Top Stories From April 9, 2018

College of Education bus stop to be added to Sweetheart Circle route

The College of Education stop has been added to the Sweetheart Shuttle route following a proposal by the Student Government Association over Spring Break.

The new Sweetheart Shuttle route, introduced in March, came from a proposal by the Student Government Association. However, SGA President Dylan John said a proposal was made to Parking and Transportation over spring break to evaluate current bus routes and consider adding the stop to the new route. Copper Beech residents feel alert notifications for April 1 shooting were too late

Some residents of Copper Beech Townhomes feel that they should have received a more timely alert notification following gunshots at the complex on April 1.

On April 1 at approximately 2:36 a.m., Advanced Patrol Officer Ian Huggins of Statesboro Police Department was found deceased in his apartment at Copper Beech in what is suspected to be a murder-suicide. Full Story.

Eagles extend losing streak to eight after a three-game sweep to Coastal Carolina

The Eagles looked to break their losing streak but were unsuccessful in their travels to Coastal Carolina. CCU not only beat the Eagles but swept the entire weekend, leaving the Eagles with a losing streak of now eight games. Full Story.

Eagles earn another hard-fought Sun-belt series win in Little Rock

Eagles sweep two-game series in Little Rock, improve to 16-15 on the season.

Georgia Southern got two much needed Sun Belt victories over Arkansas-Little Rock this weekend, behind late game heroics and stellar pitching. Full Story.

NHL playoffs primer

Even though the one Georgia NHL team was relocated to Canada in 2011, the NHL obviously still goes on and there are still diehard fans who follow the sport with a passion.

There are others who only pay attention to the most popular sport on ice when the playoffs come around.

Luckily for both parties, the playoffs are finally here. And luckily for the non-diehards, here's a breakdown of who to root for in the 2018 NHL Stanley Cup Playoffs. Full Story.

The Office of Student Media has started a fundraiser to support professional development for students involved in this organization, which includes The George-Anne. If you feel inclined, please donate on this link or simply share the link!
