World Languages Collaborative Update

October 2, 2020

Hello Colleagues,

The 2020 World Languages Collaborative is knocking at the door. As always, the event is free, informative, and fun. This year, unfortunately, we will not mingle physically, but we will be able to see each other, thanks to the miracle (curse?) of technology. For more information and to register, follow this link:

<https://sites.google.com/view/wlcollab2020/home>; here is the (original announcement).

A huge thank you to Mark Linsky of SCCPSS, who is the motor behind this year's event; also to Patrick Wallace, of GaDOE, to Olga Amarie, of Georgia Southern University, and to all the presenters and participants.

Hope to see you all on Saturday, October 17! Please forward this to the language-teaching colleagues at your institution.

Thanks and best, Eric
