Finding your way in the new Henderson Library

September 25, 2008

Here’s a handy guide for you! This is the information from the signs we’ve posted around the building. When in doubt, please ask! The main places to get help are on the 2nd floor, at the Learning Commons desk (near the computers; ask here for help with research or computing, or chat with a librarian here) or the Circulation/Reserves desk (near the Learning Commons Desk; come here to check out books and reserve items, and to pick up items from the ARC or interlibrary loan).
