Georgia Southern Students Receive National Scholarships from Metalcasting Industry

November 20, 2021

Six students from Mechanical Engineering and Manufacturing Engineering, along with Dr. Jingjing Qing, Assistant Professor of Manufacturing Engineering, and Dr. Mingzhi Xu, Assistant Professor of Mechanical Engineering, attended Foundry Educational Foundation (FEF) College Industry Conference in Chicago from November 18-20. At the conference, 116 students delegates from 30 FEF certified and affiliated schools competed for 36 prestigious scholarships.

Manufacturing Engineering Undergraduate Student, Manuel Cabrera, was selected as one of the delegates(six students in total) to represent Georgia Southern University at the 2021 FEF CIC conference. Mr. Cabrera has received job offers from foundries after the conference.
