Lakeside Set to Host a Homecoming Carnival Special Dining Event

October 6, 2017

Eagle Dining Services will host a Carnival themed special dining event during Homecoming week this year. This event will take place at Lakeside Dining Commons Thursday, October 12, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Kent Tatum, General Manager of Lakeside, is excited to put on another special event for the students. “The Lakeside staff enjoys putting on these events because we can be more creative, and do something for the students we don’t get to do on a daily basis. We try to create a more festive atmosphere that excites not only the students but the staff as well, thanks to the food and decorations,” said Tatum. Carnival themed food such as; Fried Pickles, Teriyaki Glazed Turkey Legs, Cheeseburger Dip with House Fried Potato Chips and much more will be offered as well as fun games and prizes.

Eagle Dining welcomes all students, faculty and staff to attend the Homecoming Carnival. Eagle Dining Plan holders have all-access to the event under their dining plan. The cost for Eaglexpress is $12, and for those wishing to use credit, debit, or cash, the cost is $15 + tax. Lakeside Dining Commons will be closed from 2 p.m. until 5 p.m. to prepare for the event, but Dining Commons will be upon to accommodate everyone during that time.
