Lakeside and Dining Commons Both Set to Host Midnight Breakfast Again

November 28, 2016

Eagle Dining Services wants to help students get 'finals' strong with preparing a midnight breakfast feast at both Dining Commons and Lakeside Dining Commons. This breakfast event is in part to give students' the necessary break they need from studying for their finals.

Midnight Breakfast aids in a student's ability to take a break, clear their mind, and refuel for their final exams. Eagle Dining Services hopes this time for rest will help students with their study habits, as well as preparing them for success with their upcoming exams. The breakfast will start on Sunday, Dec. 4 at 11:59 to 2 a.m., through the morning of Tuesday, Dec. 6. The event will feature breakfast favorites such as omelets, biscuits, waffles, and more!

"We know that our students can be very stressed out come finals week. That's why we want to give our students that need a break from studying a place to come and get a nice meal and relax for a few moments," said Greg Crawford, Director of Residential Dining for Eagle Dining Services.

Eagle Dining Plan holders will have all-access to the event. The cost to Eaglexpress card holders and those who wish to pay credit, debit, or cash, the cost is $8.75.
