STUDENT NEWS

The Georgia Southern Symphony String Camerata's participation in the international project, "Art Unites Us All," highlights the ways in which art (especially in these turbulent times) unites us all, despite national borders and regardless of artistic field. "Art Unites Us All" involves musicians of the National Conservatory of Greece and over 120 musicians from around the world, including the Canadian Brass quintet. The GS Symphony String Camerata's video recording of "Atenes Domina," an original work written by composer Domina Monriel will be posted on May 16, 2021. The event includes musical performances, dancers from the Athens Conservatoire and elsewhere, as well as other short videos in which various artists share "what does art mean to them."

The Camerata is directed by Dr. Steven Elisha.
