College of Engineering News

March 28, 2017

Georgia Southern University

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.georgiasouthern.edu/cec-news

Part of the Engineering Commons

Recommended Citation

This newsletter is brought to you for free and open access by the Engineering & Computing, Allen E. Paulson College of - College Publications at Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. It has been accepted for inclusion in Engineering & Computing, Allen E. Paulson College of - News by an authorized administrator of Digital Commons@Georgia Southern. For more information, please contact digitalcommons@georgiasouthern.edu.
IT Faculty and Students Win Best Paper Awards at SAIS

March 28, 2017

Jeffrey Kaleta, assistant professor of information technology, and his colleague Lakshman Mahadevan of the Rajagiri Centre for Business Studies in India, won Best Paper at the Southern Association for Information Systems 2017 annual meeting.

Max Sorto, MSAE ’16, Cheryl Aasheim, professor of IT, and Hayden Wimmer, assistant professor of IT, won the Best Student-Faculty Collaboration at the SAIS 2017 meeting as well.

These awards are among several received by IT students and faculty recently, and are indicative of the high level of scholarship in the Department of Information Technology.

SGA President Dylan John wins Potts Leadership Award

March 28, 2017

David Dylan John, BSCE ’16, MSAE student and current Georgia Southern SGA President, has been awarded the 2017 Regent Willis J. Potts Student Advisory Council Leadership Award.

The Student Advisory Council is composed of SGA presidents from the 31 University System of Georgia colleges and universities, representing more than 309,000 students. Each year, the SAC membership anonymously selects a member who has shown strong interest and leadership in the organization; who demonstrates openness, honesty and respect; and who shows enthusiasm in the engagement of all SAC activities and conferences.

Two years ago, Azell Francis another CEIT student (MechE ’14, MSAE ’15) and 2014-15 SGA President, won the Potts Leadership Award. The CEIT is very proud of the leadership demonstrated by our students and graduates.