Obituary

“Servant Of God Well Done”

Mrs. Sarah Andrews was born September 5, 1894 in Hubert, Georgia. She was the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. Benjamin Suggs. Mrs. Andrews departed this life April 24, 1980 in the Bulloch Memorial Hospital, Statesboro, Georgia.

She became a Christian when she was quite young and united with the Hutchinson Longstreet Baptist Church, Stilson, Georgia. She lived a Christian life ever after. Mrs. Andrews received her education in the public school system of Hubert, Georgia. Her Christian life was as the fragrance of a beautiful rose and it influenced the lives in the places she had resided and served. She was quiet in her manner, pleasant towards everyone and enjoyed talking, especially about the Lord and His cause.

She was united in holy matrimony to the late Dea. Homer Moore. To this union two children were born. In 1926, she was married to the late Dea. William Balls. On October 13, 1955 she was married to the late Dea. John L. Andrews.

Sarah Andrews joined the Thankful Baptist Church, Savannah, Georgia and served on the Deaconess Board and was a member of the choir. She was a member of the Prince Hall No. 258 O.E.S., the Independent Christian Union Society of Savannah, Georgia and the WMBS Society of Stilson, Georgia. Mrs. Andrews served in various capacities of the Pilgrim Association.

She leaves to cherish her memories a son and daughter-in-law, Homsie and Katie Moore of Ellabell, Ga.; a daughter and son-in-law, Hessie and Raymond BeauCamper of Ellabell, Ga.; a sister, Mrs. Corine Austin of Newark, N.J.; four grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, many nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

A precious one from us is gone,
A voice we loved is stilled

A spot is vacant in our hearts
That never can be filled

Take her in Thine arms, dear Lord
And ever let her be,

A messenger of love,
Between our hearts and Thee.
