Women's golf places third in Sun Belt Championship

In the opening day of the Sun Belt Championship from Raven Golf Club in Sandestin, Florida on Sunday, the Georgia Southern women's golf team collectively shot a 299, good enough for second place on the leaderboard.

Sophomore Julianna Collett lead the way for the Eagles, ending the day tied for first place by shooting an even-par 71. Full Story

Georgia Southern music faculty members receive Global Music Award CD

Georgia Southern University Department of Music faculty and classical music duo Elaris Duo received the Silver Medal-Outstanding Achievement Award at the Global Music Awards April 5.

The winning CD, "Duo Virtuoso II – Works for Violin and Cello," features masterpieces created between the two world wars from European artists Honegger, Ravel and Schulhoff, and won the SMOA award in the new release categories. Full Story

Golden leads the Eagles in a 6-4 win over the Cougars

Up by four runs in the bottom of the sixth, sophomore Mitchell Golden stood on second base with freshman Jason Swan at home plate.

Christian Shiver threw a wild pitch as Golden stole third, bringing the sophomore shortstop turned second baseman home.

Batting eighth in the order in Tuesday night's non conference win over College of Charleston, Golden scored two runs on one hit and two hit by pitches. Full Story

GS conducting aquaponics research

Georgia Southern University's Armstrong campus is advancing new aquaponic technology with hopes to make the process more available for education.

A new way of farming is being studied at GS in partner with FORAM Sustainable Aquaponics Research Center.

Aquaponics farming is the use of fish to help provide nutrients to plants as they grow in water. Aquaponics is not a new concept to the world but is not widely practiced commercially due to its high cost. Full Story
