Wilson Named to USCCE Board of Directors

August 22, 2019

This past June, at the North American Coach Developer Summit in Colorado Springs, Colorado, Department of Health Sciences and Kinesiology Associate Professor Charles “Hal” Wilson, Jr. was elected to serve on the Board of Directors of the United States Center for Coaching Excellence (USCCE). Wilson will serve a three-year term as an Accredited Program Representative Board Member.

USCCE is a national non-profit organization dedicated to elevating and enhancing the professions of sport coaching, coach education and coach development.

“I am excited to be joining the Board of Directors of USCCE, to learn from the current board members, to represent all of the nationally accredited programs, and to help further the USCCE mission of strengthening the quality of coach development systems,” stated Wilson.

Georgia Southern University’s undergraduate minor and master’s degree programs in coaching are both nationally accredited by the National Committee for Accreditation of Coaching Education (NCACE).
