Sociology Graduate Working at Amazon

August 21, 2020

Sociology and Anthropology degrees from Georgia Southern University open up opportunities for our graduates, especially those who complete internships.

Christina Strain earned her BS in Sociology last spring 2020 and completed an internship with Human Resources at Bulloch County Schools during her undergraduate studies. In June, Christina was hired to work in Human Resources for Amazon and moved to Tulsa, OK, to launch a new Fulfillment Center. She said, "It's been worth every minute. I absolutely love the job and the company!"

Congrats, Christina! We love hearing from our graduates.
