Georgia Southern holds flag ceremony for new University Housing initiative

Georgia Southern University held a flag ceremony Tuesday morning at University Villas to begin a new initiative by the university to fly the U.S. flag outside of all eight residence halls.

During the ceremony, a team consisting of veteran members of the GS Housing Department and members of GS ROTC program participated in raising the U.S. flag. Full Story

Color change in Georgia Southern ponds attributed ## to algae control chemical

The ponds on the Georgia Southern University campus appear to have changed color after being refilled from maintenance.

The change in color can be attributed to a copper chemical that was added to the ponds to control algae growth, said Communications Director Jennifer Wise. Full Story.
