Alumna Serving Behavioral Health Needs of Communities

May 8, 2020

School of Nursing alumna, Katie Ward ('12), has jumped in the driver seat to fight the COVID-19 pandemic by providing her nursing skills aboard the THRIVE bus. The bus was mobilized to bring behavioral health care to Emanuel and Candler counties in Georgia. In addition to her role on the THRIVE bus, Ward serves as the Director of Health Services for CarePartners, one of Georgia Southern University's clinical partners for mental health clinics.
