Assistant Criminal Justice Professor, Dr. Jonathan Grubb, Invited to Speak on Human Trafficking

September 5, 2018

MONDAY, SEPT. 10TH @ 12 PM!!! Being held inside 3 TREE COFFEE ROASTERS located at 441 S Main St, Statesboro, GA 30458!!!!!!!

Jonathan Grubb, Assistant Professor of Criminal Justice and Criminology at Georgia Southern University and President of Savannah Working Against Human Trafficking (SWAHT), has been invited to speak about human trafficking and ways to get involved in combating it. NEXT MONDAY AT NOON!! Hosted by: 3 Tree Coffee Roasters.

“Join us for our first Lunch & Learn! We’re all about educating people on things we are passionate about at Three Tree. In our first meeting, Jonathan Grubb will be speaking about Human Trafficking and practical ways you can get involved in its abolition. He works with a local group called SWAHT (Savannah Working Against Human Trafficking) and is also a Georgia Southern professor that has a big heart for getting the word out and ending it!

We’ll have a lunch special that day, so come grab a bite and join us in the treehouse at noon!!"
