Feed the Mosasaur brings ‘A Taste of Thailand’ to Georgia Southern

Participants in this year’s annual Feed the Mosasaur event have until Friday, Feb. 19, to reserve their spot for a tasteful tour of Thailand.

The Georgia Southern Museum will present this year’s event, titled “A Taste of Thailand,” on Saturday, March 5, at 6:30 p.m. at the Nessmith–Lane Conference...
Center Ballroom. The event will feature a five-course custom meal to give diners a taste of authentic spicy Thai flavors, adapted to appeal to a milder palate.

Georgia Southern hosts civil rights activist Joanne Bland

Joanne Bland began her civil rights activism in the early '60s, joining Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., on the front lines of the struggle. She was in Selma and Montgomery, Alabama, and witnessed the brutal beatings of fellow marchers at the hands of police.

Bland will visit the University to present her lecture, "My Piece in the Puzzle of Social Change," on Thursday, Feb. 25, at the Nessmith–Lane Conference Center.

Donate gently used business attire for clothing drive

Enactus, the Georgia Southern student organization for entrepreneurs, is hosting a clothing drive through Feb. 29 to collect gently used professional wear. Items collected will help fill a closet, located at Career Services, for individuals who may not have the means to buy a brand new suit for an interview.
Nursing professor contributes to award-winning textbook

Carole Bennett, Ph.D., assistant professor of nursing at Georgia Southern, authored a chapter in an award-winning textbook, recently named a Book of the Year by the American Journal of Nursing.

Bennett's chapter recounts the story of her field experiences in war-torn Rwanda.
