My News

March 28, 2016

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews

Part of the Higher Education Commons

For supplemental articles, click on the link in the recommended citation.

Recommended Citation

https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/mynews/75

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Office of Strategic Communications & Marketing at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in My News by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
Georgia Southern hosts Walk A Mile in Her Shoes®, Tim Mousseau to raise awareness of sexual and dating violence

Georgia Southern University will host several events March 28–31 including Walk A Mile in Her Shoes®, guest speaker Tim Mousseau and the Red Flag Campaign to educate students and raise awareness of sexual and dating violence.
One week left for 2016 Green Eagle Nominations

Do you know a student, faculty or staff member who is dedicated to keeping the campus green? The Center for Sustainability is now taking nominations for the Green Eagle Awards for Sustainability. Nominations are due by 11:59 p.m. on Monday, April 4.

D.I.F. Conference seeks to 'Embrace the Elephant'

The Georgia Southern University Multicultural Student Center will present the Diversity, Inclusion & Fairness Conference on Saturday, April 9 in the Russell Union. Speakers include entrepreneur and author Justin Jones-Fosu and University of Georgia assistant professor Chris Linder, Ph.D.
Every Eagle. Every Year. campaign kicks off

The Department of Alumni and Annual Giving asks the Eagle Nation to imagine the impact Georgia Southern could make if every Eagle gave every year in its new campaign video. Annual gifts are a great source of funding that enable students and faculty to SOAR to the highest levels of excellence. Learn more about this campaign, kicking off today.

Learn More »
CIRT hosts Irish government officials’ visit to Georgia Southern, Savannah

Last week, a group of Irish government officials met with leaders across the state of Georgia, including interim Georgia Southern University President Jean Bartels, Ph.D., RN, thanks to the work of the Wexford–Savannah Axis Research Project, which is a partnership between the Center for Irish Research and Teaching (CIRT) and Waterford Institute of Technology.

Georgia Southern wins St. Patrick Award at Savannah St. Patrick's Parade

Georgia Southern showed its True Green Spirit during the St. Patrick’s Day Parade in Savannah on March 17. The University float, coordinated by the Office of Marketing and Communications and with the help of numerous departments on campus, won the St. Patrick Award, which is given to the parade entrant that most embodies the spirit of St. Patrick. In addition to advertising Georgia Southern to hundreds of thousands of people actually lining the streets, live coverage of the float on local TV generated an estimated publicity value of more than $10,000.
On Campus...

PAC will host 'Inspiration of Broadway' with Ernie Haas & Signature Sound on Friday, Apr. 1

TerraCycle CEO Tom Szaky to speak at Sustainability and Entrepreneur Lecture Series

Award-winning Latina filmmaker will screen and discuss her latest film March 31

Register now for Summer Camps at Georgia Southern

Georgia Southern welcomed spring with colors, music and fun at Holi Fest

Campus Farmers Market opens for spring on Tuesday, March 29

Department of Music presents Faculty Series Recital featuring Linda Cionitti and friends

In the Media...

GSU finishes 10th at Schenkel — Statesboro Herald

Georgia Southern in the St. Patrick’s Day Parade — WTOC

GSU professor from Belgium reflects on terrorist attacks — WJCL

Alumna Kay Proctor named partner at Lanier, Westerfield & Deal — Statesboro Herald

‘Voting as an Informed Citizen’ forum held at Georgia Southern — WTVM

All about Trump — Statesboro Herald

Georgia Southern Eagles soar into Spring Practice — WJCL

Join the Faculty and Staff Google+ Community

GSInfo Community is a voluntary, private network designed to foster a friendly online workplace environment, encourage camaraderie and facilitate cross-organizational relationships.
Produced by the Office of Marketing & Communications, MyNews is an internal faculty and staff email publication which correlates with campus news on GeorgiaSouthern.edu/MyNews. Published on Mondays, MyNews is designed to communicate campus news and announcements plus faculty, staff and student recognition stories.

If you have a story idea or would like to request news to be featured, email marketing@georgiasouthern.edu. The deadline to request MyNews articles is Thursdays at Noon.