule like this will help us meet that goal."

For the first time since 2013, Georgia Southern will play six home Saturday games in a season, starting with Maine on Sept. 7 and concluding with in-state rival Georgia State on Nov. 30. Other home tilts include Louisiana (Sept. 28), Coastal Carolina (Oct. 19), New Mexico State (Oct. 26) and ULM (Nov. 16).

Selected dates for Homecoming and Family Weekend will be announced at a later date.
