B. Comments

Discussion ensued regarding presence of ex-officio senators, with specific regard to who qualifies and why are they permitted participation. President Hampton addressed history and rationale behind ex-officio presence. Discussion continued concerning the necessity of “faculty” (not “administrative” alone) status for university personnel to qualify as ex-officio senators. Parliamentarian Thomas states University President Jones has the right to appoint ex-officio representation to the senate, rebuttal concerns the difference in language between Dr. Jones appointing “a” representative and multitude present. The crux of the issue is identified as senatorial concern for the administrative presence at senate meetings hindering open discourse. President Hampton requested the matter be submitted in writing for the senate record (Appendix H – rec’d 19 Nov).

V. Announcements

Senator Bob Loyd raised concerns surrounding the lack of consistency regarding campus Plagiarism policy; President Hampton remanded the issue to the Student Success Committee. (Appendix I)

RESOLUTION

The faculty of Armstrong Atlantic State University are concerned about the proposed change in TRS board policy regarding Cost of Living Annual Increases (COLA) for current and future retirees. We believe that changing the present policy, which requires the TRS to give its members biannual 1.5% COLA, to a policy under which the 1.5% COLA are optional may significantly weaken the University System of Georgia's retirement plans. Such a move threatens to hamper the recruitment and retention of the most qualified faculty possible, thus jeopardizing our public trust to provide a better educated Georgia. Therefore the AASU faculty strongly urge that the existing COLA policy be retained.

Appendix H

The History Department unanimously requests that the faculty senate clarify the status of its ex officio members. We ask clarification of three issues:

1. Which members of the administration hold ex officio status according to the current constitution?

2. Of those administrators who currently have ex officio status, how many enjoy faculty status as well?

3. If they have faculty status, administrators are already recognized as non-voting members of the faculty (Constitution, article 1, section D) and as such can attend open meetings of the senate (By Laws, article 8, sections A-C). Why, then, are some administrative personnel also given ex officio membership? What is it about the duties and expertise of their office that warrants them sitting as ex officio members? We ask that this be addressed on case by case basis, i.e., a rationale for each administrator deemed to hold ex officio membership.

Appendix I

Mr. President,

I am providing the secretary for inclusion in Senate minutes, a concern expressed by the Department of Special and Adult Education Department in which we have developed additional specific departmental policies.

That concern is the issue of plagiarism.

We believe that issue needs to be addressed university wide. We feel there should be consistency across the campus to ensure that all students are treated equitably and to deter students from repeating a plagiarism offense when they take courses in different departments. We thank you for this opportunity to express our concerns about this critical honor offense.

Respectfully submitted on November 10, 2008 by;
Robert Loyd, Senator for the Department of Special &
Adult Education
