Whereas the Faculty Senate is troubled by the state of accountability, transparency, and communication between the administration and faculty;

Whereas the Faculty Senate is concerned about the stability and health of the leadership;

Whereas the Faculty Senate believes that the administration, along with the faculty and staff, have the best interests of Armstrong at heart;

Whereas the Faculty Senate reaffirms the centrality of Academic Affairs to the function of the University and anticipates strong leadership and shared governance;

We offer the following requests as a pathway to move Armstrong forward:

1. Whereas the recommendations of the Planning Budget and Facilities Committee (PBF) Faculty Budget Priorities Report 2013-14 state “this survey supports the conclusion that high expenditures on administration by administration are draining funds that could be devoted to teaching and instruction;”

The Faculty Senate, in recognition of this transitional time in academic leadership, requests that no administrative positions requiring new funds be created until the end of the 2014-2015 academic year. And if such positions should be deemed necessary, they will be brought to Faculty Senate for discussion. Academic Affairs will retain any lapsed faculty salaries as well as salary savings associated with filling open faculty positions at lower ranks and/or lower pay.

2. Whereas recruitment, retention, and support of faculty should be a priority as referenced by the PBF Faculty Budget Priorities Report 2013-14;

The Faculty Senate requests that by the end of fall 2014, a three-year plan will be developed and implemented with the target of attaining an average faculty salary of 100% of the CUPA average as referenced in the Faculty Salary Study of 2013-14. Funding to achieve this target will be dependent, in part, on institutional revenues.

3. Whereas communication has been an ongoing source of frustration for faculty and staff and whereas our Core Values and articulated mutual desires depend on shared governance and transparency;

The Faculty Senate requests that the Senate President and Vice-President be invited to monthly meetings of the President’s Cabinet and Deans.

The Faculty Senate requests that the Senate President be offered the option of appointing a faculty representative to any cross-divisional committee (e.g., search and policy-making committees) convened by a member of the President’s Cabinet if there is not already a faculty representative.

The Faculty Senate also requests that the President ensure the creation and maintenance of a webpage listing all standing committees convened by a member of the President’s Cabinet for each academic year, including their chairs and faculty representatives.
4. Whereas by administrative expansion or churn, the proliferation of job postings for administrative positions has been a continuing concern of faculty;

The Faculty Senate requests that a monthly report of all future job postings identifying the position as new or replacement as well as a justification be sent to the Faculty Senate President.

5. Whereas Armstrong's use of consultants has represented an expenditure in excess of $350,000 per year for the past four years;

The Faculty Senate requests a consulting services plan for the upcoming academic year listing major consulting projects ($25,000 or greater), timeline, justification and cost be presented to the PBF Committee in the fall.

FSB-2015-01-26-03 Budget Planning Bill (revised)

Whereas the Faculty Senate and its Planning, Budget, and Facilities Committee desire to have more input and receive more information about budget priorities and the budget preparation process;

The Faculty Senate requests that:

(a) Before the end of each Fall Semester, the Vice President for Business and Finance or his/her delegate will review the priorities listed in the final budget narrative provided to the Board of Regents with the Planning, Budget, and Facilities Committee. The goal of such a meeting will be to provide insight into the priority setting and to obtain feedback from the committee that may influence the future development of the final budget developed in the spring of each year,

(b) During the Spring Semester of each year, the Provost and Dean of each College, representing the faculty, will be provided an opportunity to present their priorities and suggested changes to funding and programs, to the President’s Cabinet in advance of the final budget submission. The goal of such a meeting will be to provide guidance for funding and improving the academic mission of the University to the University President, and

(c) Following the development of the final budget, the Vice President for Business and Finance or his/her delegate will present an overview of that budget to the Faculty Senate, in a meeting open to all faculty and staff.

Academic Bullying and Hazing Bill

Whereas faculty incivility in the form of colleague targeted academic bullying and hazing ultimately fosters a hostile work environment by cultivating and enabling an academic climate of intimidation, marginalization and exclusion.

Whereas the results of Armstrong’s recent Campus Climate Assessment Project revealed that members of several constituent groups were differentially affected by exclusionary, intimidating, offensive, and/or hostile conduct,

Whereas Faculty staff and students survey respondents identified that exclusionary, intimidating, offensive, and/or hostile conduct often involved faculty as the source of the exclusionary conduct.

And whereas the continued cultivation of collegiality through mutual respect, civility, and dignity is essential for furthering positive higher education interaction between all levels of faculty, staff, students and administration.

The Armstrong Faculty Senate requests that the University Grievance and Conflict Resolution procedures be changed by the University Grievance Committee to include a grievance or disciplinary review process policy for the University Grievance Committee to use for review and discipline of academic bullying hazing and bullying complaints/disputes made about any administrator, faculty and staff members by faculty, staff and students.
