Enrollment

As of August 29, Fall 2017 enrollment is 6950, -0.36%% in comparison to one year ago. The new enrollment target is 228 to reach the enrollment goal of 7178. The Fall 2017 census date is October 13.

SGA Update

Nipuna Ambanpola provided the following updates.

- SGA passed a resolution supporting the allocation of a portion of the Athletic Fee to the Recreation and Wellness Center. The resolution takes into consideration the 2016 Recreation Center Survey where students overwhelmingly supported the expansion of the Recreation Center facility and programs.
- The SGA retreat took place on August 26, 2017 at the Student Success Center. SGA members from the Armstrong main campus and the Liberty Center campus attended the retreat and learned among other things how SGA functions in the university and how to write legislation.
- The SGA Block Party is planned for Wednesday, August 30, 2017 from 11:00 am - 2:00pm in the Student Union. Participants include 48 student organizations.
- The SGA is posting weekly video updates on Facebook. Two videos have been posted. The two videos have reached approximately 4,000 people with approximately 1,800 specific views.
- The SGA will dedicate the fountain in front of the Student Union in memory of the Armstrong students, faculty, and staff who have passed away. The memorial plaque installation is scheduled for September 13, 2017 from 11:00 am - 11:30 am in front of the Student Union. Invitations will be sent. Note: Due to Hurricane/Tropical Storm Irma, the event will be rescheduled.*
