Two Graduate Programs Receive National Ranking

September 17, 2019

Georgia Southern University has received nationally ranking for two Master of Science (M.S.) programs within the Waters College of Health Professions.

The M.S. in Sport Management was ranked No. 14 on Sport Management Degree Guide's list of "25 Best Online Master's in Sports Management Degree Programs" and the M.S. in Kinesiology with an emphasis in sport and exercise psychology was ranked No. 20 on Online Psychology Degrees' list "Online Psychology Degrees Top Graduate Degree Programs."

Both rankings considered student to faculty ratio, tuition, and program accreditation.

The 36-credit hour programs are designed to provide students with a comprehensive and rigorous curriculum and practical experience in the skills and techniques necessary to be successful in their fields.
